LOCAL MATTERS

Grange Meeting.—A meeting of the Chestertown Grange will be held in the Chestertown High Shcool building on Wednesday afternoon, September 23rd, at 2.30 P. M. All members are urged to be present as business of vital importance will be taken up.

Worton Grange Notes.—You may think Worton Grange is going back as you have not heard from us for sometime, but we must hasten to assure you that such is not the case, and we are as wide awake as ever. Last Monday night we held a very interesting meeting and the meeting of next Monday night promises to be more so. So be on hand to add your little mite and swell the crowd.

Buys May Bird.—Messrs. Biggs & Peacock, the well-knows local trainers, have purchased from Mr. H. B. Windsor, of Milford, Del., the fast pacing mare, May Bird, record 2.12. The price paid was $1000. May Bird is one of the fastest and handsomest pacers in the East, and she has been added to the Biggs & Peacock stable to replace Dixie D., recently purchased by Mr. Johnson, of Middletown, Del., and which has been sent to the barn for the remainder of the season.

Buys McWhorter Home.—Mr. James H. Brice has purchased from Hope H. Barroll, trustee, the home of the late Geo. B. McWhorter on Washington avenue. The price paid was $2,500. The property adjoins the pretty new home of Mrs. McWhorter, with a four-foot alley way on the south and a driveway on the north between the residence and the vacant lot. It extends back to an entrance on Kent Circle in the rear of the property. Mr. Brice and his family will occupy the property as soon as Mrs. McWhorter and daughter, Miss Nellie, move to their new home.

A Big Money Winner.—Herman Tyson, the well-known Newark, Del., trainer, has started in 42 races during the present season, exclusive of his starts at Wilmington last week. He has won first money 28 times, many of the purses being $500 stakes, and has captured second money in 14 starts. This is a world's record for the season. Mr. Tyson will continue to race until well into November, finishing the season at Memphis, Tenn. He has one of the finest half-mile track stables in the country, and many of his racers have "graduated" to the Grand Circuit tracks

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

Autumn begins on Thursday next, September 24th.

The afternoon train now leaves Chestertown at 3.08 instead of 2.58, as heretofore.

The Hub stores, Millington, will be closed Sept. 21 and 22 on account of holiday.

Straw hats were called in Tuesday, Sept. 15th. However, there were a few who disregarded the summons.

Duyer & Rawleigh are building a warehouse for Mr. Frank A. Hurlock on the John Gale Usilton lot on the railroad.

The St. Paul's supper on Wednesday evening was attended by a big crowd and as usual the supper was fine.

Mr. George V. Byron has been stocking the local market with fine rock during the week, caught in pounds up the river.

Contractor Adkinson is pushing the work on the new road on Cross and Queen streets. They will be ready for use before cold weather.

The Kennedyville Grange will meet every two weeks during September and October. The next meeting will be held Monday night, September 21st.

The weather of the past week has been so cool that housefires have not felt at all uncomfortable. There have been no evidences of frost however.

It is said that seven hundred people from Kent County patronized the round trip excursion from Tolchester to Baltimore on Saturday for the big celebration.

Mr. A. M. Culp will complete the work on Janes M. E. Church. Mr. Culp is putting the finishing touches on Mr. George Bell's pretty new home on Queen street.

Go anywhere you will in Chestertown nowadays and you will see a fine display of gorgeous fall roses. They will soon vie in beauty with the gorgeous chrysanthemums, the queen of fall flowers.

The farm of Mr. James T. DeCorse, containing 281½ acres of land, situated near town, was offered at public sale on Wednesday afternoon by John D. Urie, attorney. It was withdrawn on a bid of $51 per acre.

Washington College opened with a large number of students on Wednesday. We shall publish a list of the new students, with the permission of President Cain, next week. We wish the college a successful year.

The Chestertown Choral Club will meet in the Assembly Hall of the High School on Tuesday evening next, at 7.30 to make preliminary arrangements for the production of the popular sacred cantata "Queen Esther".

Alfred Crew has purchased of Walter W. Needles his home on High street, near College avenue, for $1,100. Mr. Needles will move to Mr. Leonard Needles' house on the opposite side of the street.

