This Is How It Went In 1948

Dewey Was A Sure Winner But...

No one gave President Truman much of a chance to win re-election in 1948. The voters fooled the experts however and Truman won. It was the upset that shook the world.

Governor Dewey was confident of victory. The pollsters and political experts gave him the election hands down. The GOP candidate was so sure of election, he did little campaigning.

The President made a whistle-stop "give 'em hell" tour of the country that rallied voters to his side.

Here is an hour-by-hour account of that dramatic election night when the "underdog" came out on top.

Will history repeat itself in 1952?

The first returns which came in around 8:05 p.m. showed the Democrats ahead in the presidential race by 73,000 votes. The total was Dewey 323,295; Truman 396,000.

8:10 p.m. the figures were Dewey 345,999; Truman 443,700.

At 8:25 p.m., Truman was said to be leading in 10 states; Dewey in 14 states: Thurmond in 4 states.

At 8:45 p.m., Dewey 719,979; Truman, 831,821.

Herbert Brownell announced that Dewey would win the presidential election and sweep 2/3 of the states.

9 p.m., Dewey 724,353; Truman 855,000.

Passed Million Mark

Truman went past the million mark by 9:15 having led in the first hour of the returns. He continued to lead throughout the night and was never headed.

9:15 p.m., Dewey 1,330,000; Truman 1,527,000; Wallace 19,000, Thurmond 166,000.

At 10 o'clock, Truman adherents put in the first claim that he had won the election.

11 p.m.—Truman 5,035,000; Dewey 4,638,000; Wallace 1 3 9, 0 0 0; Thurmond 357,000.

11:06 p.m. Truman 5,663,000; Dewey 4,912,000; Wallace 205,000; Thurmond 378,000.

11:10 p.m., General Graham declared that President Truman had the vigor of a man 20 years his junior.

11:54 p.m., Truman led in New York State by a handful of votes. The popular vote showed Truman 8,224,000; Dewey 7,538,000, Thurmond 500,000; Wallace 380,000. Truman had led in 23 states with an electoral vote of 291; Dewey led in 22 states.

12 MIDNIGHT, the Democrats had 37 votes in the new U.S. Senate, the Republicans 33, 26 seats were undecided. It looked like the Senate had gone Democratic, 52-45.

Happy Democrats

12:05 a.m., Democratic headquarters at the Hotel Biltmore expressed itself as happy about Truman leading. The 12-year-old son of the Democratic Senator from Rhode Island, Harold McGrath, said he was having a good time.

12:07 a.m., 17 million votes cast, Truman 8,768,000, 50 per cent; Dewey, 8,205,000, 45 per cent; Thurmond 522,000; Wallace 409,000.

The political experts announced that by 1 o'clock, "we will know who has won" and "Dewey will win."

In the beginning they said "Truman was in the lead with 321 electoral votes but the lead was now cut to 255. Dewey had had his lowest spot.

A Poor Prophesy

"We must remember that many figures are fragmentary. The far west polls have just closed. There is no doubt that by 2 o'clock we will have a concession by one or the other of the candidates for a final statement."

12:20 a.m., popular vote, Truman, 9,497,000; Dewey, 8,861,000. Truman had 50 per cent of the vote and Dewey 45 per cent. It was reported that Truman had a comfortable lead in returns in Illinois but a small lead in New York. The experts claimed that it all depended on these two states.

It was pointed out that in 1940, some 27,000,000 people had turned out to vote for Franklin Roosevelt. At this stage in the election, 18,000,000 votes had been tabulated. In Maryland, the tabulation states, 217,539 Truman: 214,109 Dewey.

12:31 a.m., with 30 per cent of the vote, 19 million ballots cast, Truman had 9,550,00 or 49 per cent of the vote; Dewey 8,919,000 or 46 per cent of the vote; Thurmond 534,000; Wallace 560,000.

12:35 a.m. at the Roosevelt Hotel Republican Headquarters, the air was tense.

Truman was staying ahead too long. The results were just the reverse of what the poll experts had declared and what they had hoped.

For the first time a cheer leader got up and asked a question "Are we downhearted?" It was significant that that cheer had to be led several times.

