Miss Anna Cook, of Baltimore, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. O. B. Rice.

Mrs. L. M. Rice, of Baltimore, is visiting her son, Rev. O. B. Rice.

Mrs. Wm. J. Rice and daughter, of Philadelphia, have returned home after having spent a few days with Rev. and Mrs. O. B. Rice.

Mrs. W T. Edwards and Mrs. R. C. Leaverton were called to Baltimore, owing to the death of Mrs. Jos. Shriver, who was killed by a street car on Saturday. Mrs. Shriver was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Edwards.

Mrs. Wm. T. Brown is in Baltimore this week attending The Star Spangled Banner Centennial.

Miss Lida Edwards, with Louise and Lida Leaverton, while returning from Chestertown Saturday morning, was overtaken by a runaway team of two horses to a dearborn driven by a negro boy about 13 years old. The carriage was upset, throwing Lida Leaverton out and catching Miss Edwards and Louise in the top dragging them thirty or forty feet and throwing their horse down. Very fortunately they escaped only with bruises and a shock to their nervous systems. Their carriage was damaged considerably and the horse's legs were cut in several places. The dearbon pole was broken, also the harness. Mr. John Leager being the first to be overtaken avoided the team by driving in to Beck and Walker Fertilizer lane and then seeing the accident was soon there to render assistance.

State Wide Game Law.

For the benefit of our sportsmen we publish the following: The Acts of 1914, Chapter 472, provide a State-wide game sesson, which is the first uniform season for the whole state Maryland has ever had. This Act repeals all other laws providing or prescribing seasons for game birds and game animals, and it will, therefore, be understood that all seasons prescribed by county or local laws, which confict with the said Act, are null and void. The uniform season law for the State is:

Section 20. No person shall shoot, trap, catch or kill, or gun or hunt for any partridge or quail, English or Mongolin pheasant, Dark Neck Bohemian pheasant, pheasant or ruffed grouse, rabbit, squirrel, wild turkey, woodcock or deer within the State of Maryland between the twenty-fourth day of December and the tenth day of November in any year, exclusive of both dates, nor upon Sunday or when the ground is sufficiently covered with snow to track the birds or game above mentioned. And there shall be a daily closed season on all the above enumerated game birds and game animals, with the exception of rabbits, between sunset and sunrise.

Section 21. Provides that anyone convicted "before any Justice of the Peace of this State" of a violation of the preceding section shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00 for each and every offense, and upon a failure to pay the fine shall be committed to jail for not less than 25 days nor more than 60 days.

One-half of fines go to the person procuring the conviction and the other half to the State Game Protection Fund.

Forbidding the Sale of or Giving Away Liquor on Election Day.

For the information of all persons concerned, the following Act of the Legislature, passed March 24th, 1896, is published:

AN ACT

Prohibiting the sale of Spirituous or Fermented Liquors in the counties or the State on the day of Election.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that it shall not be lawful for the keeper of any hotel, tavern, store, drinking establishment, or any other place where liquor is sold, or any person or persons, directly or indirectly, of any kind, on the day of election hereinafter to be held in the several counties of the State.

Section 2. And be it enacted, That any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be liable to indictment by the Grand Jury of the county where such offense is committed, and shall, upon conviction before any judge ot any of the Circuit Courts of this State, be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars for each and every offense; one-half the fine is paid to the informer and the other half to the County Commissioners for the use of the public roads.

Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws, as amended by the Acts of 1900 and 1901, says:

Whoever, during the hours of registration, or revision of registration, or during the hours of election or canvas of votes or of making returns thereof in any precinct, shall bring, take, order or send into, shall or attempt to bring or take or send into, any place of registration or of election any distilled or spiritous liquors, wine ale or beer, or shall at any such time or place drink or partake of such liquors, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than $100.

WM. E. BROWN, Sheriff.

Concealed Weapons on Election Day.

The following Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session of 1874, and approved April 6, 1874, is published for the information of the public:

AN ACT

To prevent carrying of guns, pistols, dirks, dirk-knives, razors, billies, or bludgeons by any person in Kent, Queen Annes or Montgomery counties on the day of election in said counties:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this Act it shall not be lawful for any person in Kent, Queen Annes and Montgomery counties to carry on the day of election, secretly or otherwise, any gun, pistol, dirk, dirk-knife, razor, billy, or bludgeon, and any person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace, in either of said counties, shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, and on refusal to pay said fine shall be committed by said Justice of the Peace to the jail of the county until the same is paid.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the fines collected under this Act shall be paid by the officers collecting the same to the School Commissioners of the county where offense shall have been committed for school purposes.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That any constable of either of said counties or the sheriff thereof, who shall refuse to arrest any person violating any provision of this Act, upon information of said offense, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before the Circuit Court of the county shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars, and forthwith be discharged from office.

WM. E. BROWN, Sheriff.

Betting on Elections.

The attention of all persons in particularly called to the following sections of 36 Code, of Public Laws of Maryland:

Section 45. No person shall make any bet or wager on the result of any election to take place in this State.

Sec. 48. Any person offending against the last preceding section shall be liable to indictment by the Circuit Court, if the offense be committed in any county, or in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, if the offense be committed in Baltimore, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, to be paid to the State for School Fund.

