Puerto Rico To Host Festival

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — Native dancers and musicians from the Caribbean Islands are rehearsing for a gala 10-day jamboree to be held here on August 1.

From these folklore rituals stems the inspiration of many of America's songs and dances.

Widespread interest throughout the United States, as well as other parts of the world, has been aroused by the forthcoming festival.

Clifton St. Boy Hit By Car

A youngster was hit by a car early Tuesday morning when he dashed out between two parked cars on Francis St. near Clifton Ave.

He is Walter B. Hollman, 5, 2620 Flora St., who was treated at Mercy Hospital for left shoulder injuries.

James B. Cook of the same block of Clifton Ave. was the driver of the car.

Just About People

Lovely Dorothea Towles is heading toward New York City from Los Angeles after a series of successful fashion showings on the West Coast. It might be that Miss Towles plans joining her sister

John White Miss Morgan Ralph Parsons Albert Bethune

Lois in Paris soon, who knows? . . . Charming Vivian Ash of Buffalo, grand basileus of Beta Kappa Beta Sorority, was in New York City for the Global press conference and dinner. The Beta Kappas are New York State beauticians. Their Supreme Basileus, Mrs. Maude Gadsen, did the sorority "good" when she was platform guest with Dr. Dary McLeod Bethune and Mrs. Mae Garris at the graduation of the Orchid Beauty School . . . New Orleans is missing that little bundle of loveliness, Mrs. Lucille Hunter, who is enjoying New York hospitality.

Ralph W. Parsons, was honored with a testimonial dinner recently at the Hotel Diplomat. A former top insurance salesman with Victory Mutual Life Insurance Co., he resigned to take over the duties as vice president of the United Mutual Life Insurance Co. . . . A weekend visitor recently was Mrs. Hattie Mitchell Powell, sister of J. E. Mitchell, editor and publisher of the St. Louis Argus and 1952 recipient of an award from the National Negro Publishers Association. Rose Morgan's trip abroad seems to be giving her many ideas for her dress shop here in New York . . . Foreign notes or letters are always exciting to receive . . . But just as interesting was the recent one from Mrs. Lullelia W. Harrison, executive secretary of Beta Phi Beta Sorority, whose activities in Houston, Texas will cease for a while, since she will be spending some time in the midwest in the interest of Zeta.

Susie Whetstone, of Montgomery, Ala., is increasing her teaching knowledge at Columbia University. . . . Mrs. Julia Walker Brown is another of our favorite women who are doing great things for our young people. She is founder and president of Walker's Vocational and Commercial College in Jacksonville, Fla. Right now she is making her school into a Junior College, having met all of the state requirements. Incidentally, Albert Bethune, son of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, is a graduate of the college which Mrs. Brown heads.

Ivory Joe Hunter MGM recording artist, has left the Joe Glaser stable and is now booked by the Gale Agency . . . Pretty Miss Marian Jim, Chinese beauty, a graduate of Adelphia College, one of the finest ballet dancers of our time . . . Marian Anderson seen walking up East 42nd St. . . . Marlene Dietrich walking up East 55th St. last week unnoticed by passersby. The males had their eyes focused on three ordinary beauties, just three feet behind La Dietrich. . . . Josh White and Eartha Kitt still at the Blue Angel. . . Sy Oliver and his band furnishing music for the Gaylords, Inc. one of New York's most fashionable men's clubs at the exclusive Park Terrace, in the Bronx.—GLOBAL.

The Beautiful 'Heavenly Father' Girl

A bright future is predicted for Edna McGriff as becoming one of the leading spiritual artists. Miss McGriff is widely known for her now famous "Heavenly Father" record, a best seller.

Born Yesterday, 'Blue Moon' Cast

NEW YORK.—(ANP — James Russo and William Ellis, local producers, have announced that they would send two touring shows on the road opening early in November.

The two productions will be "Born Yesterday" and "The Moon Is Blue," both Broadway hits. In this case all-colored casts will perform.

The groups will travel by bus and automobile and carry portable scenery. The shows, which will be booked by Dick Campbell, Frederick O'Neal is set to play the lead in "Born Yesterday," a part created by Paul Douglas on Broadway.

