CHAUTAUQUA was a decided succes.

THE Star Spangled Banner Celebration begins in Baltimore tomorrow (Sunday). Go and help boost the City.

EVERY VOTER in Kent county must be reregistered after the primaries in order to vote in the November election and next year's primaries. We do not intend to allow the voters to forget this important obligation.

THE Congressional and Senatorial primaries for the nomination for candidates for the long and short terms in Congress and for one candidate for the United States Senate will be held on Tuesday, September 15th.

AT A MEETING of the Republican State Central Committee held last week at the Hotel Rennert, Baltimore, John B. Hanna resigned as chairman and Galen L. Tait, of Montgomery county, was elected to succeed him.

CARDINAL GIACOMA DELLA CHIESA, Archbishop of Bologna, Italy, has been elected Supreme Pontiff of the Catholic hierachy to succeed the late Pope Pius X. He will reign under the name of Benedict XV. His coronation takes place to-morrow.

"WILSON—THAT'S ALL IN 1916"—says Vice-President Marshall. Don't that sound good? The TRANSCRIPT was the first paper in Maryland to indorse Wilson for President in 1912 and we may as well start the 1916 ball rolling now as at any other time. Come on in boys, the water's fine.

SENATOR JESSE D. PRICE, candidate for Congress in the First District for the long and short term, has a strong announcement in this issue setting forth the principles upon which he seeks the votes of the people. Senator Price states that he is a progressive Democrat thoroughly in sympathy with the policies of President Wilson. Every voter in Kent and Queen Annes counties should read Senator Price's letter.

THE political announcement of James T.Bright, Esq., of Queen Anne's county, for the short term candidacy for Congress in this district appears in this issue. It is a strong declaration of the principles for which Mr. Bright stands, and all Democrats should read it. Mr. Bright is making a hustling campaign and has many friends throughout the district who are working hard for his nomination in the primaries on September 15th.

To Have Sanitorium.—Betterton is to have a sanitorium. Col. A.H. Suplee, the progressive and hustling proprietor of Idlewhile Inn, will convert the popular hotel into a sanitorium for nervous people, and keep it open the year round. In our judgment this is a wise move on the part of Col. Suplee, because conditions of health, quiet and recreation at Betterton are such as it will make it extremely conducive to the rapid development of such an institution. Col. Suplee is just the man to manage it. The TRANSCRIPT wishes him success in his worthy undertaking.

OUR FAITH IN WILSON.

There has been a wonderful change in the sentiment of the people of the country towards President Wilson and his administration since the beginning of the European War. Much of the adverse criticism of the President and his foreign policy was of the sort manufactured by the great moneyed interests of the country who were beginning to feel the sting of defeat in the loss of prestige and power to the Republican party through whose graces they prospered and grew fat in ill-gotten wealth. But this "knocking" was having more or less effect upon that class of our population who are either too stubborn to see the truth, or who, through ignorance, know nothing of the cause of their present condition. But the great contrast between the watchful waiting policy of the President in the Mexican situation, which the jingoists have so severely condemned, and the terrible struggle now on in Europe has so awakened the people of this country to the appreciation of the good judgment and sound wisdom of the President, that this, combined with the President's determination to aid the business and commerce of the country by the establishment of an effective American Merchant Marine, has so changed the sentiment of the masses of the people, and strengthened their confidence in the President that the election of a Democratic Congress in November is certain, and has practically assured the re-nomination and re-election of President Wilson in 1916. And this change of sentiment has become so pronounced and almost spontaneous that even Teddy Roosevelt is silenced, the Republican party is fast desintegrating, and there are more Wilson men in the Organization camp to-day than you can shake a stick at, especially in the State of Maryland and there soon will be in Kent county Organization who a month ago were quietly seeking to poison the minds of the people, and who would to-day stab the President in the back politically, if they felt themselves strong enough. But thanks to a wise and sane President, our country has been saved from an unnecessary and bloody war with Mexico, and we have such implicit confidence in the ability and wisdom of President Wilson, that we believe he will keep our own beloved country free from the entanglements of the European War, and he will make America more prosperous than she has ever been in her history, if a few reactionary Democrats in Congress can be held in check and finally relegated to the realm of political oblivion.

WE DO not know whether our farmers accepted our advice last week in reference to holding their wheat, but we believe it was sound advice. A gentleman friend of the TRANSCRIPT who was in Baltimore last week stated that when he went over there were a large number of ships lying in harbor waiting to load grain at the elevators for foreign shipment. He stated that when he came out of the harbor several days after nearly all those ships had departed with their cargoes of wheat. He said he was wondering whether our county farmers were so foolish as to ship their grain now. He believes conditions are such that wheat will be $1.50 before Christmas and so do we and therefore by way of warning we urge the farmers to hold their wheat.

(POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT)

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE CANDIDACY OF

JAMES T. BRIGHT

Of Queen Anne's County

For The Short Term In Congress

Centreville, Maryland.
September 1st, 1914.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF MARYLAND:—

Although I have been an avowed candidate for Congress for several weeks, I refrained from making a signed statement to the Democratic voters of the First Congressional District of Maryland, until I had filed my certificate of candidacy with the Boards of Election Supervisors of the various counties of the district.

Now, however, that I have qualified, I feel it my duty to place myself fairly and squarely before the great mass of people representing the Democracy of the Eastern Shore, and to assure all who are interested in the success of the present administration, under the guidance of that magnificent statesman, whole hearted Democrat and friend of the people, Woodrow Wilson, that I stand unswervingly, earnestly and sincerely behind those policies which he has advocated and placed in effect in the past; the work that he is now engaged in promoting, and his ideals of the future as expressed at various times in Washington.

In filing my papers with the Boards of Supervisors, I qualified for the short term in Congress, only. If elected, I stand pledged to give to the people of the First Congressional District the best service of which I am capable; to earnestly and diligently endeavor to faithfully represent the section from which I am sent, and my hearty and enthusiastic support will be rendered unto the man who is now at the helm of the National Administration in Washington.

In view of the rumors that have become insistent throughout the district, to the effect that my candidacy for the short term might mean a combination with some other candidate for the long term, I take this opportunity to explain the cause that prompted my action.

Long before the time for filing my certificate, I learned that there was a strong feeling existing among the Democratic voters of the District, that the interests of Democracy would be best subserved by the nomination of two men. The belief, I am informed, is general that every effort should be made to strengthen the ticket by placing two men in nomination. It is the law of tradition and precedent in this district, that when a vacancy in Congress occurs from any cause, two candidates should be nominated—one for the short and one for the long term.

The Democrats of this district have ALWAYS nominated two candidates under conditions of this sort.

At the outset of the fight I felt confident that Senator Price would file at least for the long term if not for both; and I was equally certain that Colonel Sisk would do the same. Consequently, with this knowledge, and knowing the temper of the people of the district in favoring two candidates, decided of my own volition, without any agreement, combination or allignment, to announce my candidacy and file for the short term only.

Queen Annes county has had little recognition from the hands of Maryland Democracy in a decade, and yet she has never wavered in her support of the party of Jefferson. At this time she is asking very little at the hands of the party, when she asks for the honor of sending a Congressman to Washington for the short term.

In submitting my candidacy to the people of the district, to be voted upon in the Primary election of Tuesday, September 15th, I am not unmindful of the responsibility which will rest upon my shoulders in the event I am chosen to represent the District; and, while realizing these facts I do not hesitate to assure all, that if sent to Washington my desire and ambition will be to represent ALL THE PEOPLE to the best of my ability, and to conscientiously perform those duties which the voters of the First Congressional District may entrust to my care.

JAMES T. BRIGHT.
