THE FAIR

The Kent and Queen Annes fair at Radcliffe Park begins next Tuesday. Aside from the racing which will be of a higher class than ever before seen in this county, and for which there are 100 entries with a special stake race for a purse of $500 each day, there will be many more attractive features than last year. Besides a liberal display of all kinds of farm implements, carriages, etc., there will be a splendid Poultry Show in which between 500 and 600 chickens, ducks, etc. will compete for blue ribbons and special prizes. Birds will be shown from all parts of Kent and Queen Anne's and all the leading breeds and many of the rarest birds will be shown. Two large tents have been provided for the poultry and exhibits of various descriptions, and Mrs. Belle Smith will serve lunch in a cool and convenient place in one of the tents and there will be resting places here and there for the ladies. There will be a crowing and cackling time. Another fine feature will be the baby show for which there are a large and representative number of entries. Mrs. Arthur Harris assisted by a number of ladies from various parts of the county will have charge, and it will be a success. There will be the usual number of attractions on the midway. One of the prettiest attractions each day will be the guideless pacer, Amos R. a beautiful snow white horse, which will go a half mile over the track without a driver. He will wear decorated harness and the pace will be set by a runner. Amos R. is 24 years old, has performed at all the great fairs of the country, and has a record for the half mile of 1.00½. He was accompanied by a beautiful little dog which rode on his back and did tricks among which is smoking a cigar. Unfortunate the dog died of distemper at the Park on Wednesday. This is going to be the greatest fair the county has seen in years, and thousands of people will attend. Come and meet your friends.

Goes Mr. Graham one Better.

MESSRS. EDITORS TRANSCRIPT,
Chestertown, Md.

ESTEEMED SIRS:—Your article in the issue of July 18, regarding Mr. Harry Graham's garden was very interesting but was not enough to make any gardener turn green with envy. On the contrary it only showed that Mr. Graham is very much of an amateur. Now I don't claim to be an expert in gardening but I wish to show Mr. Graham what he can do with a piece of ground. I have a plot in my garden that was manured late last summer with hen house manure and in the fall it was spaded under and planted with onion sets which were allowed to stand all winter, about 10 days before drawing the onions for bunch onions I planted "between rows" radish seed which in turn were followed by string beans planted in the rows where the onions were drawn from as soon as the radishes were removed I then planted corn in every other radish row, which then gave me room for celery between the corn rows in the same rows where the string beans were removed from.

Very respectfully yours
LEONARD C. NEEDLES.

17-Year Locust in Man's Shoulder.

A remarkable story is told of the terrible suffering of a man in Hagerstown from the sting of a 17-year locust. In 1880 the man was stung on the shoulder but the swelling soon disappeared and he thought no more of it until 1897, when the shoulder swelled considerably and only surgical treatment could relieve the pain and swelling. One day last week the shoulder swelled forming a knot about the size of a hen's egg. The physicians determined to perform a surgical operation. They did so and upon opening the swelling they drew from the wound a fully developed 17-year locust. The sting of the locust in 1880 had deposited an egg in the man's shoulder, which after the first 17 years—in 1897—began to develop, when the treatment retarded active growth. After the expiration of the second 17 years—in 1914—the egg again began to develop, with the result that after 34 years it came forth a full fledged 17-year locust.

DOES BACKACHE WORRY YOU?

Some Chestertown People Have Learned How to Get Relief.

How many people suffer from an aching back?
How few know the cause?
If it hurts to stoop or lift—
If you suffer sudden, darting pains—
If you are weak, lame and tired,
Suspect your kidneys.
Watch for nature's signal.
The first sign may be headache or dizziness,
Scanty, painful, or too frequent urination,
Nervousness or a constant, deadtired feeling.
Avert the serious kidney diseases,
Treat the weakened kidneys with Doan's Kidneys Pills,
A remedy especially for sick kidneys.
Endorsed in Chestertown by your friends and neighbors.

Hyland Crew, High St., Chestertown, says: "I had pains in my back and head and my kidneys were disordered, causing me no end of trouble. I finally got Doan's Kidney Pills at Toulson's Drug Store and they made me feel a great deal better in every way. I don't believe there is a better kidney medicine than Doan's Kidney Pills.

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Crew had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
