Let's Fill The Cookie Jar

The cookie jar is a year-round institution, but when winter rolls around it's a good idea to keep it well stocked.

The holidays spell vacation for the younger set and college crowd and quick refreshments are indicated for impromptu gatherings. What better accompaniment for a steaming cup of cocoa or tea than homemade cookies. Here are two suggestions for filling the busy cookie jar.

Cherry Winks

¾ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
2 tablespoons milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
2¼ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped nutmeats
1 cup finely cut dates
1/3 cup finely cut maraschino cherries
2½ cups Corn Flakes
12 maraschino cherries, cut in quarters.

Blend shortening and sugar; add eggs and beat well. Stir in milk and vanilla. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt.

Add to shortening mixture together with nutmeats, dates and cut cherries. Mix well. Crush Corn Flakes into medium fine crumbs. Shape dough into balls, using 1 level tablespoon dough for each.

Roll balls in Corn Flakes crumbs and place on greased baking sheets. Top each cookie with a maraschino cherry. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 12 to 15 minutes or until lightly browned.

Yield: 4 dozen cookies, about 2 inches in diameter.

Bonnie Bran Drop Cookies

2 cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon allspice
¼ cup shortening
1 cups brown sugar, firmly packed
1 egg
¼ cup light corn syrup
1½ teaspoons vanilla
¼ cup milk
1½ cups All-Bran
cup chopped walnuts well blended.
2/3 cup moist mincemeat

Sift together flour, soda, salt and spices. Beat shortening until creamy, add sugar gradually, continue beating until fluffy and wellblended.

Add egg, corn syrup and vanilla; beat well. Stir in milk alternately with sifted dry ingredients. Fold in All-Bran, walnuts and mincemeat.

Drop by rounded teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheets. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 12 to 15 minutes.

Yield: 72 cookies, about 3 inches in diameter.

COOKING FUN

What will Christmas be like at your house? Will you have a pink tree with blue lights or an old fashioned Christmas-tree trimmed with cranberries and popcorn. Whatever your Christmas customs may be, one thing is sure, you will have many good things to eat.

To please your family and friends, one very delicious Christmas treat is our new recipe for Mincemeat Torte. If you open your presents on Christmas Eve as many families do, Christmas Day breakfast will be a late and leisurely one. Holiday Corn Meal Rolls or Cupid's Christmas Bread decorated with a sugar frosting and candied fruit give extra glamour to your breakfast menu.

There are many more taste tempting recipes, planned for you with the wish that your holiday season be a happy one.

Sugar Plum Dreams

1¼ cups sifted enriched flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening, soft
1 cup sugar
1 egg
¼ cup drained crushed pineapple
¼ cup mashed bananas
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
¼ cups Quaker or Mother's Oats (quick or old fashioned, uncooked)

Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt into bowl. Add shortening, sugar and egg; beat until smooth. Mix in remaining ingredients.

Drop by teaspoons two inches apart onto greased cooky sheet. Decorate with pieces of candied cherry, if desired. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 8 to 10 minutes. Makes 3 dozen cookies.

Mincemeat is made for a combination of spices, fruit and meats and symbolizes the gifts of the wise men to the Christ child. One old saying tells us this: "As many different kinds of mincemeat dishes you eat, so many happy months you shall have."

Mincemeat Torte

1 cup sifted enriched flour
teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg
¼ cup shortening, soft
1 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
¼ cup milk
1 egg
1 cup mincemeat
2 cup Quaker or Mother's Oats (quick or old fashioned, uncooked)

Sift together flour, soda, baking powder, salt and spices into bowl. Add remaining ingredients except rolled oats; beat until smooth. Fold in rolled oats. Bake in greased 7 x 11 - inch pan in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 35 to 40 minutes. Serve warm with whipped cream or orange hard sauce. Makes 12 servings.

Danish Wreaths

Cookies:

¾ cup butter or margarine
½ cup sugar
2¼ cups sifted enriched flour
¾ cup Quaker or Mother's Oats (quick or old fashioned, uncooked)
Grated rind of ½ orange

Glaze and Decoration:

1 egg white
2 tablespoons sugar
Candied fruit

Cream butter and sugar together thoroughly. Add remaining ingredients, mixing well. (Dough will be stiff so you may want to mix with hands.) Chill thoroughly. Break off small pieces of the dough working together with fingers until pliable.

Roll each piece on a floured board with fingers to form a stick about 6 inches long and ¼ inch thick. Shape each piece into a wreath, crossing ends to form a knot; place two inches apart on ungreased cooky sheet.

Beat egg white until stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in sugar. Brush on wreaths; decorate with candied fruit. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Makes 3 dozen.

Magic Almond Drops

1¼ cups sifted enriched flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup brown sugar
¾ cup shortening, soft
2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon almond flavoring
¼ cup milk
1½ cups Quaker or Mother's Oats (quick or old fashioned, uncooked)
Slivered almonds.

Sift together flour and salt into bowl; Add sugar, shortening, chocolate (cooled to lukewarm), flavorings and about half the milk. Beat until smooth. Blend in remaining milk and rolled oats. (Dough will be quite stiff.)

Shape dough in small balls; place on greased cooky sheet. Decorate each ball of dough with slivered almonds. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 3 dozen.

Holiday Corn Meal Rolls

2 packages granular or compressed yeast
½ cup lukewarm water
1 cup Quaker Enriched Corn Meal
1 cups milk
½ cup shortening
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, beaten
½ cup honey
5 cups sifted enriched flour
¼ cup candied cherries
¼ cup golden raisins
½ cup candied orange peel
¼ cup chopped nutmeats

Soften yeast in lukewarm water. Place corn meal, milk, shortening, sugar and salt on top of double boiler; bring to boil over direct heat, stirring constantly; place over boiling water and cook 10 minutes, stirring frequently.