Cabinet Member Surprised

12:40 a.m., Secretary of Agriculture Brnnan speaking from Washington said he had been surprised by the returns and that he believed the newspapers and the polls when they said that Dewey would win.

"The people were not fooled by the newspapers and the poll experts," he said. It seemed to him that the farmers would be more strongly Democratic than in 1936.

12:46 a.m., 21 million votes cast, 40 per cent of the total voting expected, Truman 10,487,000, 49.5 per cent; Thurmond 539,000; Wallace cent; Dewey 9,796,000, 46.4 per 502,000.

12:55 a.m., Dewey now had carried two states certainly and led in 17 with a total of 177 electoral votes.

Truman had certainly carried one state and his returns in 24 had a likely total of 318 electoral votes.

GOP Center Empty

1:11 a.m. At the New York GOP headquarters, the big room was fairly empty. The faithful had gone out to a nearby room for sandwiches and coffee.

Earlier, Jim Hagerty, Dewey press secretary, said "We will be out of the trenches by midnight."

This was the first election since 1916 when a definite trend was not noted before midnight. Truman had 9,550,000 or 49 per cent.

Truman was still ahead in New York.

Republicans Sing

The experts thought they would be able to go home; with 23 million votes cast, Truman had 11,257,000; Dewey 10,570,000.

No one could possibly say who was going to win at this point.

At the Dewey headquarters in New York the people were singing.

A Georgia girl said: "It was a surprise. We did not have much faith in Truman."

A New York man said: "We thought Dewey was going to have an easy time."

Truman Disappears

1:18 a.m., The mystery of Truman's disappearance from the summer house in Independence, Mo. deepened.

In nearby Kansas City, where the President had a suite in the Muhlenbach Hotel, his secretary, Ross, said he would not say where Truman was, that he might be in the penthouse on top of the hotel or where they had news tickers.

In the Democratic headquarters in Kansas City, the feeling was one of "waiting to celebrate."

1:25 a.m., It is definite New York had gone for Dewey. The tabulation showed an electoral vote of 264 for Truman and 230 for Dewey.

1:30 a.m., With nearly half the nation - wide votes in, Truman, 11,937,000; Dewey 11,338,000; Thurmond 567,000; Wallace 540,000. Truman was leading in 26 states, Dewey in 18.

Lausche, the Democrat has defeated Herbert for governor of Ohio.

1:35 a.m., Republican headquarters, Hotel Roosevelt, New York, a lot of people had gone home although the feeling was still tense; the returns were behind the news tickers.

1:40 a.m., It was reported that the trend was as follows: "that Truman is dropping gently and Dewey is increasing gently."

Labor Supported Truman

Jim Farley, former Democratic National Committee Chairman, explained the outcome of the election as follows: "Truman made an impression in this campaign. Dewey did not say much in his speeches, Labor supported Truman."

"Dewey did not take a stand on the issues. Truman left no doubt where he stood.

"The Wallace vote hurt Truman in New York City and elsewhere. If Truman expected to carry New York State he would have to carry New York City by a 750,000 plurality.

"To win," said Farley, "any president needs New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and California He could lose two of these states but he could not lose all four of them."

1:50 a.m. In Washington, Attorney General Tom Clark thought the Senate would have 51 Democratic seats.

Democrats Dance

2:05 a.m. An announcement in Hotel Biltmore, New York Democratic headquarters to the effect that the Democrats had won not only the Senate but the House, caused the people seated at tables to sing, shout and put on a snake dance around the room.

Victory Nears

2:45 a.m. At the Democratic Headquarters in the Hotel Biltmore, National Committee Chairman McGrath announced "The Democrats will control both the House and the Senate. Dewey cannot be elected President. We will carry Illinois and wait on Michigan.

"The Democratic victory is due to the fighting spirit of President Truman." He admitted the election could go the House of Representatives.

"The Truman ticket will get 300 electoral votes. My figures show that the Democrats and the States Rights Party have enough votes to elect a President. The pre-election poll - takers were all wrong.

"My figures would not let me believe the polls."

2:50 a.m. GOP headquarters say that Dewey or Brownell might make an appearance soon. The big room at the Roosevelt Hotel was filled up.