Singing Convention

TRYSON, N.C. — Elected officers at the recent North Carolina Singing Convention were E. S. Stagg, supervisor; V. V. Fuller, both of Inman, S. C.; Mrs. Annie B. Moss, Tryon, secretary, and Palmer Gaffney, Lyman, S. C., treasurer.

The interdenominational Ministerial Alliance of Greenville, S. C., met here recently at Garrison Chapel Baptist Church, the Rev. M. Martin, pastor. Officers of the body are Lie Reve. O. B. Landford, president, and H. E. Johnson, secretary.

NOW, WE'VE SEEN and heard just about everything!

THE TUESDAY "Operation Shirt" of the Baltimore Transit Company and its employees capped the stack.

JUST IMAGINE, a city over a million people knotted and stymied can't top that no matter how you try.

'TWAS JUST SO SILLY. What does the public care about the color of the shirt a man wears as long as he gives service?

WE WOULDN'T CARE if it was a shirt without a collar or a shirt without a tail. In fact, the major portion of the working people who must depend on this mode of transportation to and from work wouldn't care if the drivers were stripped down to beach shorts.

IT'S WORKING UP to a pretty mess when the Baltimore Transit Company doesn't want white on it: busses and trolleys, when for almost a hundred years, it didn't want black on them.

The action of the company gives us the consolation knowing that white, the heretofore symbol of supremacy for certain races, is fast becoming obsolete and is no real symbol at all.

IT SEEMS THAT BTC has sneaked a page from the Chinese laundryman, whose sloan is "No tickee, no shirtee." In BTC's case it's "No gray shirtee no tickee do busee."

BALTIMORE'S TRANSPORTATION syste m has deteriorated so low that it is now time that some action be taken to eliminate the sordid conditions which make the lowly earthworm look like a giraffe.

THE RESPONSIBILITY now rests upon the shoulders of the Public Service Commission who sits around doing nothing. In the words of President Harry Tru man: A do nothing Commission."

LOCAL THEATRES list a gala holiday week program topped by the return of stage shows to the Royal. Here you will find Ruth Brown, the "5-10-15 Hour" and "Tear Drops" gal, along with an array of top talent.

NIGHT CLUBS, too are going all out to entertain those unable to get away for the week end. The Melody is holding over its sing and shake show, with Ike Dixon's Comedy Club offering the usual brand of No. 1 entertainers.

Along the Stroll you'll find fun galore and old friends and acquaintances congregating at the Casino Alhambra, Moulin Rouge, Bob Mitchell's Rendezvous, Bederland, Sphinx, Morris A. Soble Whitley's Ubangi, Kennedy Wilson's Vilma.

Across North Avenue, Walter Rouse will be host at Dowell's Rudy Dixon at Club 2330 and the George Foxes at Rhythm.

Off the Stroll, there are Jones, out Lanvale St. Way, Club 451, Olde Mill, Club Orleans, Club 909, Little Joe's, P. and M., Harlem and Monroe, Knotty Pine, and a host of others expectin you.

THE REGENT THEATRE is holding over the film Lydia Bailey" another week.

THE GAY LADS Quintet won first prize in the Olde Mill talent contest on Tuesday night. The group includes: Leon Payne, lead, Tyrone Leonard, baritone guitar, James Sutton, 1st tenor; Robert Smith, bass. Bill Franklin turned in a bang-up job as emcee.

ELSIE MALLORY, a keen looker from Paterson, N.J., and Sarah Johnson, of 2307 Whittier Ave., getting plenty of attention from Jimmy Anderson, N. H. Pollard and Capt. Andrew Davis at the Vilma.

WILLIAM WALKER, of 2317 Madison Ave., sporting a 50-foot yacht which is piloted by Capt. J. Davis. It's a honey of a boat.

DAVID HUBBARD, member of the vice squad, on the vacation list with his family up around Niagara Falls . . . Riley Palmer wants the boys to know he's still in circulation . . . Clyde Bernhardt, mutician of Newark, N.J., making a quickie trip to Baltimore.

