WE ARE

MAKING THEM! Compare quality, fit and workmanship with some of these guaranteed Suits we're turning out. See if you're treating yourself just right, then we'll make yours.

No large rent, no large stock to carry and carry over, no large up-keep is why we're making Suits to order for less money than you can NOW buy ready-mades. Same quality. Think this over.

In connection with my tailoring business, I've added a line of Alpaca and Mohair Coats, Dusters and Raincoats from a manufacturing plant in New York. I carry sample garments and can deliver in two days. Look them over. I'll save you 25 to 30 per cent. on this line also. Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,

SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE INTERNATIONAL TAILORING CO., OF NEW YORK, CHICAGO AND LONDON,

Office Under Voshell House, Next to Robert McWhorter's, CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

DIED FROM BROKEN NECK

Mrs. George W. Ottinger Falls From Bed in Her Sleep and Breaks Neck.

An unusual accident which caused the death of Mrs. Laura Ottinger occurred early on the morning of July 3rd, at her home on 1138 Lafayette street, Cape May, N. J. It was not known whether she was attempting to rise for the morning or whether she fell from the bed in her sleep, but she was discovered a short time after by her husband, Geo. W. Ottinger, in an unconscious condition. Dr. V. M. D. Marcy was summoned, and upon his arrival, he pronounced her dead, stating that death had been instantaneous as a result of a broken neck.

Mrs. Ottinger was the eldest daughter of the late Prof. Alfred Greenwood, of Rock Hall, Md., and Mrs. Mary A. Greenwood, who was visiting at her daughter's home. Besides her mother, she is survived by her husband and two small children, Douglass and William, ages seven and fourteen months, respectively; also two brothers, Prof. A. L. Greenwood, of Salisbury, Md.; Clarence A. Greenwood, Townsend, Del., and one sister, Mrs. Joseph Kendall, of Baltimore. Mrs. Ottinger, who was 37 years old, was a member of the Methodist Church and was a woman highly esteemed.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at her late home, and on Monday the remains were taken to Camden, N. J., and interred in Harleigh cemetery.

Why Music Did Not Come.

Mr. James G. Beck received this week the following letter explaining why Mary A. Steese and her band from Baltimore failed to show up at the races last Saturday. The letter is as follows:

Baltimore, Md., July 5th, 1914.

MR. JAS. G. BECK,

DEAR SIR: Inclosed find check I received from you for musicians' transportation. Mr. Beck, I cannot explain how badly I feel about disappointing you. I was sorely disappointed when all but two of my men came. I would have come with six, but it was the two principal ones, the drummer and cornet, so there was nothing else for me to do but to phone to you, which I did as soon as the boat left, and could not get you. It being the Fourth of July and every musician was engaged or I would have tried at the last moment to get some one else. Please do not feel too hard towards me and sometime give me another chance. Very sincerely,

M. A. STEESE.

Ordered to Sue.

The Board of County Commissioners at its meeting on Tuesday passed the following order, directing its counsel, Hope H. Barroll, Esq, to bring suit against Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., States Attorney, for money paid to him in response to his personal demand for expenses incurred in the trial of the Coleman murderers at Elkton last March, and for which Mr. Vickers said the Legislature had passed a bill directing its payment:

"Ordered that the Attorney of the Board be notified to bring suit against Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., for money paid to him in response to his personal demand and a letter stating that the Legislature had ordered the sum of two hundred and sixty-five ($265.10) and 10-100 dollars paid to him by a Bill which had been passed by the Legislature and signed by the Governor.
