The Church of Yesterday and To-day.

One of our good old friends, who is spending the retired years of his busy life in doing all the good he can, and in close study of the Bible writes thus interestingly of past memories as recalled by a recent attendance at Christ M. P. Church:

"A christian church is a body or collection of persons, voluntarily associated professing to believe what Christ taught, to do what Christ enjoins, emulate His example, cherish His spirit and make known His gospel to others.

"One of my good old friends called on me a few Sundays ago to go to church with him and I went to that beautiful church, near the corner, erected about 1887.

"I heard a most able discourse from the preacher and the teacher, and I thought the congregation should be thankful to be so highly favored with such a teacher. His text was the 3rd chapter of Philippians and 10th verse, which I found was listened to with marked attention, and may his people assist him, when he may be tired or weary, as Aron and Hur held up the hands of Moses until he had attained the victory. And so it may be with your preacher—he may gain a victory for his Creator and also benefit humanity. They had quite a large congregation, and I remember but one that I had seen in 1852; then she was a bright eyed little child, who I used to see in the meeting room at her father's house. I have never seen her since, unless it was when her husband was buried, as I attended the funeral. I know her two sons and was introduced to her by one of them at the church, and may she be proud of them, as I have heard they were very devoted to her, and may they always be. A few Sundays after a friend asked me to go and attend Sunday school at the church, and I found they had quite a large attendance, well managed by efficient officers and teachers. The great desire seemed to be to teach the young ladies and men and boys and girls the problem of life, and to remember their Creator in the days of their youth. I assure you I was much pleased with their efforts and that beautiful church to assist poor, weak humanity.

"I came home and began to consider that little band, who 62 years ago, met in the little church down the street, on the Sabbath day, and on Monday night we met at our good friend's house who gave us the best room. I began to think why they met there. I may not be right, but I have thought that he and his venerable friend across the street thought it best for the people to come to his house than go to church, as we had no street lights, no coal oil, no gas nor electric lights, and around Stramburg's corner to that church was to be dreaded, as many scenes of wickedness happened there.

"The congregation was small and with very little means, and when we met in the room on Monday night at the home of that good and kind man, I have never heard of such wonderful meetings and prayers. Sometimes the preachers, as they had two, Wm. Valliant and Wm. T. Dunn, the last named was frequently there. When I look at the great progress they have made and the great church, I cannot but think and know that the prayers of those good people, both men and women, who met in that room, have been answered.

THE PAST.

ABSOLUTELY THE BEST.

Kit Carson's Buffalo Ranch Big Three Ring Wild West Circus, the Most Wonderful of All Exhibitions, Coming.

OVER FIVE HUNDRED MEN AND HORSES IN THIS VAST ARMY FROM THE WEST.

To suit the young and the old the modern exhibition must combine education with amusement and present something that will make a lasting and a favorable impression on the public. Owing to the rapid disappearance of the Indian and the astonishing advance of the west towards civilization, the history of that large and important portion of our country is yet an unwritten book to thousands of our people.

The Kit Carson Buffalo Ranch Big Taree-Ring Wild West Circus faithfully reproduces life on the frontier, showing Indian sports and warfare, the skill of the Cowboy with six shooter, lasso and pony, the discipline and training of the western girl, the clever work of the bolas throwers of the South American plains, the Arabs in their wonderful riding and shooting, the Mexicans as marksmen and horsemen, the Cossacks of the Russian steppes, and the innumerable other features of this unsurpassed entertainment.

The military tournament introduced is something never equalled either in magnitude or picturesqueness. Engaged in it are the famous American Zouaves, U. S. Cavalry, English, German, French and Mexican soldiers and many other interesting people who will be strangers to many hundreds who see them here.

Kit Carson's Buffalo Ranch Big Three-Ring Wild West Circus will have five bands of music, the most famous of which is the cowboy band. The great street cavalcade will be witnessed by thousands on day of exhibition. Excursion trains will arrive throughout the morning and our town will have on her gala dress.

Impress the date of exhibition on your mind. Will exhibit at Chestertown on Tuesday, September 8, afternoon and night.

HELPFUL WORDS

From A Chestertown Citizen.

Is your back lame and painful?
Does it ache especialy after exertion?
Is there a soreness in the kidney regions.
If so there is danger in delay.
Weak kidneys get fast weaker.
Give your trouble prompt attention.
Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys,
Your neighbors use and recommend them.
Read this Chestertown testimony.

John M. South, photographer, Imperial Hotel, Chestertown, says: I suffered a great deal from my back and kidney secretions were irregular and I had pains throughout my sides and back. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at Toulson's Drug Store and they gave me relief."

Mr. South is only one of many Chestertown people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. South had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores.
