BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

Are you going to the poultry show? Well yes, and to the Baby show also.

Mr. Arnold Tschantre has purchased a twin cylinder Indian motocycle.

The Canteloupe and watermelon crop will be short this season owing to the dry weather.

Season tickets for the Fair are on sale at Stam's and Toulson's Drug stores. Price $1.00.

The joint meeting of the Grangers of the Eastern Shore of Maryland will be held at Tolchester August 7 th.

The Chestertown team was defeated by the Queen Anne team on Saturday by the score of 16 to 8.

The luncheon held at the home of Mrs. Curtis E. Crane for the benefit of the Claiborne Fresh Air Cottage netted $100.

Mr. James P. Brown, of Queen Annes, has been elected a director of the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Company, vice Mr. Lemuel C. McGinnes, resigned.

The Chautauqua tent will be placed on the Hign School playgrounds. Chautauqua begins August 31st. It will be greater this year than ever.

The new postoffice room in the Lyceum Theatre will be occupied August 1. But who will be the new Postmaster has got the other fellow guessing.

Mrs. Emma Snitcher has awarded the contract to Mr. Frank E. Duyer for the erection of a residence on one of her Queen Annes farms.

Mr. Charles E. Kirby has a South American erocodile in his store window, which is attracting considerable attraction. It lives on flies and insects, and is keeping things on the hum. Mr. Wm. H. Lambert gave it to Mr. Kirby.

The state forester was in Chestertown on Saturday tacking up signs on trees. How can he expect others to obey the law when he openly violates it?

The fish fry given by the members and friends of Bond and Mowbray churches at the Cliffs last Friday was largely attended and was a splendid success socially and financially.

Fairlee Grange held a delightful picnic on Capt. Middleton's shore on Fairlee Creek on Wednesday. The fish were fine and a large crowd enjoyed the day.

The Board of County Commissioners has awarded the contract for furnishing 65 tons of egg and nut coal for the court house and jail to Mr. A. S. Turner, of Worton.

Frank Jarman beat Jesery City 2 to 1 on Monday, while pitching for the Baltimore Orioles. The Sun says Frank Jarman pitched one of his characteristic games.

The Commissioners of Kent and Cecil counties give notice that those who travel Georgetown bridge, do so at their own risk. The bridge is in need of repairs.

Owing to the large number of entries for the races at the fair next week the management is forced to build 24 extra stalls. There are more than 100 entries, horses coming all the way from Kentucky and New York.

Mr. R. Thompson, one of our meat men, had a horse injured near Ingleside recently by falling tarough a bridge. R. Groom Parks Esq. representing Mr. Thompson settled the matter amicably with the Queen Annes Commissioners.

The sale of the fine building lots on Washington avenue by the estate of the late Dr. S. E. Ford in Chestertown on August 18th, will place some of the finest residence section in the town on the market. These are splendid building lots.

The residence property on High street belonging to the estate of the late Walter W. Crew was offered at public sale on Tuesday by Hope H. Barroll Esq. trustee. It was withdrawn on an insufficient bid. It may be purchased at private sale of the trustee.

Mr. Frank Mann, of near Lynch, has purchased a 1914 Ford touring car from Mr. J. F. Thompson. Did you see that little yellow roadster in town the other day with room for two, one seat behind the other? It was a cute little thing.

Messrs. James G. Beck and Clifton L. Jarrell attended the Wilmington Fair on Tuesday and secured a large number of entires for the races here next week. Mr. Wm. H. Mckee attended the Salem, N. J. races last week and did likewise.

A big crowd patronized the excursion given by the M. E. Sunday school to Tolchester and Port Deposit on Wednesday. 600 went from Chestertown, Rolph's and Quaker Neck, while 572 got on at Rock Hall. Every one had a delightful trip and reached home at 12 o'clock p. m.

Grain buyer Charles W. Kibler had the missfortune to break the wrist of his left hand on Wednesday morning. Mr. Kibler was at the station looking over a cargo of wheat. He missed his footing and fell to the ground on his hand, breaking the large bone in his wrist. He went to Baltimore and submitted to the X Ray treatment and had the fracture set. He is getting along well.

Mr. A. S. Turner, the Worton grain buyer, has purchased 60,000 bushels of grain to date. Metcalfe & Co. have purchased 30,000 and C. W. Kibler 30,000. Wheat is pouring into all the great shipping centers of the country and still the price continues around 80 cents. In our judgment wheat will be worth close to $1.00 before Christmas because the establishment of peace in Mexico, where no crops have been allowed to grow on account of hostilities, will cause an unusual demand for wheat. Maryland's crop report shows that this will be a record-breaking year.