3:01 a.m., Jack Redding, publicity director of the National Democratic headquarters said, "We are in, President, Senate and House."

Truman Defeats Congress

3:02 a.m., According to newsmen, whether Truman won or loss, he "got the American people to believe one issue, namely that the 80th Congress was no good. By himself he had unseated that GOP Congress. In victory that upset the experts, the people agreed with Truman rather than with Congress about price control and housing."

3:15 a.m. in Illinois with 68 per cent of the vote in, Truman had 1,341,000; Dewey 1,261,000.

In Ohio, Truman had 933,000; Dewey 931,000.

With 266 votes necessary in the electoral college, Truman had 289, Dewey 204, Thurmond 38.

Truman Still Missing

3:15 a.m. Nobody in Kansas City or Independence knew where Mr. Truman was.

3:20 a.m. Republican headquarters still filled to capacity and they were sitting around the walls singing: "We want Dewey, Are we downhearted? No."

31½ million votes cast, Truman 15,418,000; Dewey 14,821,000.

With 56 per cent of the vote tabulated in California, Dewey was leading Truman by 5,000.

In Ill., Ind., Ohio, and Mich., Dewey and Truman were 15,000 or fewer votes apart.

3:40 a.m., 66 per cent of the popular vote in, Truman 15,879,000: Dewey 14,639,000; Wallace 816,000; Thurmond 766,000.

3:45 a.m. Truman 16,036,000; Dewey 14,783,00.

Time To Go

Ed Jaeckel of Buffalo, one of Dewey's political leaders, said it was time for him to go home. A landslide of 600,000 for Dewey had been predicted in New York. Actually, Dewey won the state by 50,000. Jaeckel said he wasn't surprised at what happened in New York. "With 6 million people voting, anything can happen."

Results Near

4 a.m. Dewey was just 3,000 ahead in Calif. With 32 million votes cast, Truman 15,992,000; Dewey 15,163,000. Dewey had an electoral vote of 201 in 16 states. Truman had an electoral vote of 282 in 28 states. The vote for the U.S. Senate showed that 39 of the Senators were Republicans and 46 Democrats.

4:10 a.m. The popular vote showed 49.9 per cent for Truman and 47.3 per cent for Dewey. With 72 per cent of the Ohio vote in, Truman led by 2,700.

Dewey is leading in Michigan, 413,000 to 330,000.

4:20 a.m. The vote stood 16,145,000 for Truman; Dewey 15,330,000; Thurmond 734,000; Wallace 286,000. Electoral votes—Truman 282: Dewey 201: Truman in 28 states, Dewey in 16.

The rest is history!

President Truman fooled the experts in 1948. Farm, labor and minority votes swept him in for a second term. Will it be the same in 1952?

WALLACE AND THURMOND ALSO RAN

Governor Thomas E. Dewey felt sure of victory in 1948 but he hadn't counted on the farm and labor votes which helped Truman emerge victor.

Progress Noted By Rescue Association

The Rescue Association of Maryland held its first annual banquet in the newly purchased hall at Ridgley, Md., on Oct. 25.

President Carlos Moseley made a report relating that the treasury has now swollen to $3,000 cash. Other assets were listed separately.

Mr. Moseley gave a brief history of the association from 1946, the date it was founded, up to the present. He urged all the association members to stick together and continue to work together for a common cause in thrift, enterprise, and business.

Mrs. Ward Serves

Mrs. Lula D. Ward acted as toastmaster in the place of James DeShield who was called away at the last minuteon business.

Among the guests introduced were the longtime friends of that area, the Rev. J. N. T. Yeates, and his wife who came up from Talbott county especially for the occasion.

W. Emerson Brown Jr., representing the Southern Life Insurance Company for Dr. Willard W. Allen, made the principal address.

Mr. Brown, a Baltimore attorney, gave a brief history of the Southern Life company from 1906 to date, revealing that it started with $300 and has grown steadily ever since.

He also pointed out how the Rescue Association can take its funds and go into many kinds of businesses such as building and loan associations, banks, insurance and the like.

