Canton Parents Fete Children From Jersey

DANFORD, N.C. — Miss Marion Conley, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Conley, returned to Hackensack, N.J., recently after spending two weeks with her parents. She was accompanied by her Miss Vallara Conley, daughter brother, J. T. Conley, a student of Johnson C. Smith University, of Mrs. John Conley, who has returned to New Jersey after a two-week visit with her mother, Pvt. Timothy Conley and Pfc. Cyrus Conley, sons of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Conley, are both serving in Japan.

The Rev. B. F. Browne, new pastor of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, also is pastor of Tried Stone Baptist Church in Asheville.

Sunday Headliner At Carr's

Arnett Cobb, whose sensational comeback since a recent near-fatal illness is still the talk of the entertainment world, will headline a triple attraction on Sunday at Carr's Beach. With Cobb will be the Dominoes, of "Sixty Minute Man" fame, and Billy Ward's orchestra, famed for its recordings.

At Sparrow's Beach, Sunday

Miss Wini Brown, winsome chirper, will be featured at Sparrow's beach, Sunday, along with Todd Rhodes, Little Miss Sharecropper, The Swallows and H-Bomb Ferguson.

Applicants File For Revenue Post

WASHINGTON

A total of 1,280 persons had filed up to July 18 for the competitive examinations recently announced for the new post of director of internal revenue in 26 cities throughout the country, the U.S. Civil Service Commission has announced.

This is an average of 49 applicants for each examination.

The post of director was created as part of the revamping recently ordered for the Bureau of Internal Revenue under Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1952. The new setup provides for a director to be named at each of 64 points served by a collector in the past.

The position of collector, filled by political appointment, is being abolished, and the directors will be appointed under the merit system either by promotion of career workers nominated by the Treasury Department or by competitive examinations.

On the AVENUE

By E. B. REA

SOME ANONYMOUS (unknown) person sent this column an interesting card this week. The sender, neither gave his or her name, nor did the sender tell how he or she came about the card.

HOWEVER, IT'S QUITE interesting. So, I'm passing it on without comment.

THE CARD appears to be an index of numbers showing the percentage payoffs on "cut" digits on "big" and "small" books.

ACCORDING TO "numbers" language, the "big" book is interpreted to mean one in which the play is from 25 cents to no limit. The "small" book, the one where the play is from 20 cents down.

THE CARD, from an unknown source, states:

"Seven hundred to 1 on all Numbers except them that contain 1-0 or 5 anywhere which will be 600 to 1 on Big Book.

"ALL NUMBERS 400 to 1 on Small Book except 202-500-379-348-311 and their combinations will be 300 to 1 on Big Book—200 to 1 on Small Book.

"One hundred five — 200-650-710-806-815-256-212-723 will be 400 to 1 Big Book—200 to 1 Small Book. Doubles and Triples will be 600 to 1 on Big Book—400 to 1 on Small Book."

THAT'S THE LANGUAGE copied from the card.

FOR THE FIRST TIME in the history of Pennsylvania motorists patrons of the local transportation system are virtually "riding on wings" over the resurfaced thoroughfare. Everything meets the approval of the riding public on the No. 18 line, except, the fact that the schedule has not been stepped up. If you are a regular rider, you'll know what that means.

HOWEVER, THE bottleneck seems to be somewhere downtown. If and when the buses can get untangled and hit Greene St., it's smooth sailing. But the long wait still peeves a lot of people.

SOME OF MY best acquaintances among the officers at prowl cars and "dog wagons." Many are veterans in the point of service and have clean records in carrying out their assignments. However, this writer would like to see some of the colored patrolmen mixed in, or given their own cars to man. All seem to work together in harmon on the beats. How bout that?

NOW WE HAVE HEARD just about everything! One is about the colored engineer or hostler who, handles one of the Western Maryland Railroad's big steam locomotive around Monument St. and Fallsway. The other, the opening of a jim-crow restaurant at Auchentorely Terrace and Fulton Ave., catering exclusive to white patronage, mostly BTC bus drivers. People in the Neighborhood are peeved.

LUCKY MILLINDER Night (Saturday), at Dowell's drew a large crowd and was full of fun and fanfare. Happy Jack, the mad man of rhythm, kept the house in an uproar with his humor and what-have-you, with Bill Swindell's combo dishing out an unusual brand of rhythm.

AMONG THE MANY faces were: David Hazel, of Pittsburgh, Annie Pearson, Louise Jones, Dotty Charlot, P. Jackson, Alonzo Willis, Geneva Hillen, Catherine Henderson, Ruth Rea, the Joseph Stinnetts and the O'Neal Stinnetts; HOPPY ADAMS, Annapolis disc jockey; Gloria De Neal, Hilda Hough, Willie Diggs, Louise Lara, Elaie Denny, Queenie Lane, Louise Jolffson, the Stanley Warrens; Rodey Newton, Violetta Smith and Hannum Cheatham.

THE AIR - CONDITIONED Comedy Club has lifted its ban for the summer in its musical bar-cocktail lounge on men without coats.

THE TRIPLE-THREAT attraction at Carr's Beach for Sunday brings in the Dominoes, Billy Ward and his orchestra and Arnett Cobb's "Go, Red Go" combo.

PEOPLE ARE ASKING was the deserted auto left this week in the 600 block Gold St. after its occupants had beaten a pedestrian who refused to give them a cigarette, parked there by members of AVENUE TVIEWERS spell-the "Red Light" gang?

bound by the oratory of Congressman William L. Dawson on Tuesday afternoon. Likewise, Virginia Paris, tan thrush, thrilled 'em with her singing of "Lead Kindly Light" later in the evening. The soprano is a protege of screen actress Loretta Young.

SPARROWS BEACH comes up with a talented package of five attractions for Sunday. Included are: Todd Rhodes's band, The Swallows and Little Miss Sharecropper, King recording artists Wini Brown, Mercury artist, and H. Bomb Ferguson, Savoy's top blues and rhythm man.

FREMONT THEATRE, 500 block Fremont Ave., will be dark for the next six weeks. Fulton Theatre, down Fulton Ave. way, now an elaborate food market. A letter from Bert Hall, of the 3 B's and a Honey, saying the gang just closed a successful date at the Chief Tecumseh Lounge in Toledo, Ohio.

AND, THAT'S AS FAR as the "hear and I" got On and Off the Avenue this week.

'DEEPS' ATTRACT OVER 12,000 IN STOCKHOLM

STOCKHOLM, Sweden — The Deep River Boys, famed American singing stars, are scoring sensational successes here.

The Boys recently closed a four-week engagement at Grona Lund, Stockholm's largest and most beautiful park.

In their recent engagement at the Tivoli Theatre, they sang before a crowd of more than 12,000 persons.

They will leave Sweden in late July to make their fourth appearance at the London Palladium, August 4.

Following this, they will begin a four-month tour of the British Provinces, covering England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland.

Added Players In 'Wedding'

HOLLYWOOD — Nancy Gates, James Edwards and Charley Gray, who had his first big success in the leading role of "Home of the Brave," another Kramer production, will appear as the foster brother of star Ethel Waters.

Miss Garrett, widow of author Oliver H. P. Garrett, will fill the role of Aunt Pat and double as technical adviser on the Southern life aspects of the film.
