THANK THE WEATHER MAN

SALE STARTS SATURDAY, AUG. 8th

FOR THE BARGAINS LISTED BELOW

You can thank a backward season for these prices on our stock of new fresh, seasonable, up-to-the-minute shoes. The weather made sales slow for every retailer during the early Spring and, frankly, we find ourselves with more shoes than we should have. We are determined not to carry over these goods, and as a consequence have placed prices upon them which will surely cause them to "move" in quick step time. The real Summer wearing season is still ahead of you. Don't fail to take advantage of this opportunity to secure your vacation shoes at ridiculously low prices. Our loss is your gain. Come early while our range of styles sizes and widths are unbroken.

LOCAL MATTERS

SALE RECORD.

All the sales advertised in the TRANSCRIPT to take place during the past week were largely attended, and prices were good on everything sold. Cows maintained their high prices, while horses, hogs and farm implements sold well. The following are further dates:

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3rd—Large public sale of valuable personalty of Wm. J. Beck, on his farm, the Vannort farm, near Hanesville.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8th.—Executors sale of fine building lots on Washington avenue, belonging to the estate of the late George B. McWhorter. Here is a chance for a beautiful location for a home in one of the most beautiful residence sections of Chestertown.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12th.—Public sale of a carload of Missouri mules at Robert McWhorter's livery stable, George Vickery, proprietor.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22nd.—Mortgagee's sale of a valuable dwelling and lot of land in Galena, by Hope H. Barroll, assignee. This property is finely located and adjoins the lands of Wm. A. Hyland.

Stable Burned.—The stable on the farm of Mr. Edgar Hurlock, near Church Hill, was burned on Tuesday. There was no loss of stock. The building was insured in the Kent Mutual for $400.

Sells Farm.—Mr. James Brice has sold to Mr. Harry Cecil, now tenanting Mr. D. Thomas Hurlock's farm in Queen Annes, the farm belonging to his wife, situated near Price's Station. The tract contains 200 acres of good, kind land, and the price is said to have been $11,500.

To Preach to Orders.—Rev. Dr. W R. Graham, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, will preach a special sermon to the fraternal orders of the town on Sunday morning, September 6. All members of all the orders are urged to bear the date in mind and cordially invited to meet at the lodge room at 9.45 and go from there to the church in a body where seats will be reserved for them. It is to be hoped there will be large attendance.

Chicken Thieving.—The residents of Quaker Neck have been very much annoyed during the past two weeks by thieves stealing their chickens. Mr. C. C. Brown's hen roost was raided about two weeks ago, and quite a number of his finest young chickens were stolen. Since that time the henneries of Major John K. Cree, Mr. D. W. Ingersoll, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Kratzer and Mrs. Jacquette have been visited and each has lost a number of turkeys and chickens. The residents have organized a vigilance committee and have their suspicion as to the guilty parties. It is more than probable that somebody will get a load of shot if they repeat their depredations.

Wheat Soaring in Price.—Local buyers were offering $1.09 a bushel for wheat yesterday, and the prospect looks good for $1.50 wheat before September 15. There is less wheat in Baltimore elevators at present than at any time for some years, and Baltimore harbor has been crowded during the week with steamships waiting for cargoes for foreign ports. The demand far exceeds the supply on account of the European war, and the longer the war continues the better will be the prospect for $2 wheat. The man who doubles his till age this fall will be the lucky man next year, for wheat must necessarily be a big price, December corn being already quoted at 81 cents. If the farmers play the waiting act we predict $1 corn before January 1.

Hand Badly Lacerated.—Mr. Frank Turner, son of Mr. A. S. Turner, the Worton grain and farm implement dealer, was painfully injured last Friday. Mr. Turner was assisting in loading a heavy tank of gasoline in Mr. Stockton Startt's dearborn. The horse suddenly started up, catching Mr. Turner's left-hand between the tank and the dearborn, completely lacerating the flesh from all of the fingers. Dr. H. G. Simpers was hastily summoned and rendered surgical aid. Mr. Turner, though having suffered a great deal of pain, is now doing well.

Miss Watts Rents Kent House.—Miss Mollie Watts, who has been conducting a boarding house, corner Princess and Cannon streets, has rented the Kent House, and will probably take possession the middle of October. Mr. Thos. W. Ellason, the proprietor, will give the hotel a complete renovating. He has already installed two bath rooms, and he will paper and paint all the rooms and paint the exterior. This is one of the best locations in the town for a hotel, and Miss Watts is one of the most competent and successful apartment housekeepers in the town. The TRANSCRIPT wishes her success.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

¶Tolchester season closes on Labor Day, September 7th.

¶The individual income tax paid by Marylanders amounted to $448,409.

¶Freeman Diggs, one of the oldest colored men in the town, died last week.

¶Canneries all along the railroad are open, and tomatoes are coming along briskly.

¶Potatoes as an exclusive diet are said by a noted German scientist to be a sure cure for rheumatism.

