IN THE CHURCHES.

Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham goes to Philadelphia today to preach the sermon tomorrow at the anniversary celebration of Taylor Memorial M. P. Church, Rev. Mr. Tyson pastor.

Rev. C. Walter Sanderson, one of the young and promising ministers of the Maryland Annual Conference Methodist Protestant Church, died at his home in Cannon, Del., on Thursday of last week in the 36th year of his age. Typhoid fever was the cause of his death.

Members of the church choirs, under the direction of Mrs. Merrick Clements, led the singing in Chautauqua tent on Sunday evening and Dr. Harmon, of the Chautauqua staff, preached a masterly sermon on the theme—"The Necessity of a Necessity" to an audience estimated at 1,000 people from all parts of Kent and Queen Annes. And the sacred concert given by Victor's band from 7.30 to 8 was simply grand.

Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, preached a magnificent sermon last Sunday morning to the Junior Order United American Mechanics. It was one of those sermons that every lover of his country should hear, and if every member of the order who heard the sermon should become a Judge Lindsey, and dare to do his public duty regardless of public sentiment or popular favor, the reforms which Dr. Graham advocated would very shortly become actualities, and there is pressing need for many of these reforms right here in Chestertown and Kent county.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, Sept. 13, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, subject: "Peace"; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath School and pastor's Bible class; Missionary Collection; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service, followed by a brief sermon by the pastor, subject: "The Youth at School." All invited to the services especially the members of the fraternal orders.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Services on Sunday, Sept. 13th, and preaching by Rev. Eben N. Baldwin at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M.; Sabbath School 2.30 P. M.; Missionary Day in the Sunday school. Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid Society of Christ M. P. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. C. N. Satterfield on Monday evening, at 7.30 o'clock. A full attendance of all the members is earnestly requested.

Dr. Martin has returned from his vacation and services will be resumed in Emmanuel Church on Sunday next, at 11 A. M. and 7.30 P. M.

The theme for the sermon next Sunday in the Presbyterian churches of Georgetown, Kennedyville and Worton is "God's Plan for the World." The Mite Society met at Mr. Wiltbanks' Wednesday evening and had a very pleasant and profitable time.

Chautauqua Closes.

The Chestertown Chautauqua closed on Sunday night with one of the best entertainments of the week. Victor's band gave a delightful concert from 7.30 to 8 o'clock, after which Dr. Harman of the Chautauqua association preached one of the greatest sermons heard here for some time.

A large crowd was present when Judge Ben Lindsey spoke Saturday night probably over a thousand being on hand to hear the judge. Judge Lindsey spoke for nearly two hours concerning his great work of juvenile reform. He is doing a noble work in the city of Denver, which is reaching the entire nation in its effect and influence. After the lecture the guarantors handed a set of resolutions to Mrs. Gregory, thanking her for her services here, and asking for her return next year. Mr. W. B. Copper read the resolutions to the audience, who heartily seconded them.

Friday morning and afternoon, under the direction of Miss Lacy and Miss Rebecca Toulson, the children of the town had a picnic and "hunt" in Mr. H. H. Klinefelter's woods, while on Saturday afternoon they rendered an interesting play entitled "In Nature's Garden," which consisted of songs, dances and gymnastics. This was one of the most enjoyable features of the week. Those who took part in the entertainment Saturday afternoon were: Ellen Beck, Myrtle Needles, James Crouch, Elizabeth Wickes, Norman Tucker, Harry Graham, Calvin Copper, Richard Twilley, Ernestine Jarrell, Alice Rote, Henrietta Newnam; Claude Parks, Margaret Russell, Cornelia Davis, Virginia Jones, Margaret Jefferson, Louise Simpers, Dorothy Woodall, Vera Pennington, Emily Lusby, Harriet Reed, Roselmer McKee, Olive Kent, Eloise Wickes, Grace Bennett, Anna DeFord, Fiossie Kent, Margaret Hackett, Catherine Beck, Emma Jarrell, Merrut Page Beck, Anna Perkins, Alice Bennett, Cora McWhorter, Marion Hadaway, Anna Strong, Lyda Leaverton, Martha Crossley, Helen Simpers, Elizabeth Cosden, Jane Miller, Gladys Beacham, Mary Jones, Virginia Parks, Mary Clare Chapman, Laura Nickolson, Vannort Chapman, Virginia Nickolson, Louise Whiteley, Mary Hynson, Irene Kirby, Louise Leverton, Walter Pippin, Wm. Parrott, William Smith, Daniel McKee, Harry Russell, Belt Townshend, Emerson Russell, Gilbert Byron, Paul Graham.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

JESSE H. SIMPERS.

Jesse H. Simpers died Thursday morning of last week at his home in North East, after a long illness that had incapacitated him for a number of years. He was fifty-five years of age and a son of the late John W. and Mary A. Simpers. He was married twice, his first wife having been Miss Maggie Davis. One daughter by his first wife survives, Mabel, wife of Edward W. Jones, of Philadelphia, formerly of Elkton. His second wife was Miss Clara Rambo, who survives him with one son, John W. Simpers. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon from his late residence, with interment in Union cemetery.

MRS. CLARA L. KING.

Mrs. Clara L. King, daughter of Richard R. Cochran, of Middletown, Del., died at her home in Philadelphia last Saturday and was buried from the home of her father in Middletown on Monday. Mrs. King's mother was a Miss Lum, of Cecil county. The deceased was a lady of the most charming personality and was a member of the well-known Cochran family in Delaware, which for years has been prominent in the social and business life of the entire peninsula. She was well-known and held in the highest esteem in Kent county, where she owned one of the finest farms in the first district near Galena, which she inherited from her mother. This farm now reverts to her father.

SENATOR HENRY CLAY DODSON

Former State Senator Henry Clay Dodson, of St. Michaels, died suddenly on Monday at Rehoboth, Del. Since 1899 the deceased was deputy collector of Internal Revenue at Baltimore. He was for 20 years superintendent of St. Michaels M. E. Sunday school. He leaves a widow and four children.
