Lime Mold Is Favorite Salad

WISE SHOPPING with Susan Carter

An advertising column of shopping hints

FRIENDS HAVE BEEN telling me of the thrilling results they are getting by using Black and White Bleaching Cream. It makes skin look shades lighter, smoother, softer! For Black and White Bleaching Cream is now 3 times stronger than before. Its bleaching action goes right into the layer in your skin where skin color is regulated. This amazing action—a result of regular dressing table use as directed—helps you have the shades lighter, smoother, softer skin you've always dreamed of, beginning in just 7 days. Science knows no faster method of lightening skin. And it costs so little, I know you will want to try a jar of wonderful Black and White triple strength Bleaching Cream today.

THE PICNIC SEASON IS ON! . . . and when you're planning on food to take along, be sure to include a MEADOW GOLD ice cream! And like all fine MEADOW GOLD products, it's top quality always. Your neighborhood food store or fountain has MEADOW GOLD ice cream, in the convenient picture package that tells the flavor at a glance. It's perfect for picnics, and perfectly delicious any time! So serve it often . . . you know if it's MEADOW GOLD, it's Mighty Good!

This "Lime Fruit Mold" is one of our favorite summer salads. It's easy to put together with a package of lime gelatin, some colorful canned fruit cocktail and a bit of diced cucumber to give it that cool-as-a cucumber touch.

A gouple of tablespoons of vinegar cut the sweetness of the salad without making it tart.

Lime Fruit Mold

1 package lime-flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
¾ cup syrup from canned fruit cocktail
2 tablespoons vinegar
1/8 teaspoon salt
1 cup canned fruit cocktail
¾ cup diced cucumber

Salad greens

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Blend in cocktail syrup, vinegar and salt. Cool until consistency of unbeaten egg white.

Fold in well-drained fruit cocktail and cucumber. Pour into oiled molds and chill until firm. Unmold and serve on salad greens. Serves 6.

Summertime Tempter Begins With Ice Cream

This summertime tempter, Strawberry Float, is quickly and easily made with ice cream from the corner store. See recipe on this page.

Float Of Cream

Food page Strawberry Float

1 pint strawberries
1lb by ½ cup sugar
2 cups Sealtest Milk
½ pint Sealtest Vannilla or Sealtest Cream, whipped
Sealtest Cream, whiped

Clean and serve berries, reserving four for garnish. Mix in sugar, chill. Add milk and ice cream.

Stir until ice cream is partially melted. Pour into glasses. Garnish with Four servings.

Rhubarb Ice Cream

2 cups diced rhubarb
½ cup sugar
1 cup heavy cream
2 well beaten eggs

1 cup light corn syrup

Cook rhubarb and sugar in a double boiler until soft. Add no water. Cool. Whip cream, mix in eggs, milk and syrup. Fold in rhubarb and juice. Freeze at lowest temperature in your refrigerator or freezer.

Crowds Flock To New Food Market

Hundreds of economy-wise housewives flocked to the opening, this week, of this new food market at Fulton Ave., and Baker St., the fifth to be opened by Baltimore Markets Inc. Some 200 food baskets were given away the first opening days of the modern, air conditioned market.

A Casserole For A Crowd

Meat-vegetable combine.

Because we still enjoy meat in our menus, we cast around for new ways of trimming the budget—ways to serve meat economically. Now that porch picnics and casual entertaining are uppermost, a main dish for a crowd can be a problem.

A casserole is the answer — a good hearty casserole. Specially preferred is one with flavor, nutrition, economy.

Vegetables Used

If you've planted vegetables instead of petunias this year, use them fresh from the garden for this dish.

You can select any kind of meat you like — chicken is good, or even frankfurters if you're in a very economical mood.

And if you're the hostess who dislikes last minute rushing, you can even fix this ahead of time—putting on your breadcrumb topping just before the casserole goes in the oven.

CASSEROLE FOR A CROWD

6 cups cooked lima beans
3 cups diced, cooked meat
½ cups chopped onion
1 clove garlic, chopped (optional)
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 cup tomato puree
1 cup bouillon
¾ cup Blue Bonnet Margarine, melted
1 cup breadcrumbs
¼ cup chopped parsley

Grease a 3½-4 quart casserole place in it a layer of cooked lima beans, (if dried beans are used, soak 2 cups of the beans overnight, then simmer gently in fresh, salted water with bayleaf, 6 peppercorns and 1 onion, sliced, until tender, about 1 hour).

Top beans with some of the diced meat, chopped onion, garlic, if used, and pepper. Repeat until ingredients are used, ending with a layer of beans. Pour in the tomato puree, bouillon and half the melted margarine. Blend together breadcrumbs, parsley and remaining melted margarine.

Cover beans with breadcrumb mixture and bake in moderate (35 degrees F.) oven until mixture is heated through and crumbs are golden brown, about 40 minutes. Makes 12 servings.

A casserole for a crowd is a handy dish to serve when you are entertaining on warm days.

Fresh lima beans with diced leftover meat, flavored with tomato and topped with a crisp crumb crust make a delicious economical meal. Recipe is a version of the Algerian Cassoulet, translated for us by the Research Kitchens of Blue Bonnet Margarine.

American Beauty Pie

Serves 4 to 6

4 cups rhubarb, cut in 1 inch pieces
1 cups strawberries
¾ cup white sugar
1.3 cup brown sugar
6 tbsps. flour
Grated rind 1 orange
⅛ tsp. nutmeg
Pastry for double crust pie

Prepare rhubarb. Crush strawberries with fork. Mix strawberries with all ingredients except rhubarb. Alternate layers of rhubarb and strawberry mixture in pastry lined pie plate.

Cover with pastry top and bake minutes longer.

Good Manners Termed Ticket To Popularity

How to make friends and influence people by good manners is impressively told in a booklet published by the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts of the U.S.A.

Attractively illustrated, the guide for young folks does some plain talking.

Based On Kindness

There is nothing complicated about good manners, the booklet states, for they are based on kindness. However, it adds, occasions arise which may make the boy or girl feel shy, and knowing the correct thing to do helps a lot.

How to introduce two people so as to start them off in conversation, how to break the ice at a party, how to be a dinner guest, how to eat in a restaurant, how to write invitations, and to perform other social functions—all are carefully delineated.

Advice On Manners

As well, advice is given on good walking manners, good camping manners, telephone courtesy, traveling etiquette, behavior at both informal and formal dances, dressing for various occasions, and, in fact, nearly every sort of social affair is discussed. The book is good for adults as well as children.

Nectar Punch

Treat your summer callers to this "Frosty Peach Nectar Punch."

Serve it in tall frosty glasses with a blob of whipped cream on top for special occasions. It's a fluffy sort of drink because you start with a meringue and then add lemon, orange, cherries and apricot whole fruit nectar.

Sparkling water gives it the fizz.

Frosty Peach Nectar Punch

1 egg white
1 3 cup granulated sugar
1.3 cup lemon juice
½ cup orange juice
12 sliced maraschino cherries
¼ cup syrup from maraschino cherries
2 cups peach whole fruit neciar
Few grains salt
1 pind sparkling water

Beat egg white stiff, add sugar slowly, beating continuously. Blend in lemon and orange juice, cherries and syrup. Add chilled nectar, salt and sparkling water. Bleto thoroughly. Serve very cold. Garnish with shipped cream if desired.

Makes about 1½ quarts.
