CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic, all Teething Troubles and Diarrhœa. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, assimilates the Food, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Other personals on page 2.

Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard, of Tome Institute, returned home for the summer on Saturday and is entertaining a house party of school chums. The guests include: Miss Eleanor Thomas, of Westminster, Md., Miss Marie Louise Robinson, Winfield, Kas., Miss Amy Brooks, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Miriam Hubbard. The young gentlemen are: Mr. Jack Mulliken, of Chicago, Ill., Mr. Wilson Dumble, of Ohio, and Mr. Wm. Bigelow, of Philadelphia.

Miss Clara Coleman entertained several of her friends Wednesday night in honor of her graduation.

Mr. Wm. Green, who has been residing with his son-in-law, Mr. Owen C. Smith, in Queen Annes, near town, has removed to Baltimore, where he will make his home with his sisters. Mr. Green injured his neck some time ago, and his doctor advised him to return to Baltimore.

Mrs. Clements Jester and children, of Baltimore, were guests last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Anthony.

Mr. Hazelhurst, of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. Joseph Wickes.

Miss Grace Riggin, of Church Hill, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sides last week.

Miss Hannah Volz, of Brooklyn, N.Y., has been the guest of Miss Ida Smith during the past week.

Miss Jarrell, of New York, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell on the avenue.

Miss Clements, of near Crumpton, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Merrick Clements during the week.

Miss Miriam Hubbard entertained a number of friends at a dance in honor of her guests on Wednesday evening.

Mr. John Dugan, a former Chestertown boy, now general baggagemaster of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, with headquarters in Baltimore, was elected vice-president of the Baggagemasters' Association at the recent annual convention held in Detroit, and which Mr. Dugan attended. Mr. Dugan is rapidly becoming one of the most prominent railroad men in the east and his many friends here are delighted to hear of his success in life.

Mr. Hepbron, of the Baltimore police force, who has been granted a leave of absence for the benefit of his health, is spending sometime with relatives and friends in Kent.

A Mighty Catch Of Fish.

The purse net law, which William W. Beck succeeded in passing through the Legislature during the last session, legalizing purse net and buck net fishing from June 15th to November 1, became effective on Monday of last week. One day the latter part of last week a Rock Hall crew made a dip on Swan Point catching about 18,000 pounds of rock fish weighing from 3 to 9 pounds, as well as quite a large number of smaller fish. The captain of the crew filled his vessel and left for Baltimore. The net was hauled into Rock Hall creek and when the boat returned from Baltimore another load was gotten out of the net and sent to Baltimore, besides supplying the neighborhood with all the fish they wanted. This is, perhaps, the greatest haul of fish ever known on Swan Point. NINE tons of rock fish taken at one dip, which at 15 cents a pound sold for $2,700. There is no question but that the success of this purse-netting crew will induce others to engage in the business, and the bay will soon be full of purse-netters and buck-netters, and where will the fish industry be in a year or two? It is said now that the very people who induced Mr. Beck to pass this law regret it very much, for the legalizing of the business will cause so many people to go in as to kill the fishing industry as well as destroy the fish.

Anniversary of Caulk's Field.

This year, 1914, early in the fall, marks the 100th anniversary of the battle of Caulk's Field, the bloodiest battle in history in proportion to the number of men engaged in the conflict. This is the battle before which it was said by Sir Peter Parker, the British general, that he would eat his breakfast in Chestertown or in Hell that eventful morning, and General Philip Reed, whose monument stands on the celebrated field, defeated the British, and for all we know Sir Peter Parker ate his breakfast right out of the oven in the hot place. Would it not be well in connection with the Star Spangled Banner celebration in Baltimore in September to celebrate in some fitting manner the anniversary of the battle that saved Chestertown? Some patriotic spirit move the thing along.

The Annapolis Excursion.

For the first time in many years the people of Chestertown and vicinity, as well as Queen Annes, will have the opportunity to enjoy a delightful trip to Annapolis and Washington on Wednesday, July 8th. The Sunday school of Christ M. P. Church has chartered one of the Tolchester steamers—the Annapolis—and for the small sum of 50 cents the round trip, and any one who wishes to go on to Washington from Annapolis may do so and spend four hours in the nation's capitol for $1.00 a round trip. The indications are that a big crowd will enjoy the trip. The committee in charge has made arrangements for a splendid time in Annapolis. The steamer will leave the electric light plant wharf at 7.30 A. M., and stop only at Rolph's, arrive at Annapolis at 11 o'clock, and leave at 6.30 P. M., enjoying a beautiful moonlight ride on the bay and river. What more could you ask for 50 cents?

The Easton Star-Democrat in its last issue stated that 243 gallons of liquor were shipped into Talbot county during the month of May.
