OUR DEATH RECORD.

MRS. LEONARD NEEDLES.

Mrs. Leonard Needles died at the State Sanitorium in Sabillasville, on Wednesday afternoon after an illness of tuberculosis. The deceased had been in failing health for sometime and several weeks ago she went to the Sanitorium as a last resort to a restoration to health. Everything in the world was done for her by her devoted husband, relatives and friends to relieve her suffering. The deceased was before marriage a Miss Hughes. She leaves besides her husband, two small children—a son and daughter. She also leaves a brother, Mr. Henry Hughes, of this town, and her father and sister living in Delaware. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson went the Sabillasville and brought the remains to Chestertown via train Thursday evening. Funeral services will be held from the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. Walter W. Needles, this (Saturday) afternoon at 2 30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett.

THEODORE RUARK.

Theodore Ruark, 77 years old, 9 West West street, Baltimore, died at the University Hospital, Lombard and Greene Sts., Sunday, where he was taken Friday as the result of having both of his feet cut off below the ankles by a fast-moving passenger train of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, as he was about to cross the tracks between Ridgely and Russell streets. Mr. Ruark was born in Salisbury, Md., and went to Baltimore when he was 27 years old. Besides his widow, Mrs. Leona Ruark, he is survived by a son, Charles Ruark; a daughter, Mrs. John Ash; five grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, a brother, Elijah Ruark, of Salisbury, and one sister, Mrs. John W. Matthews. The deceased was also a relative of Mr. Ruark, proprietor of the Hotel Imperial, this town.

JAMES BECK.

Mr. James Beck, son of Edward Beck, Sr., of Piney Neck, died suddenly on Thursday, Aug. 6. Funeral on Saturday 3 P. M., at Piney Neck Church. Interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. Undertakers, Casey Bros. The deceased is survived by two brothers, Wm. and Lemuel Beck.

(From our Millington Correspondent.)

B. F. VANSANT.

The Angel of Death passed over our neighborhood last Monday morning and laid its icy hand upon Mr. B. F. Vansant, one of our most highly esteemed citizens. Mr. Vansant was seized with a severe attack of acute indigestion last Saturday and in spite of skilled medical aid his condition grew worse until early Monday morning. He then seemed to be improving and his family, who had been loyally with him since the first attack, retired for a little rest, all except his son, Mr. Price Vansant. Mr. Vansant's condition, however, was far more serious than was supposed and in a few moments he died in his son's arms, about 5.45 A. M. Mr. Vansant was born in Smyrna, Del., about 61 years ago. His family moved to Millington when he was very young. For several years, after reaching the age of manhood, he was engaged in farming. Later he went into the mercantile business. He also faithfully served the public as postmaster for two terms. At the time of his death he was proprietor of the Central Hotel, which position he had held for about 13 years. Mr. Vansant was a member of Asbury M. E. Church. He was very fond of music and he will be greatly missed by the members of the church choir and those of the old Millington Cornet Band to whom his cheerful presence was ever an inspiration. His funeral was held at his late residence on Wednesday at 1.30 P. M. Rev. G. P. Smith, of Asbury M. E. Church, and Rev. Edwin Gardner officiated. He is survived by a widow, two single daughters, Misses Addie and Mary, one married daughter, Mrs. Ford Phillips, and one son, Mr. Price Vansant, both of Wilmington, Del.; and two grand-children, Mr. Clifton Clark and Miss Mildred Clark, of Millington; and also a brother, Mr. James Vansant, of Millington.

MRS. MARTHA FELTON.

The sudden death of Mrs. Martha A. Felton at her residence near Millington, on Friday, August 7, came as a great shock to her many friends in this vicinity. Born in Philadelphia in 1838, she lived there until six years after her marriage to Jacob B. Felton, when they moved to Maryland. Here they lived until 1888, moving then to Philadelphia, where Jacob Felton died and was buried. She was the mother of eleven children, five of whom are still living—J. Foster, William A., J. Whitaker, Jacob B. and David. For sixty years of her life, whenever possible, she was in Sunday school as a teacher. Of a very fine and charitable disposition her many activities kept her young, and when acute indigestion ended her life, it closed one of great usefulness. Funeral services were held at Trinity M. E. Church, South, Millington, on Sunday, August 9, at 3 P. M., where Rev. A. E. Owens officiated, and also at St. James M. E. Church, Olney, on Monday, at 1 o'clock, where the services were in charge of Rev. G. H. Bickley, D. D. She was laid to rest beside her husband at Olney, Philadelphia.

Stung to Death by Yellow Jackets.

One woman is dead and another temporarily insane as the result of being attacked by yellow-jackets while the two were gathering blackberries on the old Morrison farm, near Bethel Chapel, in Cecil county last week.

Patrolman Joseph P. Gressenmeyer, of Wilmington, Del., recently purchased the farm as a home for his mother, wife and brother. The two women were out blackberrying Wednesday when they came upon a nest of yellow-jackets and were fiercely attacked by the insects.