Cool to lukewarm; add beaten eggs, honey and half of the flour; add softened yeast, fruits and nutmeats, mixing well. Add enough flour to make a soft dough.

Turn out on lightly floured board and knead until satiny, about 10 minutes. Round dough into a ball; place in greased bowl; cover and let rise in warm place until double in bulk (about 1 hour).

Punch down; cover and let rest 10 minutes. Shape dough into Parker House Rolls, bow knots or any desired shape; place on greased cooky sheets.

Let rise until double in bulk (about 30 minutes). Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 15 minutes or until golden brown. Makes 3 dozen rolls.

Flaming Cherry Pancakes

Flaming Cherry Sauce:

1 No. 2 can dark sweet cherries
¼ cup corn syrup
1 stick cinnamon
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 teaspoons cornstarch
1½ tablespoons cold water

Deluxe Pancakes:

2 cups Aunt Jemima Ready-Mix for Pancakes
2¼ cups milk
1 egg, beaten
2 tablespoons melted shortening

Lemon Flavoring and Sugar Cubes

To make the cherry sauce, drain the cherries. Place the juice in a saucepan and add corn syrup, cinnamon and lemon juice; simmer 10 minutes. Remove cinnamon. Mix cornstarch and water; slowly stir into hot cherry juice. Cook, stirring, constantly until it boils; add cherries and bring to boil again.

To make pancakes, add milk to pancake ready-mix and stir lightly. Fold in egg and shortening. Bake on hot, light greased griddle, turning only once.

Roll up and place on large platter or chafing dish; cover with hot cherry sauce. Dip sugar cubes into lemon flavoring and place at edge of cherry sauce. Light cubes with a match. When flames die out, serve immediately. Makes 8 servings.

WISE SHOPPING with Mme. Curie

IT IS CERTAINLY a blessing to have FEEN-A-MINT handy when a child is constipated and cranky. This mint-flavored chewing-gum laxative TASTES so good children never fuss about taking it. And it works comfortably and DEPENDABLY for them, just as it does for you! Doesn't many other laxatives start their "building" action TOO SOON, right in the stomach where food is being digested, long doses of which tend to upset flush-away foods you need for health and energy. But FEEN-A-MINT is different! Takes do recommended, it acts chiefly in the lower intestine where it SERVES most WASTE, not good food. You AVOID that upset-tired, droppy feeling—instead, you feel fine, full of energy! So get FEEN-A-MINT. 25c, 50c, or only 10c.

Well . . . it won't be long now . . . Christmas is almost here. Of course you have everything ready and set for the big day! If you haven't, and party-party holidays-treats are still a problem for that special day, here's our special suggestion. Simply get a good big can of CALUMET Baking Powder . . . bake your favorite recipe and worry no more. Because CALUMET is the best baking powder you can buy . . . it's truly dependable. You see . . . CALUMET insures baking success, CALUMET lifts and lightens twice. You can always depend on it. So for holiday baked treats and all year long, start right with the best you can buy—that's Calumet—and you'll finish light with the best you can bake.

Remember . . . hospitality can be so easy

Candy Trims Yule Tree

We could hardly feature Christmas here in America without the gay, glittering Christmas trees that are so much a part of our Yuletide festivities. These brightly decorated evergreens occupy a secure place among our Christmas traditions — and like most traditions, they have an interesting history.

There are many legends about the beginnings of the Christmas tree. One old German tale suggests that St. Winfred was its originator. Another attributes to Martin Luther.

But to the best of our knowledge, the first Christmas trees appeared in Germany in the year 1605. The custom spread to England and with the early settlers to America.

Decorations, in the beginning, were largely home-made — brightly wrapped bits of candy or strings of popcorn or bright berries. Perhaps these ornaments weren't as resplendent as those today, but it was fun making them, and it is fun worth repeating in these modern times. Here are suggestions to add to your list of Christmas tree decorations to make.

Christmas Stars

¼ cup butter or margarine
½ pound marshmallows (about 2½ dozen)
5 cups Rice Krispies

Cook butter and marshmallows over boiling water until syrupy, stirring frequently. Measure Rice Krispies into greased large bowl and pour on marshmallow mixture, stirring briskly.

Stars: Press into greased shallow pan and cut in star shapes with cookie cutter. Decorate with colored sugar.

BALLS: Shape warm mixture quickly into any size balls desired, and wrap in bright cellophane or foil.

TSU TO SPONSOR SERVICE FOR WOMEN

HOUSTON, Tex. (ANP) — The Home Economics Division of Texas Southern university is sponsoring a new type of service program for women of Houston, Dec. 17-18 at Fairchild building.

The two-day series will offer suggestions on how to make candy, bake cookies and cakes, learn inexpensive ways of wrapping gifts and decorating the Christmas tree, according to Mrs. Jayne Robinson, faculty member.

"MY FAMILY GREW UP ON "Bond Bread"

Says: Mrs. Francis Yancey 719 N. Carrollton Ave., Baltimore, Md.

"BOND BREAD's been the favorite in my house as long as I can remember. My two boys thrived on it as little tots . . . and they're still growing great. We all agree that BOND BREAD's flavor can't be beat!"

Meet Sol Lichter, Mrs. Yancey's grocer, whose store is at 640 N. Carrollton Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland.

Mr. Lichter says: "It's always a pleasure to serve Bond Bread to my customers. Then I know they'll be satisfied . . . and come back for more."