Special and interestent meeting of the Woman's Relief Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Clark on High street on Tuesday evening next at 7.30 o'clock. All members and those interested in the work of the society are cordially invited to be present.

The heaviest part of the tomato season in Kent and Queen Annes is about over. The season has been short and the yield in the majority of cases poor on account of the drought and hot weather.

Messrs. Betts & Boice imported a large number of workmen this week, and they are hoping to have the new Fairlee road completed as far as Fanuels branch by the middle or latter part of October.

The clothing and gents' furnishing store of Brown Bros. will be closed Monday and Tuesday of next week on account of the Jewish Holiday. The store will be open for business at six o'clock on Tuesday evening.

Happy J., Biggs up, won the 2.21 pace at Nazareth, Pa., on Thursday in straight heats, time 2.15¼. Twinkle March, George Sutton up, won fourth money in the same race. Fi Fi, Peacock up, was distanced in the 2.10 pace, the fastest time of which was 2.09¼.

That fellow in Delaware who predicted an early fall ought to be mobbed. He is the same chap who predicted a hot dry summer, and it would be bad business for him ever to show up in Kent county and make himself known to the populace.

Mr. Randolph Waddell has started an automobile route from Easton to Centreville to connect with his father's route from Chestertown to Centreville. The routes will connect on schedule time, and Mr. Randolph Waddell will be located in Easton.

Mr. Charles P. Hodgkins has sold to his brother, Mr. Harry Hodgkins, the fine white milch cow which he advertised in the TRANSCRIPT. Mr. Hodgkin had a number of offers to sell but finally sold her to his brother who will take her to his place in Queen Annes.

Mr. W. Holt Woodall's Twinkle March, driven by George Sutton, took third money in the 2.25 pace at the Wilmington Fair on Friday last, winning the third heat in 2.20½, slow time for the pacers. Twinkle March has been earning his oats during the season.

Many people from the town and county overlooked the fact on Saturday that the banks were closed in honor of Defenders' Day, and there were quite a few illustrations of what a useful thing a bank is to a community, because of the numerous checks to be cashed.

A pair of escaped convicts, Nickerson and Dashields by name, are supposed to be the parties who have been committing the numerous robberies in and aroun1 Galena. These men escaped from New Castle county, Del., jail sometime ago, and it is believed they have a hiding place in the forest.

Star Bingen, the fine stallion owned by former Sheriff Wm. H. McKee, has a number of fine colts in this county and throughout the shore. Messrs. Robert Moffett and Robert J. McWhorter each own a promising colt, and one of his colts captured first prize at Easton fair. Star Bingen will make a short fall season at Radcliffe Park stables.

At the Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania Millers Association held last week in Atlantic City, Mr. P. Medford Brooks, the hustling proprietor of Radcliffe Mills, Chestertown, was elected vice-president of the association for the ensuing year. The Association includes the states of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia. We are quite sure that Mr. Brooks will wear the honor with credit to himself and the association.

Station Master Harry Jewell, of Lynch, has purchased from Messrs. Harry and Covey Casey, a desirable building lot just over the railroad, and the busy firm of Stavely & Bowers have begun for him the erection of a cosy new home. The County School Board has purchased a lot adjoining the Jewell lot and the new school building will be erected thereon by Messrs. Stavely & Bowers.

The Still Pond school building has been thoroughly overhauled and renovated during the vacation season. New steel ceilings have been put in and the interior has been otherwise improved until the building is one of the most comfortable in the county. If the School Board would use the funds at its command for the improvement of other schools in the county, there would be no excuse for burdening the tax-payers with a $54,000 indebtedness for fine school buildings, and no better educational advantages.

Biggs & Peacock, the local trainers, have had a most successful season this year. Dixie D., 2.13¼; Fi Fi, 2.13¼, both green, the former losing but one race out of eight and Fi Fi won every race in which she has started. Princess March 2.14¼, started six times and won five races. June Bug, 2.15¼, started three and won two firsts and one second money and is entered at Nazareth, Pa., this week and at Allentown, Pa., next week. The winnings of these four horses total up to about $3,500. A little hard luck has struck them now and three horses are laid up temporarily but will be around and in racing shape at Trenton and Mt. Holly, N. J. fairs.

