The Transcript

R.H.COLLINS, T.D.BOWERS, EDITORS.

HON. ISAAC LOBE STRAUS, candidate for the United States Senate against Senator John Walter Smith, attended the Kent and Queen Annes fair, and made himself and his wishes known to the people. He will commence his campaign of speaking in Kent next week.

GOV. GOLDSBOROUGH has appointed ex-Judge W. Larid Henry, of Cambride, a member of the Public Utilities Commission to succeed Hon. Philip D. Laird resigned. The appointment is regarded as an excellent one.

ARUNAH S. ABLE, grandson of the founder of the Baltimore Sun, and a member of the publishing company, died on Tuesday. He was one of Baltimore's most prominent citizens, and is a distinct loss to the professional and business world.

IT IS to be hoped that the Board of Directors of the Kent and Queen Annes Driving Association will take immediate steps to develop their fair into a fine agricultural exhibition. There is a big demand on the part of the farmers of both counties for such a movement, and the success of the Poultry Show is the best evidence of the interest of the people in the matter. One farmer living in Kent county was so anxious to show two fine colts that he asked the secretary of the Poultry Association if they would be received in the poultry tent. It is up to the fair management to get busy and erect a commodious and convenient exhibition hall, so that the ladies may become interested in the exhibits, and if it can be possibly done sheds should be erected and premiums offered for displays of cattle, horses, sheep and hogs. Let's do our best to advertise the two counties.

MR. HARRY J. McWHORTER TAX SUPERVISOR.

The State Tax Commission has appointed Mr. Harry J. McWhorter, of Chestertown, Tax Supervisor for Kent county at a salary of $1,000 a year. Mr. McWhorter was selected by the commission from a list of five names. They were: Messrs. Thomas J. Donahoe, Harry D. Hendrickson, Harry Taylor, Harry J. McWhorter and Hugh McClosky. Either of these five gentlemen would have made a most capable official, and we regret that there was not a job for each. The appointment was made by Mr. Lewin W. Wickes, and we are quite sure that Mr. McWhorter will measure up to the duties of the office in every respect, and will make a thoroughly conscientuous official. His salary will be paid by the County Commissioners. He assumes his duties to-day, and his office will be in the County Commissioners' office.

NOTES OF THE FAIR.

The management of the fair should put a stop to the presence of so many catch penny concerns as were doing business on the grounds. We say this in all kindness to the management and because of our interest in the success of the fair. Because we see these concerns at almost every county fair is no valid reason why they should be allowed to play their games here. Put a stop to it, and secure some attraction that will attract and edify the people.

The officials of the course were: Starter, Fred Shreve, Philadelphia; judges, James Healey, Philadelphia; W. F. Watson, Centreville; W. E. Parsons, Rock Hall; timers, Harry Dailey, Barclay; Oscar Roe, Sudlersville; Dr. G. Allen Jarman, Chestertown; clerk of the course, Prof. J. L. Smyth; marshall, Fred S. Russell.

Officers of the association: President, James G. Beck; 1st vice-pres., James Merrick, Jr.; 2nd vice-pres., Robert Moffett; secretary and treasurer, Clifton L. Jarrell.

The crowd on Thursday was estimated at between 6000 and 7000 people. It was not only big Thursday, but was politicians' day, and the three candidates for Congress in the First District, Senator Jesse D. Price, Col. Albert Sisk and James G. Bright were busy shaking hands with the crowd and mingling with the voters.

Dixie D., the fast pacer belonging to Mr. Leonard Wilson, of Millington, and ably driven by S. Powell Peacock, was sold on Thursday, after he won the 2.18 stake in the fast time of 2.13¼, to a Mr. Hayden, and will be placed in the stable of Frank Barnes, of Baltimore. Dixie D. lowered his record from 2.19½ to 2.13¼ and was bought by Mr. Wilsou for $250. He is a fine gaited pacer and has loads of speed.

The flag which was unfurled by President James G. Beck just before the first heat of the races on Tuesday was presented to old Worton fair by Mr. Purnell Jefferson, who always manifested a great interest in the agricultural development of his county. The flag is in a remakable state of preservation.

Weber's Fifth Regiment Band kept the crowd in good humor every day by its splendid music, while the Wild West show rough riders, and the physicul culture man furnished the amusement.

Waretta, the black nine-year-old mare, entered in the 2.27 trot on Tuesday by Weber & Brosenme, of Baltimore, was sold at public auction in front of the grand stand on Wednesday to Mr. Raymond Bonwell, of near Locust Grove, for $125. Those who know horses say that Mr. Bonwell has a prize, as she trotted a quarter in 32 seconds before she was sold.

