Going on in the USA

By Lulu Jones Garrett

By SHIRLEY M. KYLE
(Substituting for Mrs. Garrett who is on vacation.)

Coeds throughout the country are dusting off their books, sharpening their pencils and cleaning out their notebooks for the fall term at the colleges and universities.

Among those trekking back to the campuses are Miss Marie Seckwell, Pittsburgh, who has gone to Richmond, Va. to enroll at Virginia Union; and Miss Ruby Davis, of the same city, will enter Virginia Theological Seminary

Miss Yvonne Scruggs (Managing Editor) and College in Lynchburg, Va., to study elementary education.

On their way to Tuskegee Institute are Miss Etta Marshall, Shelby, Miss. and Leon Wagner, Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tensler, Charlottesville, Va., took their daughter, Peggy to St. Joseph Academy, Columbus, Pa.

Miss Patricia Moody, Detroit, is preparing to enter Spelman College in Atlanta. And Miss Shirley Allison, also from Detroit, is enrolling at Harlem Hospital in New York.

Miss Mervyll McMillian, Mobile, Ala., is on her way to Florida A and M College in Tallahassee. And by the way, FAM will have a new instructor in its department of Agriculture. He is J. Edwin Sizer, Minneapolis, Minn., who is a graduate of the University of Minnesota.

Returning to A. and T. College in Greensboro, N.C. is Miss Audrey Greer, Chattanooga, Tenn. Miss Kitty Wayne of Lamoott, Pa., is on her way to Virginia State College to study secondary education.

And our hats go off to the newlyweds who do not let a little thing like matrimony stand in the way of their studies. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Young, who recently married in St. Paul, Minn., are returning to Howard University this fall. Mrs. Young is in the school of Pharmacy and Mr. Young, an honor graduate of Fisk University, is a senior in Howard medical school.

Enrolling at Michigan State Normal College in Ypsilanti, Mich., is Miss Elaine Hopkins of Detroit. Miss Barbara Fennell, of Philadelphia, is returning to Baltimore to attend Morgan State College. And leaving the monumental city to interne as dietician at Freedmen's Hospital in Washington, is Miss Melisande Manning.

Not to overlook the youngerset, Miss Barbara Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Reed, Jacksonville, Fla., has returned to New York where she is attending Walden High School.

While we are still on the subject of school, our congrats go to, Mrs. Tyson C. Plummer of Knoxville, Tenn., who recently earned her Ph.D. in physical education at the University of Iowa. She is the fourth colored woman to receive this degree in this country. Mrs. Plummer will teach at Maryland State College, Princess Anne, Md.

The student newspaper, the Echo, at North Carolina College in Durham, will have a new managing editor this fall. She is Miss Yvonne Scruggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Scruggs of Buffalo, N.Y. This is the first time in the history of the paper that a coed has held this position. Miss Scruggs will succeed Marion Thorpe who has left NCC to join the U.S. Air Force.

From the same college comes alumna Edith Olive Mae Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston B. Lee, New York City, who will teach mathematics at Beggs Academy in Keysville, Ga. this year.

"Lustrous Hair"... Mary Haynes, Chicago, Ill. says: "I have used Kotalko with great success. When hair is brittle and dry—Kotalko supplements natural hair oils."

"For Scaly Scalp" ... Goldie Lewis from Oklahoma City, Okla. (Now of Goldie's Beauty Salon, N. Y. C.) says: "I use Kotalko for everything from dry scalp to hair burned from hot irons!"

"Silky Smooth Beauty"... Vivian Ford, New York City, N. Y. says of one customer: "I wish you could see how beautiful her hair looks. Kotalko adds silky smooth beauty every woman loves."

BEAUTIFUL HAIR MAY BE YOURS!

WHY KOTALKO WORKS WHERE OTHERS FAIL

This photo shows Kotalko being compounded under rigid scientific control in the modern laboratories of the Kotalko Company. Only full strength Kotalko, of the leading brands studied, contains these three ingredients widely used by skin and hair specialists.

THREE VITAL INGREDIENTS

- SULPHUR — Fights bacteria that cause ugly scalp sores—infectious dandruff.
- LANOLIN — Nature's own miracle lubricant to soften and smooth dry, brittle hair.
- OLEORESIN CAPSICUM — To stimulate the flow of fresh, life-giving blood to hair roots.

If the hair treatment you now use doesn't give you this Triple Action ... be smart, be thrifty ... switch to KOTALKO Today!

Just One Application Starts You On The Road To Thicker, More Abundant—Lovelier Hair

Now you too can get these beauty shop results—thicker, lovelier, more abundant hair—right in the comfort of your own home, with full strength KOTALKO.

Dry, Brittle, Cracking Hair

Amazing KOTALKO does more than just make your hair look beautiful. Its combination of medically proven ingredients is especially compounded to help overcome dryness, brittleness, flaky dandruff—even ugly scalp sores.

Helps Rid Scalp of Dandruff

KOTALKO supplements natural oils lacking in hair that's dry, brittle, burned or cracking from hot irons ... helps nourish hair roots by stimulating the flow of fresh blood through scalp surfaces and freeing the scalp of dandruff flakes and scales that choke pores and hair roots.

Beautifies Crazy Hair

KOTALKO gently smooths and softens even the fuzziest, most wiry hair ... and gives that soft, satin-like glow that everybody loves.

Find out for yourself today why beauty shops operators from coast-to-coast praise KOTALKO ... and why thousands of satisfied men and women have used full strength KOTALKO for so many years.