MICHAEL GRAHAM, of Washington, and some of his Graham Crackers, Sunday visitors here . . . Jim Crow in all of Baltimore will soon get a real pounding from a well organized group.

AND, THAT'S AS FAR as we Got On and Off the Avenue This Week.

Dope Gets Doorman 2 Years, $1,000 Fine

BOSTON—Jesse J. Jackson, 30, of Columbus Ave., a doorman at a Back Bay night spot, was found guilty, last week, by a jury in Federal Court of unlawful transfer of narcotics.

Judge Charles E. Wyzanski Jr., before whom the case was heard, sentenced him to two years in prison and fined him $1,000.

Called "Big Operator"

Assistant U.S. Attorney William J. Koen, who prosecuted the government's case, called the defendant a "real big marijuana operator" and recommended a five-year term.

Judge Wyzanski remarked that the arrangements

Jackson must have derived considerable income from sales of narcotics, but he reduced the sentence from the five years recommended to two years.

Capital Shriners Picnic At Beechwood

Maryland's Beachwood Park, was the scene of the annual picnic and outing given by Bluegrass Potentate Eugene Dickerson, Jr. and the Divan Of Mecca Temple, Shriners.

Nobles Paul F. Cooper, Wendell Cooper, Louis F. Hill, Charles F. Taylor, James M. Norris, Charles Baird and Joseph Lattimore assisted Noble Dickerson in the arrangements.

2,000 Fans Attend Jazz Symposium

WALTHAM, Mass.—Some 2,000 persons attended the Friday afternoon Program dedicated to jazz here last week at the Adolph Ulman Amphitheatre.

Among the musicians participating were Wein, Ruby Braff, Dick LaPalm, Max Roach, Tony Hanson, Lee Konitz, Alan Kager, Charley Mariano, John Field, and Al Drootin, John Lewis and Howard McGhee.

During the symposium the critics also hit a hot tempo. One claimed that "jazz has become so popular, that if it continues in its present course, by 1960 there will be four players and four listeners, too."

Exponents Of Jazz

Another favored modern jazz as an expression of contemporary life." The third said: "Jazz reached its peak back in the days of swing in the late thirties as exemplified by such name bands as Benny Goodman, Duke Ellington, Cab Calloway, Charlie Parker, Chick Webb, and others.

The names of such famed band leaders as Fats Waller, Sid Catlett, Eddie Green, Jelly Roll Morton, and many others were heard at this session.

Vacationland NOTES

By MELVINA A. JACKSON

Thank you for the wonderful response you are giving this column in sending for the AFRO Travel Guide and our special marked Free Road Map.

To clear up a question in the minds of many of our readers, the specially marked Free Road Map is prepared and mailed direct to you from the Esso Company. I have had so many, so letters this week from readers telling me all about the vacations they have planned and requesting information on certain spots throughout the U.S. and elsewhere.

Mass. Good Place

For those who are spending their vacation in Massachusetts: Incomparable summer vacationing can be yours in Massachusetts. Hundreds of miles of beaches for swimming, surf casting, sun bathing . . . boating of every description. Salt water sport fishing of the best, to suit all tastes.

Excellent golf courses, facilities for all kinds of sports; summer theatres.

The Berkshire Hills is a gracious, wooded hill region located along the State's western border from north to south.

Eastward continuation of Berkshire Hills is Pioneer Valley, dropping down to beautiful broad valley of the Connecticut River bordered with thriftiness, community ties and fertile farms. A region of spectacular streams with gorges, waterfalls, and cataracts where pools and runs are stocked with trout.

Many gorgeous scenic drives afford breath-taking panorama. Most famous, Mohawk Trail, starts at Greenfield, winding west through quiet Deerfield Valley, climaxed by Hair Pin Turn.

See age-old dinosaur prints in solid rock in Holyoke, South Hadley and Gill; Shelburne's beautiful Bridge of Flowers, Quabbin Reservoir, the largest man-made water supply in the East. Old Deerfield, scene of Indian massacres with historic 17th and 18th century homes and relics.