Schley Russell, Col. Albert Story's well-known pacer, was sold in front of the grandstand yesterday, but the purchaser's name could not be ascertained at the hour of going to press.

THE KENT AND QUEEN ANNES FAIR

Attended by Big Crowds Each Day—Better Babies Contest Proves Attractive—Poultry Show a Winner—Races Fast and Exciting—Midway Crowded With Amusements—Old Worton Flag a Curiosity and Amos R. a Wonder.

The second annual fair of the Kent and Queen Annes Driving Association opened with a big attendance of some 2000 or 3000 people on Tuesday, and it has proven the centre of attraction for people all over the Maryland and Delaware peninsula during the week. The management spared no effort and expense to make the show a success, and their efforts were rewarded by crowds each day. More and better attractions were staged this year than last, and we are told that this year really marks the beginning of the development of a great agricultural fair at Radcliffe Park in the near future. Besides the very large and creditable display of farm implements, carriages, etc., there were numerous amusements of a more or less interesting character on the midway. A source of great attraction on Tuesday morning was the Better Babies contest so ably managed by Mrs. Evelyn Harris and her assistant, Mrs. Harvey Moore. Not only was this feature pleasing in every respect, but for the mothers of the contestants it was of a highly educational and beneficial character, and there was not a mother present who will not be a better mother through what she learned by being present. Able speakers, including Dr. Carroll, of the Maryland University, Baltimore, were present and gave interesting lectures upon the various phases in the development and health of the child, and every physician who was asked to assist in the examination of the children, rendered aid skillfully and willingly. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Moore also had the very valuable assistance of ladies from all parts of Kent and Queen Annes in the preliminary contests, and everything worked like clockwork, and the contest was an eminent success. The following were the averages announced:

POULTRY SHOW.

A new feature, and we may be pardoned for saying, a most attractive one was the poultry show in which there were entered between 300 and 400 chickens, ducks and turkeys of all the leading breeds, and such an array of fine birds has never before been gotten together in Kent county. There were many entries from both Kent and Queen Annes, and such beautiful varieties as the Silver Campines, Cecilian Buttercups, White Crested Black Polish, Pit Games, besides large entries in the American and Mediterranean classes. The committee composed of Messrs. D. R. Downey, president; T. D. Bowers, secretary; S. W. Granbery, O.C.Smith, John C. Sutton, executive committee, and John H. Moffett, superintendent, worked like beavers to make the display a success, and their efforts were rewarded by the plaudits of thousands who visited the show and admired the birds. The entire show was cooped and fed by Spratt's Patent, of Newark, N. J., under the superintendence of Mr. Bailey, their representative, through whose courtesy, good advice and skilful superintendence, the show was all the more of a success. The judging was done Tuesday afternoon by Mr. J. Harry Wolsiefier, of Philadelphia, member of the American Poultry Association, and a judge of national reputation. He complimented the management upon the excellent quality and character of the birds, and stated that for a beginning, it was a show of which Kent and Queen Annes counties could justly feel proud. There is no question as to the success of next year's show, and the management proposes to organize as soon as possible, a poultry association for the two counties. The displays of Rhode Island Reds, White, Brown and Buff Leghorns, Barred and Buff Rocks, White Wyandottes, Orpingtons, etc., were very large, and there were many birds there which would easily capture a prize in the big shows. The awards, including the special prize winners, were as follows:

Those in charge of the poultry show are to be congratulated. This is their first attempt and they were handicapped by being at a rather bad time of the year, and yet despite this fact there was an entry of some 350 birds and twenty-five (25) varieties were represented in the seventy-three classes judged.

Many birds in the Buff Plymouth Rocks, White Wyandottes, R. I. Reds, White Leghorns and Fawn Runner Duck classes would not have failed to get ribbons in the hottest of competition.

Mr. J. Harry Wolsiefier, who judged the poultry, is from Vineland, N. J. He is the poultry editor of the Philadelphia Record, one of the livest dailies in the country, and his engagements include all the big shows in the country. He is an authority on poultry, and knows his business thoroughly.

THE RACES.

