Chop-Vegetable Casserole With Rice For Main Dish

This is It! Those words will escape the lips to describe the goodness of this casserole if the eater finds a chance to talk. His next utterance will be, "I'll have a second helping, please."

Only a salad, perhaps a bread, and a dessert are necessary to complete this meal when this "baked dinner" is served.

Leave it in the oven until all are seated at the table. Then bring in the baking dish and place it before the man of the house. Treat the family to the sight of seeing the liquid goodness bubbling around the rides and spilling over the tender rice, the green peas, and the pork chops.

Ingredients

6 or 8 pork chops
½ cup chopped onion
½ cup chopped green pepper
1 10-oz. can cream of mushroom soup
1 cup water
3 cups cooked rice
2 cups cooked peas
1 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper

Method

Place pork chops in a skillet and brown on both sides. Enough fat should cook out of the pork chops so that it is not necessary to add any to the skillet.

Lift pork chops out of skillet. Place the onion and the green pepper in the skillet and cook until tender. It may be necessary to add a small amount of fat to prevent onions and peppers from sticking.

And mushroom soup, water, rice, peas, salt, and pepper. Mix well. Pour half the rice and pea mixture into a greased baking dish. Arrange half the chops over the rice and peas. Add the rest of the rice and peas. Top with the remaining chops and bake in a moderate over (350 degrees F.) about 10 minutes.

This recipe will make six or eight servings depending upon the number of pork chops used.

Lima Stuffed Tomatoes

Lima Stuffed Tomatoes

4 large firm tomatoes
4 slices crisp-cooked bacon
1 cup cooked dried lima beans
2 tablespoons sliced green onion
¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 tablespoon bacon fat
Salt
Dash black pepper

Hollow out tomatoes and turn upside down to drain. Crumble bacon. Combine cut-out tomato pulp with lima beans, green onion, bread crumbs, bacon fat, half of bacon, ½ teaspoon salt and pepper.

Sprinkle drained tomato cups with salt and pepper, and fill with lima bean mixture. Sprinkle remaining bacon over the tops.

Place in custard cups or muffin pans. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

You'll be seeing the new crop of large dried limas from California in their neat one-and two-pound cellophane bags at your favorite markets now. Their new price is lower too.

Try them in these "Lima Stuffed Tomatoes" now, then later, bake them with these same seasonings and canned tomatoes in a casserole. A thrifttier, heartier combination is hard to find.

While those wonderful big tomatoes are still in the markets, stuff them with a hearty lima bean filling for a satisfying luncheon or supper dish.

It's common courtesy to suds and press borrowed handkerchiefs or items of washable clothing before returning them "with thanks."

A mirror in the kitchen will warn you when it's time to wash your face, apply fresh cosmetics, and slick your hair. You'll be ever ready to face with confidence anyone who rings your doorbell.

HAPPY FAMILY

The Pet Milk Photographer Visits the Martinez Family of Kansas City

Happy, successful, prosperous—but happiness ranks first of all with John and Hazel Martinez and their three pretty little girls. John, Vocational Coordinator of K. T. Coles Vocational High School, has just finished graduate work in Administration at Kansas University, is working on his Master's thesis — but spends his spare time doing carpentry work around the house and helping take care of three little girls who think he's the nicest daddy in the world.

Hazel, graduate of Bishop College, Texas, with a major in social work, spent six years teaching, now specializes in housework, sewing, cooking and thinks she made a good trade. From the time Sandra Faye was born, Pet Milk has been on her shopping list every week — not just for the babies, but for many of her family's favorite dishes. They like the richness of flavor Pet Evaporated Milk adds to foods. And Hazel likes the economy of Pet Milk —it costs less generally than any other form of whole milk!

Penny bank is joint property of Sandra and Therese. Daddy's a regular contributor!

Baby Elaine's growing fast on Pet Milk formula—just like both her sisters!
