JAMES T. BRIGHT, ESQ., one of the leading lawyers, of the Centreville bar, and a prominent Democratic leader in Queen Annes, has announced his candidacy for Congress to succeed Judge J. Harry Covington.

WITH a county tax rate of $1.09, a State tax rate of 31 cents, and a town tax of 50 cents with no authority to provide for a certain deficit of between $4,000 and $5,000 in the town's revenue next year, and also to keep up the present cumulating indebtedness, what is the reason that the Organization faction should want to force upon the taxpayers an additional indebtedness of $54,000 for schools? Will the tax-payers' burden never cease?

AEOLUS KELLEY.

Has anybody here seen Aeolus Kelley? Oh! yes, he comes and goes once in a while but nobody pays any attention to him. He is not himself half the time, and nobody takes him seriously. Two years ago one of the contributors of the "truthfull" communications in the Kent News last Saturday, when he got in a tight place in a heated newspaper discussion, concerning his participation in a certain transaction, endeavored to squirm out by saying that a certain gentleman living in Baltimore, and who was a party to the transaction "was a stranger to him, and he had never had any conversation with the gentleman." Some weeks after this denial appeared in the Kent News, a young gentleman living in Kent county went to Baltimore and stopped at the gentleman's store to buy a hat. The conversation drifted to Kent county matters, and the gentleman said: "You are from Kent, are you?" "Yes," replied the purchaser. "Well," said the storekeeper, "I know quite a number of people in Kent. I know Senator ——; he and I were good friends during the session of the Legislature in Annapolis." "Is that so?" asked the purchaser, who had read the statement of the Senator in the Kent News that the proprietor of the store was a stranger to him. "Yes, he and I are good friends," again replied the proprietor. It is not at all surprising, therefore, that Kelley could secure similar statements from the same source. Now, you know it is the truth that hurts, and it is amusing that every time the Organization gets a hand-down from the TRANSCRIPT that puts them in bad with the people, they look up some henchman like Kelley to pass the lie, and help him to do it.

It is the strangest thing in the world that the Organization is claiming credit for the appointment of every fourth-class postmaster in Kent county except Still Pond. They are doing it at Worton, Betterton, Golts, Galena, Rock Hall and everywhere else in the county where they think it will have political effect on the quiet, and just because the TRANSCRIPT stated, and truthfully, that they aided Mr. Carl Norris, a Republican, to secure the postmastership at Still Pond, they hold their hands up in holy horror in public print, and privately let Mr. Norris' friends in Still Pond and elsewhere know that he got the appointment through their influence, because they would much rather see a Republican get the office than a good Democrat, though he may not be a member of their faction. They have made a similar statement concerning the appointment of Mr. W. Finley Collins at Millington, and a Republican is postmaster in Millington to-day only because the Organization Democrats, headed by Senator John Walter Smith, would rather see a Republican remain in office than to have the appointment go to a Democrat, who in the very last election helped to elect the Organization Legislaturemen as well as the remainder of the Democratic ticket, and yet, of course Senator Smith and his Organization friends in Kent want every Anti-Organization Democrat to go to the polls in November and vote for Smith's re-election to the Senate; and if they voted for his opponent—a Republican—the Organization Democrats would think such action simply awful, don't you know. This is a Democratic administration. Does anybody suppose for one moment that any member of the Anti-Organization faction helped Mr. Carl Norris, a Republican, to secure the appointment? It is no trouble to induce some men to deny any charge that interferes with their political proclivities, but it is an exceedingly difficult thing to convince the public of the sincerity or truth of such denials. Nor is it at all suprising that such men have no compunctions of conscience in endeavoring to besmirch the character of any man who inteferes with their political actions. Why should the leaders of the Organization faction hesitate to aid a Republican to secure a postmastership at Still Pond, any more than this same crowd would seek to encourage a member of the Board of County Commissioners to become an applicant for tax assessor under the State Tax Commission, of which Lewin W. Wickes is a member, with a promise of appointment, and give a Republican Governor the chance to name a staunch Republican a member of the Board of County Commissioners, a most undemocratic and injudicious thing to do from a party standpoint or for the welfare of the tax-payers of this county. If anybody here sees Kelly, just hand him this dope. He'll take it, never fear, although he won't pay his dollar for the TRANSCIPT but prefers to sponge upon his neighbor for the privilege of reading the paper on Saturday or Sunday.

Saturday next, June 20th, will be observed as "Signboard Day". Those who are not familiar with the law better get posted.

The Proper Spirit.