Worton Items.

Rev. W. W. White preached to a good congregation on last Sunday afternoon. He preached on "Wells in the Desert."

Our school has reopened with good attendance and we are glad to have our same teachers returned to us for another year.

The Second Quarterly Conference of Fairlee charge will meet in Worton M. E. Church this Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Rev. W. W. White and wife were pleasantly entertained at tea on last Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper. The same couple also spent the day pleasantly at the home of Mr. J. H. Passwater on last Thursday.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

REV. R. H. ADAMS.

Rev. R. H. Adams, pastor of the M. E. Church, North East, and one of the best known and most popular ministers in the Wilmington Conference, died on Friday morning at the Methodist Hospital, Philadelphia, aged 70 years. He had served one full term as district superintendent of the Dover district and had also represented the conference in the General. Conference of the church. Dr. Adams is survived by his wife, two daughters and three sons. He had filled some of the most important charges in the conference, having been pastor at Middletown, Easton, St. Michaels and other places. He was appointed to the charge at North East, by Bishop Cranston at the last conference and entered upon his work there with his usual vigor, but in June he became ill and was not able to preach thereafter. Two weeks ago he went to the hospital in Philadelphia. He was a native of Beaver Dame, Queen Annes county, Md., and was educated at the West River Classical Institute After leaving school because of a weakness of the eyes he took up a business career until his eyes improved and then entered the ministry.

RICHARD T. EARLE.

Richard Tilghman Earle, 71 years of age, died Monday night at his home, 1431 Linden avenue, Baltimore, from apoplexy. About four weeks ago he was stricken, but he had greatly improved since that time, and it was thought he would regain his strength, until late Monday evening when he was again stricken. Mr. Earle was born in Centreville, Md. He was attending school in Virginia when the Civil War broke out and he was affected so deeply by the struggle that he suffered a physical breakdown and had never fully recovered up to the time of his death. For a number of years he made his home with his brother, Dr. S. T. Earle, at the Linden avenue address. The body was taken to Centreville Tuesday morning for burial. The pallbearers were Judge J. A. Pearce, C. M. Foreman, W. B. Carroll, J. T. Earle, R. T. Earle, S. F. Earle and E. F. Fedderman. Burial was in Centreville cemetery.

JOHN M. HERSCH.

Mr. John M. Hersch, one of the most prominent men in the Fifth District, died at his home in Rock Hall last Saturday. The deceased was for many years actively identified with the business and social life of Rock Hall, and he was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. He leaves the following children: Miss Mary, Clarence W. and Miss Genevieve Hersch and Mrs. Nettie Sutton, wife of Mr. Linwood Sutton. He is survived also by six sisters, namely: Mrs. Mary C. Linder, Mrs. Perry W. Middleton, Mrs. Abe Casey, Mrs. Sallie Legg, Mrs. Georgia Ayres and Mrs. Joseph Apsley. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning, from his late residence, conducted by the Rev. J. W. Prettyman. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of arrangements. The pall-bearers were seleted from the Odd Fellows Order of which the deceased was a member and were as follows: Joseph Ryan, A. A. Toulson, B. H. Colburn, Chas. E. Davis, Herman Jacobs and Wm. F. Downey.

GEORGE F. STRAUS.

The Kent county papers are asked to copy the following: "STRAUSS—On September 14, George F., in his sixty-seventh year, husband of the late Amelia Strauss. Funeral from his late residence, Wilkens avenue extended, Baltimore county, on Thursday and services took place at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 2.30 P. M. Interment St. Paul's cemetery." The deceased was at one time a resident of this county, having lived near Melitota.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

WILLIAMS—FULLER.

