Mrs. Alday Clements and daughter, of near Crumpton, spent a part of last week with her son, Mr. Merrick Clements.

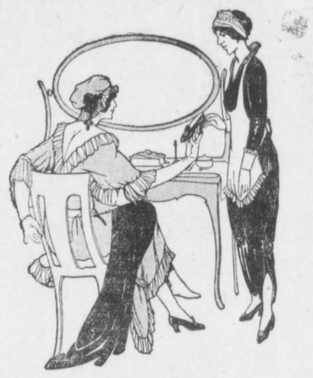

Never too Late to Telephone

You may be delayed all along the line, but you can always telephone ahead and make new appointments. You may not have time to see a party in person, but there's always time to telephone. You may have only a few minutes, but that is enough to telephone a message and get an answer.

Before calling on a business man telephone and find out if it will be convenient for him to see you. You will thus pave the way for a courteous reception.

When you telephone—smile.