¶Kit Carson's wild west circus will show in Chestertown on Tuesday, September 8th. Watch for the parade.

¶The apple crop throughout the United States is estimated by the Department of Agriculture to be 210,000,000 baskets.

¶The damson crop in Chestertown and the county has been good. The fruit has found ready sale in local market at $1 per basket.

¶The showers during the week have greatly benefitted late corn, tomatoes and grass, and have enabled the farmers to plow.

¶Messrs. Barber Bartley, Floyd Brown and Charles Ford have been camping at Northwest Point during the past week.

¶Master Sterling Townshend won the Junior Automobile at Kirby's store for collecting the largest number of coupons.

¶Mr. James M. Bartley will be at the Chesapeake House in Rock Hall to-day with a complete line of wall paper samples.

¶Don't forget the Red Men's tournament at Massey this afternoon. Fun starts at 1 P. M. and ends with a dance at 8 o'clock.

¶Local "boosters" of Chautauqua toured Kent and Queen Annes on Thursday in gaily decorated autos. Another party will visit lower Kent to-day.

¶Fishing with hook and line on Swan Point Bar is said to be poorer at present than for years. Fishermen go out for a whole day and don't catch a mess.

¶The Italian laborers on Chestertown's new street have taken quarters in the old Westcott house in Church Alley now owned by Mr. A. M. Culp.

¶Chautauqua begins on Monday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The tent will be pitched on the High School play ground. Very few season tickets left. Get them quick.

¶A gentleman of this county not engaged in the grain business, bought a large quantity of wheat some weeks ago for 80 and 81 cents a bushel. He sold it last week for 94 cents a bushel, clearing 13½ cents a bushel. Suppose he had kept it till now?

¶Easton Fair begins next Tuesday. A special effort has been made by the management to make this the greatest fair in the history of the association. More and better attractions are offered than ever before, and the races have filled with a fine list of entries.

¶Mr. Charles P. Hodgkins has sold one of his finecows, the red one, to Mr. Foster H. Parker, of Queen Anne's, and has practically sold the other cow to another party. We understand the price paid for the red cow was $65 cash, and Mr. Parker has a prize. The white cow is just as good.

¶The "laundry" horse died suddenly on Tuesday morning in front of the home of Mr. Thomas B. Elliott. Mr. Heller was collecting laundry, and while he was engaged the horse reached up and bit off several leaves from the tree. He suddenly reared and fell and died in a struggle, supposedly of strangulation.

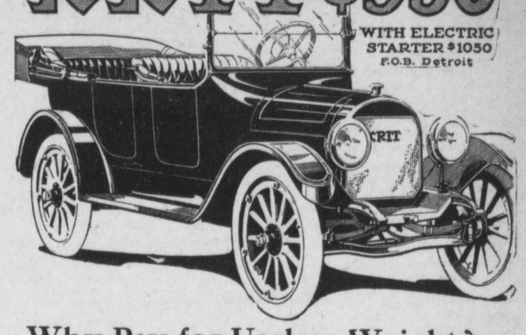

¶A slight fire which did no damage occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs Harry Burke, on High street, Monday evening. Mrs. Burke was cleaning a coat with gasoline. She struck a match for some purpose and it ignited the very small quantity of gasoline being used. Mrs. Burk thought it wise to sound the fire alarm, but there was no damage.

¶The sewing bag which was advertised in the TRANSCRIPT last week, belongs to Miss Nicholson, of Virginia, neice of Dr. James Roy Micou, whose guest she was until last Saturday. It was returned to the owner. You can't beat the TRANSCRIPT as an advertising medium, because it is the most generally read paper in Kent county.

¶Mr. H. Sachs, of the firm of H. Sachs & Son, has rented the Crew property on High street, and he will remove his family here October 1. Mr. Sachs will open a first-class men's and ladies' tailoring establishment in the large room above his store on High street. He is a tailor of years of experience, and is a splendid fitter and workman.

KRIT $950

WITH ELECTRIC STARTER $1050 F.O.B. Detroit

Why Pay for Useless Weight?

KRIT lightness comes from correct design—not from skimping. 120 pounds in weight is saved by using aluminum for our crank case and transmission case. The sturdy, powerful KRIT motor weighs only 283 pounds, as against 400 to 550 pounds for motors in cars the same size and power of the KRIT. And so on—throughout the car.

Engineers tell us that the KRIT is two years ahead of its field, for it possesses, at $950, the quality features you find in cars at double the price. The sensational sales records made by the new KRIT is an endorsement by critical motorists that proves these experts right.

So, we ask you, what more can you get in a higher priced car? More weight, perhaps, but weight only adds to the expense of upkeep. More rated horsepower, but much of the extra horse power is used up in carrying around the extra weight—and the rest of the excess power you do not need. For the KRIT will take you anywhere you want to go. It will take you there speedily, safe and comfortably.

Learn more about the economical, dependable KRIT—the moderate priced car with the high priced features. A ride will demonstrate to you the rare quality of this car—value you can't get elsewhere at the price.