The rolling country of Central Massachusetts, with its lakes and woodlands is popular for the casual tourist and camper. Princeton's unique automobile museum is widely known, while nearby is Mt. Wachusett, from whose summit Boston Harbor is visible. Fitzgatory Chasm, Sutton, half-mile crevasse in solid rock with curious caves and bizarre formations.

Historic Boston is the cradle of American history, city of culture. Historic sites at every turn.

Faneuil Hall, Paul Revere House, Bunker Hill Monument, Old North Church, to name only a few. Amusements of all sorts, good theatres.

Between Boston and Cape Cod, the South Shore has an atmosphere all of its own. Sandy beaches and quiet harbors for those who love sailing, swimming and fishing.

You will recognize such historic attractiveness. That's Cape Cod! An enchanting place of earth piles and sand dunes, quaint elm shaded villages and thrilling ocean panoramas.

There are scores of miles of sun-warmed beaches and hundreds of ponds, cozy inns, guest houses, tourist cottages, camping areas and trailer sites, smart shopping centers and intriguing antique shops.

Martha's Vineyard is exciting, restful and different. A hundred square miles of island, a satisfying blend of romantic past with restful moments of today.

Try some of these spots for the vacation of a lifetime.

Enjoy quiet, relaxing Sylvan Wahoo Inn, which is operated by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bright and located on Cape Cod, in Marston Mills, Mass. Just write Mr. and Mrs. Bright, Box No. 1, Marston, Mills, Mass.

A wonderful, outstanding summer resort is CAMP TWIN OAKS, which boasts of modern-up-to-date shaded cottages, with hot and cold running water in each.

Write Mr. and Mrs. John Woodsury, Camp Twin Oaks, Kingston, Mass., for further information.

Varied Recreation

Also in Kingston, Mass. is KINGSTON INN, located 5 miles from historic Plymouth Rock offering varied recreation including all sports. Here you will find shade trees, shurbbery, etc.

For further information write, Mr. C. H. Hayes, Kingston, Inn, Kingston, Mass.

Vacation with THE HUNDLEYS, on Cape Cod, on Beautiful, Historical Kelleys Bay. Enjoy swimming, boating, fishing, excellent food. For reservations write Mrs. James Hundley, P.O. Box 344 South Dennis, Mass.

Another ideal vacation spot in Massachusetts is "LA CASA LINDA GUEST HOUSE," located in Palmouth Heights, Cape Cod, Mass.

Here you will find a television room, modern facilities, one minute from New England's finest beach, 73 miles from historic Boston, Mass.

Enjoying bathing, boating, fishing, golfing, tennis, etc. For further information write Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Indiana Avenue, Falmouth Heights, R.F.D. 1, Falmouth, Mass.

Beauty Contest Title Holder At Beach

Miss Thelma Smith of Washington is doing what thousands of District residents hope to do over the coming holiday week end. Here she is snapped by AFRO Photographer Dave Harris as she bathed and sunned at Highland Beach. Miss Smith has won several beauty contests and her most recent title was Miss Hi Tide of 1951.

Tan Star Shines In Her Big Break On 'Cavalcade'

NEW YORK — Winsome Vinie Burrows got her big break when she was featured recently with a host of major actors including the renowned Jane Wyman in Dupont's "Cavalcade of America."

In addition to narrating the slow hea 1 on some 165 stations on a nation-wide NBC hook-up, the New York actress took the role of Elizabeth Keckley, the gallant and p i ri ted seamstress to Mary Todd Lincoln (Jane Wyman) the wife of President Lincoln.

Originating in the Belasco Theatre before a live audience Miss Burrows rose to the apex of her radio career in her featured role.

Dramatic Arts Student

The former Rosenwald Fellow currently enrolled for her degree in law and dramatic arts at New York University is Rosenwald Fellow and recently returned from an extended engagement in the Caribbean.

Miss Burrows was last seen on Broadway with Helen Hayes in "Wisteria Trees" and in the revival of "Green Pastures" which featured William Marshall. Her appearance, and those of her colleagues, was the last show of the season of Cavalcade of America. The script for "Dark Heart," featuring Miss Burrows, was written by Edith Sommer and Robert Soderberg and was based on the book "Reveille in Washington" by Margaret Leech.