The Presbyterian Church, of Saranac Lake, N. Y., was the scene of a very pretty wedding, Tuesday afternoon September 1, when Miss Cora Evelyn Fuller, daughter of Rev. A. T. Fuller, became the bride of Mr. Seymour Williams, son of Richard Cadwalader Williams, of Chestertown, Md. The bride was gowned in white satin trimmed with shadow lace, the veil being of white tulle fastened with orange blossoms. She wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, sweet peas and maiden hair fern. The bride was accompanied by her sister, Miss Hazel Fuller, who was attired in an Empire gown, of taffeta chiffon trimmed with point lace and rose velvet and carried a bouquet of pink Killarneys and maiden hair fern. The groom was attended by Mr. Wm. G. Distin of Saranac Lake N. Y. Little Miss Emma Vail, the flower girl, was attired in pink and carried a basket of pink and white roses. The Misses M. Elizabeth and Alberta Williams, of New York city, sisters of the groom, Laura Sheldon of Syracuse and the Misses Ellen Ackerman, Iva Mosher and Augusta Heyl of New Berlin, acted as ribbon girls. The ushers were Messers. Henry Willard, Frank Arnold and Arthur Waite of New Berlin. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. A. T. Fuller, father of the bride. After an organ prelude, played by Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Costs effectively rendered a vocal solo, 'Oh Promise Me." A delightful reception followed the ceremony at the manse. Mrs. Williams attended the wedding. After the reception the bridal party motored to Sherburne where they left for the Massachusetts coast where they will spend their honeymoon. Mr. Williams is an architect in Saranac Lake and he and Mrs. Williams will make this their home for the present.

Our Merchants' Interests.

Go to W. S. & A. M. Culp for your lumber, cement and mill work.

Brown Bros. have a new and varied assortment of school suits and shoes for boys. They guarantee satisfaction and will take pleasure in showing you their assortment.

The Hub, Millington's big double stores is right on the job with their new and stylish assortment of fall and winter toggery for men, women and children. It will be worth your time to read their interesting adv. on page 2 and see what they are offering you.

Big Fall Opening in every department of Jefferson & Bro.'s big store. Goods prettier than ever, assortmets large, and the hats are simply bewitching. Don't wait. Go quick.

A representative of the well-known clothing house of Isaac Hamburger & Son, Baltimore, will be at Vansant & Newsome's big store on Friday and Saturday of next week, Sept. 25th and 26th, with a beautiful line of samples for fall and winter clothes. No need to introduce this firm to the Chestertown purchasing public. The character of their clothes and the cut of their garments are too well-known to need comment, and if Hamburger can't suit you to the king's taste, you are a hopeless case.

A. L. Sparks is on the job with a rich and beautiful line of fall and winter goods, and his millinery department, in charge of Miss Mollie O'Connor, is richer than ever. Go in and look the fine styles over. They can suit you in a pretty fall suit or a stylish fall hat.

The store of H. Sachs & Son will be closed Monday until 6 P. M. on account of the Jewish holidays. After that watch this hustling firm go after the trade with one of the best assortments of Fall and winter clothing and furnishings for men women and children they have ever carried, and remember too, that H. Sachs can give you as good a job in tailoring for ladies and men as you can find in any city, and his altering, cleaning and pressing can't be beat.

Read Clarence Thompson's adv. on the front page. He tells you something about the souvenir you will receive by purchasing from him. His shoes are dandies.

Blaustein's big store in Rock Hall will be closed Monday and Tuesday until Tuesday at 6 P. M. Then watch for his big fall and winter announcement in next week's TRANSCRIPT.

Mr. Nicholas Denny is at Brown Bros.' clothing store with a splendid line of fall and winter samples, and he will take your measure and guarantee you a perfect fit. Mr. Denny represents one of the best clothing houses in the city, and his line of samples is fine.

Still Pond Notes.

School opened Monday with a goodly attendance and with Miss Inez Russell and Miss Hallie Cooper as teachers. We wish them a successful year.

Miss Jennie Bowers is teaching at Betterton.

Mrs. Emory Grey and children, Calvin and Anna, of Brooklyn, are visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Walter.

The W. C. T. U. meets at the home of Mrs. Ella Pennington Saturday afternoon at half after two. All try to be present.

Summer is over and our Sunday evening services are open for all who wish to attend, and we will try to make them interesting.

Everyone who attended the Star-Spangled Banner Centennial in Baltimore are very enthusiastic about the decoration, and it was a great sight to see.

Miss Ethel Robinson and Mr. Nelson Hackett went to Chestertown to take the commercial course at the High School.

Mrs. John Hurlock and children, of Wilmington, spent sometime with her mother, Mrs. M. J. Howard.

MARRIED.