Never before in the history of the county has such a high-class entry list appeared for speed contests as were carded for the four days' races. Horses were there from Kentucky to New York, and the lists were so large that the management was forced to erect 47 additional stalls. On Tuesday afternoon just before the first race was called, Mr. Jas. G. Beck, the hustling president of the association, unfurled to the breeze the old Worton flag that floated over old Worton fair grounds in days gone by, while Weber's Fifth Regiment band, Baltimore, which furnished music for the fair, played "The Star Spangled Banner." It was an impressive scene and a most appropriate reminder of bygone happy days. A most interesting feature of the races every afternoon was the performance of Amos R., the world's champion guidless pacer, whose record for the half-mile made in repeated starts, is 1.00½. Amos R. is truly a wonderful little horse. He goes the full half mile without a driver, but paced by a runner and he sticks to his work and the pole position as conscientiously as if he were guided by his driver from a sulky. He is 24 years old, a beautiful white horse, and has been a leading attraction at all the great fairs in the east. He raced against his record every afternoon and was paced by a runner ridden by Mr. Harvey Smith, of Worton. The entire four days racing was exciting and interesting. The features of course were the stake races each day for a purse of $500, and yet the slower classes furnished more interest and better racing. The 2.20 pace, with eleven starters on Tuesday afternoon was a corker. The race went five heats, Arlington Axworthy, a Washington entry, driven by Corbin, taking the first two heats handily, and being distanced in the third heat because of a mixup with Silver Lake and Easter Be Sure on the first half mile. Easter Be Sure got the third heat, and then Happy J., Wm. B. Biggs entry from Chestertown, came from behind and won the fourth heat handily. The fifth heat went to Sallie Patrick, a Philadelphia entry, who captured first money, Happy J. second. We wish it were possible to give the details of each race. Space will not permit. You were there. If you were not, you missed some real sport, and you know how they went. It is safe to say that it was the most interesting and cleanest racing seen in the county in many years, and this was due no doubt to the fact that the association offered $5 in gold to the driver of every horse winning a race. The management is to be congratulated upon the great success of the fair. Everything was conducted in a most orderly manner. There was no disorder of any kind, no other catch penny concerns than you will find at any county fair, and the great crowds were admirably managed and the business of the town was on the boom. The summary of each days race for which there were 125 entries is as follows:

THURSDAY'S RACES.

Between 6,000 and 7,000 people attended the fair on Thursday and saw some of the best racing of the meet. Joe Boy, Dan Leary's entry in the free for all, from West Chester, Pa., always a favorite with the people here, won the fast race in the fastest time of the week, doing the first heat in 2.12¼. Dixie D., Mr. Leonard Wilson's fine pacer, ably driven S. Powell Peacock, captured the feature event, the 2.18 stake, after a four heat race in which May Bird, from Milford, Del., was always a contender. That keen little mare, Grace Michael, in Herman Tyson's stable, surprised the crowd by taking the first heat. But Tyson is liable to do even better than that with the fine stable of campaigners he has in his care.

The program for yesterday, the closing day, including the three-year-old with six entries, the 2.25 pace with 19 entries and the 2.30 trot stake with 14 entries. The races were not finished at the hour of going to press.

The racing throughout the week has been all that the most critical could exact, and that of yesterday was no exception. The fair was a decided financial success.

Mr. Fred Shreve, the starting judge, is the man for the job. He keeps his head working all the time, and he gets his fields away in great shape. And, too, he is considerate of the interest of every one interested in the races.

25 HEAD OF Good Milch Cows

These cows are mostly Holsteins and Guernseys. I have raised and broken most of them myself, and they are as good milkers as you will find anywhere, are quiet and gentle to milk. Most of them ranging from 3 to 6 years old. Have 14 with calves by side, as fine as a man ever looked at, and 4 more which will probably be fresh by day of sale. This is a fine chance for any one desiring to purchase dairy cows, as my milk has always tested very well, testing as high as 5.5 at the milk station. Have some very fine Holstein Heifers and Bull Calves for sale.

KRIT $950

WITH ELECTRIC STARTER $1050 F.O.B. Detroit

Why Pay for Useless Weight?

KRIT lightness comes from correct design—not from skimping. 120 pounds in weight is saved by using aluminum for our crank case and transmission case. The sturdy, powerful KRIT motor weighs only 283 pounds, as against 400 to 550 pounds for motors in cars the same size and power of the KRIT. And so on—throughout the car.

Engineers tell us that the KRIT is two years ahead of its field, for it possesses, at $950, the quality features you find in cars at double the price. The sensational sales records made by the new KRIT is an endorsement by critical motorists that proves these experts right.

So, we ask you, what more can you get in a higher priced car? More weight, perhaps, but weight only adds to the expense of upkeep. More rated horsepower, but much of the extra horse power is used up in carrying around the extra weight—and the rest of the excess power you do not need. For the KRIT will take you anywhere you want to go. It will take you there speedily, safe and comfortably.

Learn more about the economical, dependable KRIT—the moderate priced car with the high priced features. A ride will demonstrate to you the rare quality of this car—value you can't get elsewhere at the price.
