H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

"Progress" the Watchword

Merchandising is a real pleasure at this store, both to the customers and to those behind the counter.

The customer is well pleased because she can buy here what she wants and at a reasonable price, and every saleslady is in harmony with her work because every day she has new, stlyish goods to display, and, too, because you in some manner show your appreciation of the service the store renders.

This happy state of affairs causes all concerned to make their efforts spell PROGRESS.

LINENS, RATINES, CREPES and VOILES

These four kinds of dress goods surely have been leaders this season. And, of course, this store has had them in almost endless variety.

We have again replenished our stock in these lines and they are selling fast.

Come in and see the new things or write for samples.

Ladies' & Children's Dresses

NEXT WEEK WILL BE SPECIAL SALE WEEK FOR LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S DRESSES. You should see the styles and note the low prices. Cheaper than making them.

We've Brought Broadway to Town

The most authentic Shoe Styles--entrancing modes that set gay Gotham to talking--are to be seen here in the famous J. & K. SHOES for WOMEN.

Styles of the moment in nifty Pumps and Colonials, from the most progressive shoe factory in America.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Prof. Adam Geibel, the renowned blind musician, will take part in the Epworth League services Sunday evening at the M. E. Church. Prof. Geibel is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hicks.

The steamer which will take the M. E. Sunday school to Tolchester will leave the electric light company's wharf at 7 A. M., stopping at Rolph's and Quaker Neck. Those who wish to take the boat at Tolchester for Port Deposit can purchase their tickets from the committee before going to Tolchester, otherwise the Sunday school will not share in the sale of such tickets.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Services on Sunday, July 19, and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. Rev. C. W. Levister, of Salisbury, will speak at the twilight service at 6.30 o'clock. Sabbath school, 2.30 P. M.; Christian Endeavor service Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Service in the Methodist Protestant Church at Kennedyville Sunday next, July 19, as follows: Sunday school 9.30 A. M.; preaching 10.30 A. M. and 8.30 P. M. by pastor, Rev. Frank Cain; Christian Endeavor 8 P. M. All evening service short.

Preaching at Morgnec at 3 P. M.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D.D., pastor. Services next Sunday, July 19, as follows: 10.30 A.M., preaching by Rev. C. M. Levister, of Salisbury; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school, 7 P. M., Epworth League exercises.

The work of installing the new heating plant in Christ M. P. Church began this week. The entire cellarway under the church has been dug out and leveled up by Mr. Adkinson, the State road contractor, and the entire cellar will be cemented. This will make a decided improvement to the handsome church property. The entire improvement will cost $600 and the work is being done by Plumber Wm. C. Sutton.

The Will and Wishes of Mrs. Lydia A. Shaw to be Respected.

It will be remembered that late Mrs. Lydia A. Shaw of this town left the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Kent county one of her legatees, together with a number of Churches and Benevolent Societies connected with the Methodist Episcopal Church as her remaining legatee.

Her nephews and nieces, Messrs. Rufus F. Parks, Annie A. Moffett and others caveated her will. It was compromised by the next of kin being given one half of her estate and the legatees and Churches receiving the other half.

After this the next of kin of Mrs. Shaw filed a petition claiming that the entire legacy left to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union should go to them since the Womans Christian Temperance Union of Kent county was not incorporated. Judge Hopper recently handed down a decree stating that the Womans Christian Temperance Union, not being incorporated, could not receive its share under the will of Mrs. Shaw, but directed that the fund should be equally divided between the next of kin of Mrs. Shaw and the other Churches and Benevolent Societies.

Now comes the sequel. The Churches and all other legatees, represented by Hope H. Barroll, Esq., made an agreement that if they were successful in the litigation they would ask that the Ladies interested in the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Kent county, should take out articles of incorporation and they would immediately pay over to them such sum as Mrs. Shaw originally intended they should receive less the costs of the contest.

By this provision it is estimated that the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will shortly receive $900.00 under Mrs. Shaw's Will. The ladies who have been interested in this matter are Mrs. S. A. Hurlock, Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort, Mrs. S. M. Usilton, the late Mrs. John W. Corey and many others.

Base Ball Notes.

Chestertown baseball team played rings around the Hillsboro team on Ford's Field on Saturday winning in a walk by the score of 17 to 0. Usilton who was on the mound for the locals pitched a no hit no run game, and showed that he is a coming star in the baseball world.

Horsey, the crack Tri-State League pitcher with Trenton, underwent an operation for appendicitis this week, and in consequence he may not be able to pitch ball during the remainder of the season.

Frank Jarman, who has been with The Wilmington Tri-State League team, has resigned, and being the property of Manager Jack Dunn of the Baltimore Orioles he may be sold or sent to a stronger league. We believe the people of Baltimore have made a great mistake in allowing Jack Dunn's team of the International League to go to pieces. Baltimore is too large a city not to be able to support two teams, and with the Federal League team standing to win the Pennant in that organization and Jack Dunn's fine team a sure winner in the International, it would seem to be a fine advertisement for Baltimore city to have two championship teams in the same year, regardless of whether it is American or National League. Dunn has given the people of Baltimore city a fine team and an article of ball equal to that played in any league in the country, and for him to be treated as he has been by his home people is a far worse advertisement for a city of 600,000 inhabitants than is a second rate team in a league whose existence is purely problematical.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

Mr. Henry M. Rollison, assistant to Stadard Oil Repersentative George Rouse, and Mrs. Susie E. Barker, both of Chestertown, were quietly married at Christ M. P. parsonage on Sunday evening following the twiliget service by the pastor, Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham.
