LOCAL MATTERS

SALE RECORD.

The following sales of valuable personalty are advertised in the TRANSCRIPT:

MONDAY, AUGUST 3rd—Large and important sale of more than 30 head of fine dairy cattle and a very fine and rare collection of antique furniture and sheffield plate by Mr. George F. Buchholz, on the old Burgess farm on Swan Point.

AUGUST 4th—Large and valuable personalty of William Kendall, on the Chapman-Pearce farm near town, 100 head of fine stock in this sale.

AUGUST 7th—Fine stock and farming utensils of Percy V. Hendrickson on Tolchester farm. This is a chance to get some of the finest cattle, mules and horses ever offered in this county.

MONDAY, AUGUST 10th—Large and valuable personalty of Samuel Mann, on the Chapman farm near Lynch, where he now resides.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 18th—Public sale of fine building lots on Washington avenue belonging to the estate of the late Dr. S. E. Ford by H. H. Klinefelter, the administrator.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 18th—Public sale of the Rouse or Jones farm, containing 108 acres, near Lynch, by Hope H. Barroll, trustee.

Mr. Samuel G. Caldwell advertises 40 head of good mules, mares and horses at private sale.

Grange at Tolchester.—The Maryland State Grange picnic will be held at Tolchester Friday, August 7. Steamer will leave Baltimore at 9.15 A.M. instead of 8.45 A. M., as usual, thus giving Western Shore grangers and their friends more time to catch boat. Congressman Lewis, author of the Parcel Post law, Dr. H. J. Patterson and other prominent speakers will address the meeting. Bring your lunch basket and spend a day on the beach.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

Mr. Edward Crowding has rented Mrs. Ada B. Cochran's Shrewsbury farm in Shrewsbury Neck.

The war scare will likely cause the price of wheat to reach the dollar mark. Local dealers were paying 88 cents a bushel for it yesterday.

Officer Cooper arrested five autoists for reckless driving on the streets of the town on Saturday and Monday. They were fined $1.00 and costs by Justice Kendall.

The last week in July has been the coldest in July for 30 years. There was a light snowfall in the glades around Cumberland, and thick winter blankets were quite comfortable at night here.

In an automobile accident at Betterton last week a Mrs. Vincent was knocked down by Mr. Medford's car, of Massey, and several bones in her arm were broken. The accident was unavoidable.

A Sunday school institute for the Galena district will be held in Chestertown M. E. Church (South) on Wednesday next, Augut 5. An interesting program has been prepared for the occasion, and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. James T. Anthony, one of the most progressive farmers in Queen Annes county, is trying the experiment of irrigating his land. He is erecting a 1,700 gallen tank, and will use a gasoline engine to force the water. The experiment is being tried on one acre of ground and will be watched with interest.

A collision occurred on the State Road in Queen Annes near the bridge Saturday night at about ten o'clock between two teams. Both were almost completely demolished. While we were unable to learn the names of the unlucky ones, we learned, however, that one lived in Kent and one in Queen Annes.

Mr. Frank Huey, who is employed with his uncle, Mr. Adam F. Huey at Massey, cut his wrist quite badly on Wednesday on the fair grounds while cranking his uncle's machine.

Mr. John E. Morris, on Mr. Samuel Vannort's farm near Hynson's Chapel, is among the big wheat growers this year, averaging 36 bushels per acre all over. Mr. Wm. J. Beck, on another of Mr. Vannort's farms, got the splendid yield of 30 bushels per acre, while Mr. Wm. Plummer, on the home farm, got 30 bushels also.

Howard Pinder, 12-year-old son of James F. Pinder, of Wilmington, was kicked by a horse and fatally injured Tnursday morning on the farm of his uncle, Lum Pinder, about five miles from Sudlersville. The boy lived only about ten minutes after the accident. With another lad the Wilmington boy was driving some colts from the barn yard. It is supposed that he got too close to the heels of one of the animals and frightened the horse. He was kicked over the lower portion of the heart and was rendered unconscious. Death ensued in a few minutes. Dr. Foster Sudler, of Sudlersville, was summoned and pronounced the boy dead.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

(Other deaths on page 8).

WILLIAM WILKINS PHILLIPS.

Mr. William Wilkins Phillips died suddenly on Wednesday of apoplexy at the home of his son, Mr. Wm. Leverett Phillips, in Quaker Neck. He leaves two brothers in Haverhill, Mass., and a son in California. Mr. Phillips was a gentleman of the old school, courtly and gentle, and all who came in contact with him felt his keen enjoyment of the questions of the day and his sense of humor and wit was like a flash of sunshine. To be so beloved by one's family is a true proof that such a life has been crowned with the most deserved success and is a lasting memorial. Funeral services were held from the residence of his son yesterday morning at 10 o'clock conducted by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. D. W. Ingersoll, John D. Burris, Chas. J. Reiche, Henry Brown, A. H. Covey, and Mr. Baker. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. S. A. MCKNETT.

Mrs. S. A. McKnett, formerly of this conty, died at the home of her son, Mr. Samuel McKnett, at Spring Lake, N. J., on Sunday last, aged 73 years. She leaves four daughters, Mrs. Blades, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Beasley, Mrs. Melvin, and four sons, Wattie, Samuel, John and Kent. Remains were brought to Kennedyville by train Tuesday evening and funeral services took place at the M. P. Church at Kennedyville Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Cain officiating. Interment was in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. SARAH STREET BARROLL.

Mrs. Sarah Street Barroll, 96 years old, widow of Benjamen Crockett Barroll died at her home 16 E. Biddle street, Baltimore on Wednesday morning. The deceased was a relative of Hope H. Barroll Esq, Chestertown.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Other personals on page 2.

Mr. J. A. Perkins, wife and daughter, of Lansdowne, Pa., are guests of her mother, Mrs. S. L. Thomas, on the avenue.

Miss Susie Roberts returns to her home here Monday from Philadelphia, where she had been taking a summer course at the University of Pennsylvania.

WORTON ITEMS.

Services will be held in the old Union graveyard this Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Miss Katherine Loller has returned from a trip to Baltimore.

Next Monday night the grange will hold special meeting. Cream and cake will be served.

Sunday school picnic in Rash's woods Aug. 6.

Our Merchants' Interests.

Abe Cohen's semi-annual sale is now on at his Sandy Bottom department store. See his advertisement on page 6.

The largest shark ever seen will be on exhibition at the depot Monday and Tuesday August 3d and 4th.

(Other fair notes on page 4).

One of the most complete displays of farm implements was that of A. S. Turner, of Worton. He had everything, from a drill to a plow tooth, and his tent was a mecca for the farmers. Others who had fine displays were T. H. M. Bramble, Fairlee; Davis & Satterfield and Graham & Thomas, Chestertown, whose displays were fine; Mallalieu & Conrey, Phila., and John Schauber.

Mrs. Belle Smith conducted a lunch counter in the poultry tent and did a rushing business.

Officer Jack Jester made a capable night watchman for the birds and not a rooster crowed without his notice.

It is estimated that the attendance for the four days was close to 15,000 people.

All those having poultry at the show will please come and get your birds to-day.

A white headed negro, attendant in one of the racing stables, attracted a great deal of attention.
