THE NATION MOURNS.

The nation mourns to-day for the death of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, who died at the White House of Bright's disease at five o'clock on Thursday evening. She was a woman of great depth of character, and was possessed of those womanly virtues which enabled her to wield a wide influence in the world. Likewise does the nation sympathize deeply with the President in the great bereavement which has torn assunder the bonds of a beautiful and happy family life. Few men in public life have had to bear greater trouble than has President Wilson in his short career as President. But none can equal the broken family tie. That reaches the inmost depths of his soul and tests every particle of that wonderful courage and patience which he has manifested in every trying hour. President Wilson has manifested his greatness of ability in dealing with foreign and domestic difficulties; he will show his greatness of character in this trying hour of his life only as a great man with a broad scope of the meaning and purpose of life can show it. We extend to the President our deepest sympathy in his great bereavement. The last words of Mrs. Wilson, spoken to her physician, Dr. Grayson—"Promise me, that if I go, you will take care of my husband"—is a most touching evidence of the remarkable devotion of this noble woman.

IT IS understood that the Republicans will nominate Dr. Cockran, of Centreville, for the long term and Josias Kerr, of Cambridge, for the short term for Congress. The Democrats will nominate one candidate for both terms.

THE old registration books will be used in this county for the primaries. Every voter in Kent, white and black, must be registered before the November election, however, before he can vote in the election.

THIS section is experiencing the worst drought in years. The corn crop is doomed to failure, there being thousands of stalks in the fields with not an ear on them, and the hillsides are burning up. The tomato, cantaloupe and watermelon crops are blighted, and the pasture fields are almost as bare as a floor.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THIS?

Mr. Samuel M. Foster, president of the German-American National Bank, of Fort Wayne, recently received a "confidential inquiry" from Wilbur F. Wakeman, of the American Protective Tariff League, asking as to his payroll for a certain week this year as compared with the corresponding week last year. "We," wrote Mr. Wakeman, "earnestly ask your cooperation in this inquiry." He did not get much "co-operation," but he did get an answer. Mr. Foster wrote:

"It would be more creditable to your organization if it would use its funds along lines that would tend to decrease any tendency toward business depression that may exist, rather than along lines that have a strong influence towards increasing this tendency. The purpose of your inquiry is so clearly political and the intent to discredit the present administration and recent legislation so apparent that this bank declines to have anything to do with it, and feels justified in giving expression to its lack of sympathy with your efforts. It is such movements, by such organizations as yours, that justify the charge that there is being made a systematic and disloyal effort to create a condition of mind in the people of the country that will bring about and intensify a spirit of commercial depression. No more discreditable and dishonorable thing could be attempted by men claiming to be loyal citizens of the republic. As you very well know, to spread broadcast over the country any evidence or argument tending to show the existence of business depression only tends to produce and heighten this depression. That this is your intention and purpose is revealed in your letter, though not explicitly stated."

Possibly Mr. Foster would have been willing to give the desired information had the request come from almost any other organization than the American Protective Tariff League. He naturally did not care to contribute in any way to a campaign conducted by men who have for years been fighting for a tariff subsidy, and who exerted all their influence in behalf of the Payne-Aldrich bill.

It is the American Protective Tariff League that has led the chorus of calamity shouters.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

That Second District Hat.

Kennedyville, Aug. 6, 1914.

Gentlemen:—

There is a smile going around Kennedyville. One of our leading citizens made a bet with a gentleman prior to the last Primary that if the Organization won the delegates to the Legislature a bill would be passed doing away with Isaac Gibbs, Jr., as Road Engineer. Our smiling friend from Turner's Creek did not believe any such nonsense and promptly took the bet.

Well the Organization won the delegates, no bill was passed and we still have "Gibbs" and "Gibbsism." Recently our popular Organization farmer near Kennedyville paid the debt. But what surprises us is, "How could a man so prominent in the council of the Organization not be let into their inside workins and why was he kept in the dark or fooled?" All the while Turner's Creek is wearing the hat.

FORD—WIDMARK.

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Aldridge Ford to Mr. Martin Widmark took place Tuesday, July 28th, at 4 P. M., at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. H. Moore, 918 Park avenue, Savannah, Ga. The rooms were tastefully decorated with ferns and palms. The bride entered with her brother-in-law, Mr. J. H. Moore, attended by her sister, Mrs. Moore, as matron of honor and Miss Mattie Whitaker as bridesmaid. Little Miss Nandain Moore was flower girl. Mr. Girard Hyrue acted as Mr. Widmark's best man. Miss Anita Rumph played the wedding march as the bridal party entered, and soft music during the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. John S. Wilder, pastor of South ide Baptist Church. The bride wore a becoming gown of white embroidered crepe with veil of tulle, caught up with pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lillies-of-the-valley. The matron of honor was gowned in pale pink charmeuse and carried pink roses. The bridesmaid wore blue crepe de chine and carried pink roses, and the little flower girl wore a pretty white embroidered frock with pink ribbons and carried a basket of lillies-of-the-valley. Mr. and Mrs. Widmark left after the ceremony by sea for Baltimore and other points north. On their return they will live at 818 Park avenue.

KRIT $950

WITH ELECTRIC STARTER $1050 F.O.B. Detroit

Why Pay for Useless Weight?

KRIT lightness comes from correct design—not from skimping. 120 pounds in weight is saved by using aluminum for our crank case and transmission case. The sturdy, powerful KRIT motor weighs only 283 pounds, as against 400 to 550 pounds for motors in cars the same size and power of the KRIT. And so on—throughout the car.

Engineers tell us that the KRIT is two years ahead of its field, for it possesses, at $950, the quality features you find in cars at double the price. The sensational sales records made by the new KRIT is an endorsement by critical motorists that proves these experts right.

So, we ask you, what more can you get in a higher priced car? More weight, perhaps, but weight only adds to the expense of upkeep. More rated horsepower, but much of the extra horse power is used up in carrying around the extra weight—and the rest of the excess power you do not need. For the KRIT will take you anywhere you want to go. It will take you there speedily, safe and comfortably.

Learn more about the economical, dependable KRIT—the moderate priced car with the high priced features. A ride will demonstrate to you the rare quality of this car—value you can't get elsewhere at the price.
