Samuel Smith's Troubles Mount

The troubles of Samuel Smith, a 30-year-old robbery suspect who has been in and out of court several times in the last three years, continued to mount this week as a $5,000 accident suit was filed against hip.

The suit was filed Wednesday in Circuit court by attorney U. Theodore Hayes for Willie Moore, 1000 block N. Carey St., charging that Moore was seriously injured by the car driven by Smith at Riggs and Carey Sts. on June 12.

Milkman Robbery

Charged with robbing a milkman, Smith, who lives in the 2600 block Francis St., was ordeder held in $2,000 bail last Thursday.

The milkman, Preston Bankhart of the 700 block Woodbourne Ave., claimed that Smith robbed him of $65 while he was making deliveries in the 1300 block of Upton St. on July 19.

Smith was also the central figure in the noted 1949 "paper bag" case in which he and his wife, Mrs. Violet Smith, were arrested in their home, then in the 1900 block Harlem Ave., in a vice squad raid.

Bags Held Hamburgers

The raid was based upon police seeing men enter the Smith home carrying paper bags. A search, however, revealed the bags contained, not numbers evidence, but hamburgers and lottery charges were later dismissed against the Smiths in Northwestern police court.

In 1950, the Smiths filed a $25,000 suit against Police Capt. Alexander Emerson of the vice squad, charging that their door was broken down, the house damaged, and that they were arrested without cause.

Suit Dismissed

The suit was latter dismissed in City court after a jury deliberated for two hours.

In the accident suit against Smith, Moore claims he was hospitalized for three weeks and still suffers from the injuries.

Loyalties Divided In Perkins Square Church

Members of Perkins Square Baptist Church are disturbed by divided loyalties in the church ranks in a case involving women members and an official of the church.

Mrs. Ward D. Yerby referred the matter to the deacon board which has set up a committee to review the situation.

Mrs. Yerby declined to discuss the matter Thursday, other than to say that it will be taken care of "at the proper time and at the proper place."

To Hold Peace

Apparently not considering the situation too seriously, Mrs. Yerby said that others can go ahead and make any statement they care to, but she will hold her peace until later.

Another member, Mrs. Marie McCall said she believes that the situation has been developing over a period of three years.

She said she became aware of a close association between certain officials and members of the church about two years ago.

Conference, Basis of Letter

She cited several incidents since then, which she felt indicated that the relationship between one couple was not confined strictly to church business.

The situation came to a head last month when, Mrs. Yerby, her mother, and her husband, the Rev. Ward D. Yerby and Mrs. McCall discussed the matter.

This conference served as the basis for the letter Mrs. Yerby sent to the deacon board early this month.

Viewed As Personal

Mrs. McCall was requested to meet with the deacon board's committee at the church on Wednesday night.

But she refused to go, expressing the opinion that since the basis for the complaint occurred at her home, it should be settled there instead of at the church.

Members look on the situation as a personal matter, but Mrs. Yerby said that since all are members of the church, they should be governed by the church's decision.

Church Members

Mrs. McCall and her husband Thomas, who is a deacon at church, live with their family of four children at 657 George St.

Mrs. McCall has been a member of the church for 13 years. Her husband joined the church several years before she did.

THE HONORABLE CHARLES ALEXANDER FAUNTLEROY PASSES

The late Hon Charles Alexander Fauntleroy 33rd degree, who departed this life July 8, 1952, at his country home in Whitestone, Va., after an illness of 12 months, was born Sept. 24, 1878 in Lancaster Co. Va. He leaves to mourn their loss, wife, Mrs. Bertha Fauntleroy, one daughter, Mrs. Emma Jones, and many relatives and friends. He attended public school in Lancaster Co., and was graduated as a printer from St. Paul Normal Industrial School of Lawrenceville, Va. He taught in the public school in Lancaster Co. and later went to Baltimore, Md., and established a printing business. He was a former member of Sharon Baptist Church, Baltimore, and served as president of the brotherhood, and worked diligently in other organizations.

He was Founder and the 1st Grand Master of the M. W. Hiram Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. Jurisdiction of Md., Scottish Rite. As a result of the Grand Lodge founded by brother Fauntleroy the Grand Lodge of Va., the M. W. Omega Grand Lodge of N.C., the M.W. King Solomon Grand Lodge of Washington and the M.W. Grand Lodge of Delaware were organized. And from a warrant obtained by our beloved brother, Masons were made overseas. He made a great contribution to the Masonic Fraternity, the Highest Religious Cult on Earth, and to the world at large. his good deeds shall never die.

It was 1921 when the M. W. Hiram Grand Lodge was organized by our brother and friend, by securing 3 warrants of Constitution issued by the M. W. Oriental Grand Lodge of N.J. Hon. John L. Gordon M.W. Grand Master, after which our brother attended the Original General Grand Masonic Congress of Grand Masters of the U.S.A. and Canada, which was held in California. If there was any doubt in his mind as to the legality of the Grand Lodge which issued the 3 warrants the results of Congress certainly caused all doubt to vanish. He was not satisfied just to be a Master Mason so he joined the Royal Arch Chapter, and the Knight Templars, latter a Noble of Mystic Shrines of North & South America. Going further, he became a Sublime Prince of the Royal Secrets, still not satisfied, he wanted to reach the top, so he became an Inspector General of the 33d and last degree of Masonry. He put the best in Life and received the best in Return.

Characters like our Hon. Brother are born once every 100 years, he played his part well, he fought a good fight, he finished his course, he kept the faith, we have every right to feel that he is enjoying the blessings of Heaven.

From our Home our Lodge our Circle God has taken one we loved from this life of sin and sorrow to that blessed home above.

How we will miss him no one knows, only aching hearts can tell. He is lost on earth but gained by heaven, for Jesus doeth all things well.

We shall meet him some bright morning, resting by the water, fair, he will be waiting for our coming, in the upper Garden (here let us strive to meet him).

Floyd Clark, M.W.G.M., Va.

Auchentoroly Terrace.

When he filed his second divorce petition in 1943, he charged Mrs. Carr with deserting him without cause, adding that he had always been a loving, affectionate and dutiful husband.

Mrs. Carr refuted the charges. She told the court that he had not been a model husband during either the first or second marriage, and that he had been vicious and brutal, striking her upon times and publicly and privately humiliating her by slurs.

Wife Refutes Charges

She said that he had added insult to injury by getting a divorce from her while she was on a visit to New Jersey, but had made amendments by remarrying her to avoid unfavorable reaction on the part of his followers.

She said at that time that he was earning $700 a month, in addition to being owner of a large amount of real estate in this city. She did not ask for alimony, but the court ordered him to pay her attorneys and the costs. The decree went to him.
