EIGHT RUNNING EVENTS SCHEDULED FOR TRACK MEET:

65 Athletes To Compete In Local Olympic Club Meet

Sixty-five athletes representing eight clubs, are scheduled to take Creamer, also of the host club, part in the Second Annual Baltimore Olympic Club Track Meet, at Druid Hill Park Saturday at 2 p.m.

A total of eight running events will be featured on the track card.

Sam LaBeach of the host club, will compete against Jim Reardon, captain of the 1948 Irish Olympic Team.

Eight In 300-Yard Dash

Other participants will include Joe Walker, LaSalle College flash, representing the Falcon Club of Philadelphia, and eight others in the 300-yard dash.

In the 660 - yard run, Tyson Creamer, also of the host club, will compete against teammate Charles Waggoner, SAA 880 champ, and Charles Mills of Chick Webb Center.

Earl Eldridge, representing the Falcon Club, will also participate. Eldridge won the 5,000 meter race at the Pre-Olympic meet at Morgan State College last May.

In the 100-yard dash there are several standouts including Ed Waters, of the Baltimore Cross City Club.

Earlier this year Waters, in winning the SAA title in 09.8, set the fastest school boy record in the country.

Dick Price of the Falcon Club, a scholastic champ; and Gene Murphy, Melrose Club representative from Washington, are due to compete. Last week end Murphy ran 09.8 in Washington.

The three-quarter mile run has drawn John Carroll, BOC's SAA mile champ; Carl Party, Baltimore County High School mile king, and six others.

Six For Three Mile Event

The three mile run lists a field of six headed by Lou DeFazio of Philadelphia, and Jack Barry of Shannahan.

From all indications, the mile relay should be the most popular event of the day. Eight teams are to take part.

They will include the Baltimore Olympic Club, Chick Webb Center, Mrmse, Falcon, Ledroit, Falcon (Washington), and Shannahan.

Plans Under Way For National Safety Week

The Division of Amateur Sports game with St. Cyprian's Recreation of the Bureau of Recreation is making preparations for the second annual National Softball Week, which this season covers the period from July 27 through August 2.

National Softball Week celebration is arranged throughout the country by Amateur Softball Association leaders in tribute to the games spectacular growth.

Team managers met this week at the Bureau and made plans for this year's celebration. A big program is planned for Sunday July 27th and several special games will be played during the week. Several games are in prospect for Sunday.

The Cherry Hill Trotters, unofficial champions in the Independent Unlimited league for three seasons is slated to play an all-star team from the Headquarters Air Research and Development Command League.

The Mohawks A.C., state tournament semi-finalist last year, is to play the United Automobile Workers(CIO) Unlimited League AlStars. Defending State Champion Crown Cork and Seal will play a special single in five appearances.

Black Sox Down Royals, 13-4

WASHINGTON

Checked with six hits, the Washington Royals, defending Metro Baseball League champions, dropped a 13-4 contest to the Black Sox, Sunday in Richie Stadium.

Calvin (Babe) Medley, Will Weldon, and Warren Boswell paced the winners' attack.

Weldon connected for a double and triple in three trips to the plate, while Boswell garnered a two-run homer, a double and a triple in five appearances.

FERNANDIS — In loving memory of our dear friend, SARAH C. FERNANDIS, who departed this life July 19, 1951.

One tender scene stands out to me In that rich life at Galilee.

Tired, throbbing feet, and ointment rare,

And soothing touch of unbound hair;

The friend and the child, a loving deed,

That gift a lowly human need.

Ah, what we can may not be much, Sympathy's soft magnetic touch,

Or kindly glance, or gentle word, Sweetness of a heart that love hath stirred.

Yet down the years one deed will shine

To our such service is divine.

Lovingly, Her Devoted Friends, MRS. HAZEL F. BROWN AND FAMILY

In Memoriam

GASKINS — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, JOSEPH P., who passed away July 19, 1951:

You fought the pain so bravely, Your need you did not tell; I kept the watch with you dear Husband,

Yes, even to the end.

I watched and waited long in vain, God grant some day we'll meet again.

Loving Wife, AIKEN

You suffered hours, Yes, hours of pain,

To wait for cure, but all in vain; Tis God alone knew what was best He called you home to give you rest.

LOVING CHILDREN

GROSS — In loving memory of my dear aunt, SADIE, who passed away 6 years ago, July 20, 1946:

When one you care for has departed

And you sit alone and broken-hearted

There's something in a kindred mind,

That always leaves a sense behind Of true companionship; I know the pain it was to see you go.

Yes, everything adores everything— The grave its victory—

Death its sting

I, who loved you, sadly miss you, Yet I know God's way is best.

Sleep on, dear Sister, sweetly sleep, Often feel your presence near.

Though God has taken you away, You are with me every day.

Sister, BERTHA TURNER, Mother-in-law,

MARY E. BANNER

Brother-in-law,

ERNEST, R. BANNON

and Friend, LOTTIE HAMMOND

ROBINSON — In loving memory of my dear Mother, BEATRICE L. ROBINSON, who passed away five years ago, July 26, 1947:

Three in all the years I spoke her, There is not a day I do not miss her. Often I think I hear her footsteps And see her smiling face.

Days of sadness still come o'er me, Tears in silence flow, Memory keeps her ever near me, Though she left 3 years ago.

Loving Son,

ALFRED G. ROBINSON, JR.