S. Edward Smith, personnel director of the AFRO-AMERICAN newspapers represented Carl Murphy, president, pointing out the importance of "Just One Vote." He urged every person of voting age to exercise his constitutional rights by casting a ballot on election day.

Mrs. Verdia Moseley was chairman of arrangements.

About 70 guests and members took part in this, the first annual affair.

Man Given 60 Days In Larceny Case

Overcome with the idea that he could possibly build his own automobile, Calvin Clark made a costly mistake recently in obtaining construction materials.

Arrested at his home in the 2000 block of E. Eager st., Clark was taken to Northeastern District Police Station Friday and charged with larceny of automobile parts belonging to William Cardwell of 4101 Everall ave.

The ex-mechanic allegedly took a Ford motor block, a Dodge motor, and a Plymouth transmission.

After denying the larceny charge, the mechanical wizard was given 60 days in the Baltimore City Jail by Magistrate Samuel Gabeoff.

New Hospital Ward Sparks Policy Change

Five star Hospital Opens No. 9

Changing its policy, which heretofore had been restricted rooms to white patients only, Lutheran Hospital has opened Ward 'B'.

The policy change was made at the last hospital board meeting, Oct. 17, according to H. P. Coston, assistant hospital administrator.

Although the ward was opened as of Oct. 25, no colored patients have been admitted as yet.

"This decision was made primarily as a move to fulfill our community obligation and to provide the city with beds needed for the colored population," Mr. Coston said.

No Private Patients

He stated that in order to prevent competition with private physicians, the hospital will not admit private patients.

"We will take only those patients who cannot afford to pay their hospital or doctor bills," he said. "This will include all outpatients and accident cases. No maternity cases will be accepted at this time."

Ward 'B' was formerly used by white service patients who have been transferred to other parts of the hospital.

Hearing Held On Weapons Charge

Arrested on charges of carrying a dangerous weapon, assault, and disorderly conduct, 38-year-old Lloyd Lee Johnson of the 1300 block N. Bond st., was held in bail of $1,100 at Northeastern Monday.

Johnson, a 38-year-old laborer, was placed under arrest by Officers James Gleason and Edwin Eben, after a disturbance with Oscar Ross of the 1400 block N. Broadway st.

In a hearing before Northeastern Magistrate Samuel Gabeoff Monday, Johnson pleaded not guilty to the three charges and requested a jury trial.

According to witnesses, the accused man had been drinking and was angry over the loss of money.

Poll Records 2,783 For Adlai; 1,628, Ike

AFRO poll of 53 city areas shows 2,783 votes for Stevenson and 1,658 for Eisenhower.

If these individuals vote November 4th as they expressed their preferences Adlai will get 61 per cent of the colored vote and Ike 49 per cent.

This represents a startling change in party affiliations.

Heretofore the city's colored vote has been Republican by almost the same margin.

National Ticket Only

Voters themselves are quick to point out that this preference affects the national ticket only and may carry over into state and local elections.

The big question November 4th is Stevenson or Eisenhower and their preference is for Adlai.

The preference for Adlai is not the same in all parts of the city.

W. Lafayette ave.

In one new section of West Lafayette ave. it is 42 to 35 for Ike and not two blocks away it is 46 to 29 for Adlai.

One section of Riggs ave. voters, 37 for Stevenson and 37 for Eisenhower.

17th Ward

Even the rock-ribbed 17th Ward, ages-old Republican stronghold is shaken.

In one area of Myrtle ave. it is 43 Stevenson, 34 Eisenhower.

On lower Druid Hill ave. one poll shows 25, Adlai, 10 for Ike.

Republicans are stronger in upper McCulloh and Madison ave.

Man Gets 30 Days For Cutting Wife

A 21-year-old man who ran through the arms of the law in 1951 after allegedly stabbing his wife, surrendered to Northeastern District Police Wednesday.

The accused, James Boukright of the 1300 block Madison ave., gave himself up after hiding out in Philadelphia for one year.

On Sept 7 of last year Mrs. Peggy Boukright of the 1900 block Barclay st., took out a warrant for the arrest of her husband following the stabbing incident.

Thursday Magistrate Samuel Gabeoff senteneed Boukright to 30 days in jail.
