Joe Black To Be Honored Guest At Capital Classic

NEW YORK — Joe Black, Brooklyn Dodgers sensational pitcher and former Morgan State all-round star athlete, Monday, accepted an invitation to crown "Miss Capital Classic" at the annual football festival in Washington, D.C., on Saturday night, Nov. 8th.

Black is a former Morgan football star and his ex-college, Morgan, will play Virginia Union University in the 11th annual Capital Classic to be held at Griffith Stadium.

'Just Popped It,' Black Muses About Mize's Homer

YANKEE STAIUM, New York —That was not a bad pitch which resulted in Johnny Mize's home run to beat Joe Black in the 2-0 New York Yankee Victory in the fourth world series game.

You may take that as the word of Black himself, the big Brooklyn Dodger righthander who was charged with the loss in the suspenseful duel with Yankee Ace Alfe Reynolds at the stadium Saturday.

"It was exactly where I intended it should go, and it went where Mize intended to send it, too, I guess," mused Joe after he had given way to relief pitcher Johnny Rutherford in the eighth.

"I was pitching him low and away," Black told the AFRO. "Then I went high inside on him, and he just popped it, that's all."

Seemed To Be Looking For It

"There was nothing wrong with the pitch. He just seemed to be looking for it. And when he got it, he just swung his whole body around for 'the pull' on the ball.

"It was the same thing on the ground-rule double he hit. Purillo (Carl) said that one shot past him so fast he didn't even see it until it had bounced into the stands."

Stole Bunt Sign

Explaining his failure to lay down the bunt on the unsuccessful sequence attempt with Andy Pafko in the fifth, a play which cost the Dodgers a run and choked off an impending rally, Joe said:

"I'm convinced they the (Yanks) got a sign. As soon as Dressen (Chuch) gave it, Bill Martin, who played with Chuck at Oakland in 1949, ran over and said something to Reynolds.

"When the pitch came up to me, it was a bad one, low and away and Pafko was a sitting duck for Berra's (Yogi) tag."

Jackie Robinson and Roy Campanella took issue with Black on this contention.

"If they had caught the sign," argued Robinson, "he (Reynolds) would have 'knocked you down.' You know as well as I do that you don't break up a squeeze with a low pitch."

Campy nooded agreement. "That," the stocky catcher said to his battery mate, is the silliest thing I've ever heard." — SAM LACY.

Eagles Turn Back Pirates

Joe Battle's Passes Clip For Triumph

HAMPTON, Va. — The visiting North Carolina College Eagles sprang a devastating aerial attack on Hampton Institute's unsuspecting Pirates here Saturday night, Oct. 4, and carted off a 21-12 victory in the CIAA game.

It was "Battle of the Battles"—Joe Battle, NCC's senior quarterback, and Fletcher Battle, of East Chicago, a Hampton freshman find, who bore the brunt of the Pirate attack.

Joe Drew first blood when he climaxed a 72-yard first-quarter drive with a pass to Winfred Tillery. The big end rambled 30 yards to complete a 34-yard play, and McClellan Matthews found the up-rights for the first of his three conversions.

Halted On 4-Yard Line

A Pirate drive fizzled on the Eagle four, and the Eagles themselves were thwarted when a 44-yard touchdown play, Battle to Tillery again, was canceled by a clipping penalty.

In the third period, the Eagles received, marched downfield, and scored again on Battle's 36-yard pass play to Charles Floyd.

The Pirates bounced back with a 50-yard charge of their own, with Dick Harris, Wingback, driving around left end for 11 yards and the TD Rufus Worrill 3 Mavens son flubbed the point attempt.

Passes Again Click

Early in the fourth quarter, it was that amazing Eagle pass attack again. This time James (Sixth Street) Robinson, another senior quarterback, hit Tillery twice, for 56 yards to set up the score and for 17 more to accomplish the TD.

The ball changed hands and Harry Eason, Battle, and Calvin Glascoe each made first downs, setting things up for the Pirates. Battle to find big freshman end Johnny Harris in the end zone with a 16-yard pass. Willis Thompson missed the extra point.

Hampton totaled 194 yards rushing and 95 aerially, on 6 completions in 14 tries. The Eagles had only 142 rushing but starred in the air with 16 of 28 completions for 220 big yards. Each team had one intercepted.

The Pirates led in first downs, 15 to 12.