$500 For Camp Fund

The Student Council of Public School No. 68 Community Center, New York City, presented the school a check for fore than $500 for the School Camp Fund. The money was raised through the joint efforts of the d a y school, community center, Parents and Citizens' Committee. Photo shows Shirley Thompson, a sixth year pupil, accepting the check from Delores Middleton, secretary of the council, and a former pupil of Public School 68. Others left to right are William Fredericks, president of the council, Miss Marian Clark, principal, Marie Saurez, council member and Elfreda S. Wright, director of the center. (Hansen Photo)

Marriage Bored, Seven Deserted Mates Freed

Shackles of matrimony that weighed too heavily brought suits which ended in divorces for seven complainants, here, this week.

"Just Tired"

Both Mrs. Elizabeth Bibbens Norman and Mrs. Erma Woodley of 1636 W. Lexington St., said that their respective husbands, Calvin Coolidge Norman and William Woodley, told them that they were just tired of the marriages and left.

The Normans' marriage lasted only two months. The Woodleys were wed seven years.

Agreed On Separation

Another union that ended practically during the honeymoon was that of Hurley Harris and Mrs. Belle Harris. A decree was signed freeing him after he testified that six months was enough to convince them, and that they voluntarily separated.

A divorce on the same grounds went to Bernard Frazier of 415 S. Carolina St., who told the court that he and Mrs. Geraldine Frazier agreed to end it all after five years of matrimony.

Work Irked Husband

Mrs. Nellie Law, 2922 Westwood Avenue, said that James E. Law just didn't like to work. He deserted her after seven years of marriage.

And desertion was also charged by Fordwich L. Greenwood of 1547 N. Stricker St., who won a divorce from Mrs. Rosie V. Greenwood. The husband was represented by Magistrate E. Everett Jane.

Mrs. Marjorie Williams charged that Russell Williams left her after two years of marriage, which she said, was filled with beating her.

Vacation Joys In Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania is a land that provides many vacations. Every community has something, to offer persons on leisure time who want to relax.

From luxurious hotels and inns in resort areas to quiet, modest cabins in the deep woods, hospitality has been raised to the level of an art.

Swimming, golfing, fishing, hiking, sailing, canoeing, camping, hunting in season, horse back riding, motoring, historic shrines, scenic views, State parks, streams and lakes, all offer enjoyment and pleasure.

And go where you will in the Land of William Penn—over 97,000 miles of highways, 41,000 of which are on the completely modern State highway system—you will find food is plentiful and of the best quality to satisfy appetites whetted by the activities of your vacation days.

Variety Of Attractions

Pleasure travelers and vacationists in Pennsylvania this year, whether they are residents or visitors from other states, will be protected by the greatest variety of attractions in the history of the Commonwealth.

And the resorts and all other groups catering to the fancies of recreational travelers and vacationists will be able to care for these people in increased numbers, according to the Department of Commerce.

Fine views, natural wonders, historic shrines will be, as alway, popular objectives of travelers, and resort areas in Pennsylvania that provide every form of recreation will have their fullest quota of persons seeking a change of tempor and scene.

Ideal Vacation Places

High altitudes in some places, temperate weather and plenty of "cooling off" spots make Pennsylvania an ideal refuge not only during July and August but earlier and later months as well.

State Forest Parks with modern swimming pools or old-fashioned swimmin' holes, comfortable cabins, outdoor fireplaces, are situated in ideal forest surroundings. Tall trees protect tentist and trailer sites.

The Pocono Mountains in northeastern Pennsylvania, Presque Isle State Park and the Erie-Conneaut Lake-Cambridge Springs-Pymatuning Lake area, Eagles Mere and the Sullivan Highlands;

The Blue Ridge Summit and the Bedford-Bedford Springs area in southeastern Pennsylvania; the area around Uniontown and the Ligonier Valley; Wellsboro and that extensive vacation area that fans out from Williamsport east and west to the New York State line are only some of the vacation spots.

There is not a county in the Keystone State that does not have something to offer the recreational traveler and vacationist.