The following letter received from Mr. A. C. Hayden, a prominent poultryman of Prices, Queen Annes County, a member of the American Poultry Association and also a member of the National Wyandotte Club, speaks for itself. It shows the proper spirit, and should be an object lesson to all those in Kent and Queen Annes Counties who are interested in the development of the poultry industry in this section:

Price, Md., June 6th, 1914

Mr. Thomas D. Bowers, Sec'y.,
Chestertown, Md.

Dear Sir:—Seeing in the county papers this A. M. of your association intention of holding a poultry show on July 28th, next, as a resident of Queen Anne's County and a great believer in the advancement of the things which we have in our county, I will take pleasure in doing all I can to make the show a success.

I have been in the chicken business for several years, a life member of the American Poultry Association, also a member of the National Wyandotte Club, I feel that we should do what we can to make the chicken business have as much of a boom as we can; we should be neighborly and do what there is to be done along this line.

I am just at this time not in a position to say as to what entries I will be able to make, as I have started out on my birds to have them moult early this year, I fear that they will not be in proper shape to show up as I would want them at an exhibition.

I would like very much to have one of your premium lists, also send me 3 or 4 entry blanks, and if possible I will try and get others to enter birds if I am not in a position to do so myself, which I hope to be able to enter a few anyway.

Yours for success in the undertaking,
A. C. HAYDEN.

Covington Federal Judge.

President Wilson on Monday sent to the Senate the name of Congressman J. Harry Covington as his appointment as chief judge of the supreme court of the District of Columbia. Congressman Covington, if confirmed by the Senate, will succeed the late Judge Clabaugh. It is understood that Attorney-General McReynolds was a hearty suporter of Congressman Covington for the chief judgeship.

Congressman Covington's salary will be $6,000 a year and a life tenure. The appointment of Congressman Covington necessitates the selecting of a candidate for Congress from the First Congressional District to succeed Congressman Covington, who had announced his candidacy. These names are mentioned: Senator Harvey Cooper, of Caroline County and William W. Beck, of Kent; Senator Jesse D. Price, of Wicomico county; State Comptroller Emerson C. Harrington, W. Mason Shehan, State Insurance Commissioner; Senator Frank Harper, of Queen Annes, and Senator Louis Milbourne, of Somerset.

Excursionists will have 7 hours in Annapolis, and those who desire may spend 4 hours of the time in Washington. All this with a beautiful moonlight ride on the bay and river.

Twilight services will begin in Christ M. P. Church to-morrow (Sunday) evening for the summer at 6.30. The Christian Endeavor service will be held on Friday evenings until further notice.

The interesting little son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Usilton was baptized by Rev. Dr. Graham during the session of Sunday school last Sunday afternoon. The little man was given the name of Frederick Gleaves Usilton, Jr,

The fund for the building of the Manse at Kennedyville is steadily growing. Among those sending donations we find the names of the following Chestertown citizens: Mr. J. S. Kreeger, Senator W. W. Beck, Lofland & Culp and W. E. Moody. We are grateful indeed to these people and will be delighted to have their names perpetuated on the Parchment. There are still others whose names are to be written there. We await their donations.—Pastor.

Next Sunday Mr. Clews will take for his subject, "A Large Place in a Small Area". Let all attend church and show in this way that they are not in sympathy with any movement that has for its end the desecration of the Sabbath day, a day which we are specifically commanded to keep Holy.

Rev. Dr. Robert Watt, district superintendent of the Easton District of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, has been elected a trustee of Dickinson College.

KRIT $950

WITH ELECTRIC STARTER $1050
F.O.B. Detroit

Why Pay for Useless Weight?

KRIT lightness comes from correct design—not from skimping. 120 pounds in weight is saved by using aluminum for our crank case and transmission case. The sturdy, powerful KRIT motor weighs only 283 pounds, as against 400 to 550 pounds for motors in cars the same size and power of the KRIT. And so on—throughout the car.

Engineers tell us that the KRIT is two years ahead of its field, for it possesses, at $950, the quality features you find in cars at double the price. The sensational sales records made by the new KRIT is an endorsement by critical motorists that proves these experts right.

So, we ask you, what more can you get in a higher priced car? More weight, perhaps, but weight only adds to the expense of upkeep. More rated horsepower, but much of the extra horse power is used up in carrying around the extra weight—and the rest of the excess power you do not need. For the KRIT will take you anywhere you want to go. It will take you there speedily, safe and comfortably.

Learn more about the economical, dependable KRIT—the moderate priced car with the high priced features. A ride will demonstrate to you the rare quality of this car—value you can't get elsewhere at the price.