Lincoln Nips Upsala On Thompson's 55-Yard Run

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY, PA.—A 55-yard run by Fullback Bob Thompson for a third period touchdown proved to be the deciding factor, Saturday, as the Lincoln University Lions won their second game of the season by downing the hard-fighting Upsala College Vikings, 16-13, on Rendall Field.

While a fourth quarter touchdown by the New Jersey visitors gave Lincoln rooters a few anxious moments, Coach Bob Gard-ner's charges were definitely in command in the final stages and driving goalward when the game ended.

Lincoln displayed a quartet of fast, shifty backs in Jonas Gowles, Joe Kenney, Tom Miller and Thompson, all of whom got off for long jaunts during the afternoon. Thompson, with an earlier 45-yard run to his credit, made his exciting touchdown sprint after boiling his way over center and being sprung clear through a key block thrown by Kenney.

Trapped For Safety

Upsala got into trouble early in the first period when Quarterback Joe Certosimo was trapped in the end zone by Charles Stress for a safety. The Vikings bounced back in the next frame and went 63 yards in a sustained drive for the score, aided by a 15-yard penalty against Lincoln that put the ball on the 2.

An interception by Miller on Lincoln's five put the brakes on the Lions' first TD in the second quarter. With Cowles, Kenney and Miller alternating in the heavy work, Lincoln moved the ball to Upsala's 4.

Here Cowles, the quarterback, lateraled to Thompson who pitched a strike to Miller on the Vikings 35 and the fleet-halfback went all the way without being touched.

Goes 52 Yards

Late in the last quarter, Kenny electrified the crowd by racing around end for 52 yards to the visitor's 10. Before the Lion offensive could get up steam, the game ended.

Kid Gavilan Beats Graham

Gains Easy Decision In Havana Title Go

HAVANA—Kid Gavilan, world's welterweight champion, successfully defended his title here Saturday night in a torrid 15-round battle against Billy Graham of the New York.

Gavilan was hot in the fourth defense of his crown, giving Graham a real boxing lesson to gain the unanimous decision of the officials.

Nat Fleisher, editor of Ring magazine, gave Gavilan 11 rounds. Cuban judge, Joaquin, 11, and Referee Mike Rojo saw it, 12-3, in favor of Gavilan.

Used Two-Fisted Attack

Graham, a slow starter, was no match for the Cuban Kid who for the most part used a two-fisted attack which kept Graham baffled throughout the fight.

While Gavilan was never in serious trouble, Graham went on the aggressive in the seventh, making the champion give ground. This was Graham's best round.

There were no knockdowns in the fight but Graham slipped to the canvas in the second round for no count.

Gavilan and Graham met in 1951 with Gavilan winning a disputed decision. However, Saturday night's brawl was a clean cut victory.

Eddie Macon First Tan Star With Bears

GREEN BAY, Wis. — (ANP)—History was made here Sunday when Eddie Macon, former College of the Pacific star, became the first colored player to appear in a regular season lineup of the Chicago Bears.

The Bears defeated the Green Bay Packers who featured Bobby Mann, famed pass catcher, at starting end. Tackle Tom Johnson of the Green Bay team did not play.

Shielders To Play In Termite Loop

This week will have a double climax for the Red Shield Boys Club's 100-pound football team.

On Saturday the Shielders will make a belated bow in the newly organized Baltimore Termite grid loop, when they face the Dundalk YMCA at Lambert Field.

Tuesday the club will screen candidates for "Miss Boys Bowl of 1952."

The second annual Boys Bowl game is to be played at Memorial Stadium on Oct. 19, between the Red Shield Club and the Shamokin eleven of Pennsylvania.

To Go On Air

CHICAGO — The world's lightweight championship bout between Lauro Salas and Jimmy Carter will be broadcast from the Chicago Stadium Wednesday, Oct. 15 10 p.m. EST.

This will be a return 15-round bout with Carter attempting to retain the 135-pound crown from the Mexican who won it from him last May 14.

physician announced that a post mortem revealed that the boy's right artery was missing.

The left artery, he stated, was one-third its normal size.

Teammates of the victim stated that minutes before collapsing Gill complained that his chest hurt. His mother revealed that the young player received a knee injury in a game in 1950.

Funeral services for Gill are scheduled to be held in Raleigh, N.C., on Thursday. He is survived by his mother and father, a brother and a sister.

Gavilan Keeps Title

HAVANA—Welterweight Champion Kid Gavilan of Cuba successfully defended his title here Sunday night by outpointing Billy Graham of New York in a 15-round title bout. Each weighed 146½.