Sec. 49. Any deposit of money in any part of the State as a wager or bet upon elections in this State or elsewhere shall be forfeited and paid over to the County Commissioners of the county where deposited for the use of the county, and if deposited in the City of Baltimore, to the Mayor and City Council.

WM. E. BROWN, Sheriff.

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS.

The Primary Election will be held on Tuesday Sept. 15th, at the polling places designated in the official notice published elsewhere in this issue. The polls will be opened at 8 a. m. and close at 6 p. m., and the conduct of the election will be similar to that of the general election, except that at the primary election the ballot must be enclosed in an official envelope obtained from the judges and be sealed before it is deposited in the ballot box; that a voter may prepar his ballot before entering the polling place, provided ee uses an official sample ballot; and that the cross-marks on the ballot must be made with an ordinary black lead pencil. A cross-mark is to be made in the box to the right of the name of each person for whom the voter wishes to cast his vote.

The ballots are canvassed and counted as they were last year, and the same provisions apply to the envelope. A ballot may be prepared before entering the polling place, but upon a voter presenting himself to vote, it having been determined that he is qualified to vote, a blank official ballot shall be given him, together with the envelope. The voter then retires to one of the booths, taking with him the blank ballot, and shall there mark with a black pencil his ballot for voting, or use the ballot which he has already prepared. He then places the ballot in the envelope and seals same and hands it to one of the judges of the election, who, after detaching the coupon, deposit same in the ballot box. If the envelope is unsealed, it is the duty of the judge to send the voter back to the booth to seal same, and should the voter mutilate his envelope he is entitled to another one just as he would be to another ballot in the general election.

Count of Ballot.

If any envelope shall be found not of the character requried for this primary, or if any mark or device be found on any envelope except the initials of the judge as required, or if any mark or device be found on any ballot, or peculiar folding, by which, in the opinion of the majority of the judges, the same may be identified so as to indicate who has cast the same, the ballot so marked or the ballot contained in the envelope so marked, or folded, or improperly substituted, shall not be counted. When more then one ballot is found in one envelope, or a ballot is found in an envelope furnished for a different political party than that for which the ballot was provided, the same shall not be counted for any person unless a cross mark made by a black pencil appears after his name. Only ballots marked with a black pencil shell be counted. If any envelope is deposited in the box inadvertently without being properly sealed, and without being detected by the judge receiving the same, or shall become unsealed in the ballot box, it shell not be thrown out for that reason. If more names are marked for any office then there are persons to be voted for, such ballots shall not be counted for such candidates or delegates, or other persons to be voted for, as the case may be, but the whole ballot shall not for that reason be rejected for candidates for other offices or positions.

On the day of the primary election the polls shall be opened at 8 a. m. and close at 6 p. m.

The returns shall be made before 12 o'clock noon of the second day after the primary in the same manner and form as is provided for in general elections.

CHAPTER 122, ACTS OF 1908.

171. The following persons shall be guilty of corrupt practices and shall be punished in accordance with the provisions of this act: Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or by another, give or offer or promise to any person any money, gift, advantage, preferment, entertainment, aid, emolument, or any valuable thing whatever, for the purpose of inducing or procuring any person to vote, or refrain from voting, for or against any person, or for or against any measure or proposition at any election or primary election or political convention or session of the General Assembly of Maryland, or either House thereof. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, receive, accept, request or solicit from any person, candidate, committee, association, organization or corporation, any money, gift, advantage, preferment, aid, emolument, or any valuable thing whatsoever for the purpose of inducing or procuring any person to vote, or refrain from voting, for or against any person, or for or against any measure or proposition at any election or primary election or political convention. Every person who, in consideration of any money, gift, preferment, aid, emolument, or any valuable thing whatsoever, paid, received, accepted or promised to the advantage of himself or any other person, shall vote, or refrain from voting, for or against any person, or for or against any measure at any such election, caucus or primary election or political convention. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, pay, give, contribute or promise any money or other valuable thing to defray, or towards defraying the costs or expenses of any campaign or election, to any person, committee, company, club, organization or association other than to a treasurer or political agent; but this sub-section or paragraph shall not apply to dues regularly paid for membership in any incorporated political club if all money expended by such club for or in connection with the costs or expenses of any campaign or election shall be paid out by it only through a treasurer or political agent, as provided in this Act, or to any expenses for postage, telegrams, telephoning, stationery, printing, expressage, or traveling and board incurred by any candidate for office or for nomination thereto so far as they are permitted by this Act. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or through another person, make a payment or promise of payment, to a treasurer or political agent in any other name than his own, and every treasurer or political agent who shall knowingly, receive a payment or promise of payment, and enter the same or cause the same to be entered in his accounts in any other name than that of the person by whom such payment or promise of payment is made. Every person who, before, during or after election or primary election, by himself or by any other person, either directly or indirectly, gives or provides or pays, wholly or in part, the expenses of giving or providing any meat, drink, entertainment or provisions to or for any person, for the purpose of inducing that person, or any other person, to give or refrain from giving his vote at the election or primary election, or to influence his vote in any other way therein, or on account of his having voted, or refrained from voting, or being about to vote or refrain from voting; and every elector who accepts the same, or any of the same, for any of the purposes aforesaid. Every person who shall be guilty of any corrupt practices as aforesaid shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned for one year, or both, and shall be ineligible to any public office or public employment for the period of four years from and after the time of the commission of such offense.
