ABE MANLEY, BASEBALL FOUNDER, BURIED

Eagles Club Owner Discovered Stars

New Jersey Man Developed Doby, Irvin, Newk; Helped Form NNL

By SAMUEL HOSKINS

PHILADELPHIA — Funeral services for Abraham (Abe) Manley, former owner of the Newark Eagles baseball club and one-time official of the defunct Negro National League, were held here Saturday morning.

Mr. Manley, who died at the age of 67 following a prolonged illness, was the man who first brought to public attention such major league stars as Larry Doby, Monte Irvin and Don Newcombe, all former members of his Newark team. He was buried in Newark the same afternoon after high mass had been sung at St. Madeleine Sophie Catholic Church here.

Believed Recovering

Death occurred late Tuesday night, at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Cole, 450 W. Mt. Pleasant ave., Germantown.

His wife, Mrs. Effa Manley, who once was credited with being the only woman club president in baseball, said that when death struck, he was believed to be recovering from a recent operation. "He had been ill a long time, but we thought he was out of danger," she declared.

Mr. Manley, who was nicknamed "Cap" by Doby, was a native of Hartford, N.C. After leaving his hometown at an early age, he spent some time in Norfolk, Va., and later moved to Camden, N.J.

They Met In Stadium

Upon leaving Camden, he went to Brooklyn, N.Y. His wife recalls that it was baseball which brought them together, as they met first at Yankee Stadium, New York City, during the World Series of 1932. The next summer, June 15, 1933, they were married.

His career as baseball man covered the period between 1935 and 1948, a stretch in which Mr. Manley refers to as "13 turbulent years."

The year 1935 was when he purchased the Brooklyn Eagles, and 1948 marks the demise of the Newark Eagles. Mrs. Manley sums up those "turbulent years" like this:

Highlights Of Career

"Abe invested $100,000 in building the team. We made some of the money back during the war years, but dropped $22,000 in 1947 and another $18,000 in 1948."

Highlights of the Manleys' baseball career—for they were a team — were: (1) helping to organize the Negro National League; (2) never finishing a season out of the first division, and (3) the championship team of 1946.

Some of the players on this team were Doby, Irvin, Terrace McDuffie, Len Pearson, Len Hooker, Jimmy Wilkes, and Bob Wilson. Most of them are still in organized baseball.

"The thing that Abe was proudest of is the fact that most of our boys made good," Mrs. Manley said.

The Boys Like Us

She added: "I think the boys like us, too. We're the god parents of Doby's first baby."

Funeral mass was at Saint Madeleine Sophie Catholic church, Germantown. Father Laughlon was in charge. He was assisted by two other priests. Burial was in Fairmount cemetery, Newark, with arrangements by the Walter-Becket funeral home of Philadelphia.

In addition to Mrs. Manley and members of her family, rites were attended by a sister, Mrs. Ruth Cheyney; 16 nieces and nephews, Percy Simons, a close friend; Elijah Collins, Lee Harmon, all of Norfolk.

Other survivors include Mrs. Elizabeth Russell, sister, and Nathaniel Manley, brother.

Major League Stars At Manley Funeral

Larry Doby, left, of the Cleveland Indians, and Monte Irvin, right, of the New York Giants, served as pallbearers at the funeral services of Abe Manley, ex-Newark Eagles baseball owner, held Saturday morning in Philadelphia. Mr. Manley, who died last Tuesday, was the man who developed Doby, Irvin and Don Newcombe, Brooklyn Dodgers' pitcher, when they were members of the Negro National League team which he owned jointly with his wife, Effa.

Sugar Ray Says One More Fight Ends Career

NEW YORK (ANP) — Sugar Ray Robinson, in Boston for an engagement in a night club, said Saturday, that "win or lose" he would retire from boxing after defending his middleweight title against Randy Turpin of London in either that city or Dublin next June.

"I want to cross the ocean again to fight Turpin once more and then call it quits," Robinson said. "The English people have been wonderful to me and I want to stage my rubber match with Turpin in their back yard," the champ explained.

Misunderstanding

Only the day before, Chairman Robert K. Christenberry of the New York State athletic commission had "vacated" Robinson's title. This was due to a misunderstanding, Robinson declared.

"I'm convinced I can't give my best in the ring much longer," Robinson said. "Nowadays I have to force myself to do the things the ring I once did by instinct."

A defense of the title as late as June, 15 months since his last title risking, will get Ray Robinson back into good standing with the New York State Athletic Commission, the chairman declared.

What the chairman wants of Sugar by Dec. 19 is a signed agreement for the fight. And, if he gets it, the vacating of Robinson's title, in force since early May, will be lifted.

All this is the result of the fact that the commission received a letter from George Gainford, Robinson's manager, stating he had "almost closed the bout in which Ray is to put his crown on the line against Randy Turpin June 1 or June 9."

Meanwhile, Robinson continues his dance career in the Boston nitery. Of Turpin Robinson said:

"I've been offered bouts for the title with Bobo Olsen and France's Charles Humez in New York and Paris, but I consider Turpin much more deserving."

Bell, Ellis On Players' All-American

CHICAGO (ANP) — End Ed Bell of Pennsylvania and halfback James Ellis of Ohio State were named to the 1s team on defense for the "Players' All-America," it was announced Sunday by the Chicago Tribune, sponsors of a poll among college football stars.

End Lowell Perry of Michigan and tackle Bob Evans of Pennsylvania were given honorable mention.

On this All-America squad are players voted best by their opponents. A total of 17,385 players cast their ballots. Seniors honored by the players usually form the core of the College All-Star team in the annual All-Star football game.

Bell, who is a senior, will be eligible to play in this game. Ellis, a junior, is a repeater from last year.

In Memoriam

BEASLEY — In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, ELLA MAE BEASLEY, who departed this life, December 13, 1949.

No one knows how much we miss you.

No one knows the bitter pain We have suffered since we lost you.

Life has never been the same. In our hearts your memory lingers Sweetly, tender, fond and true. There is not a day, dear mother, That we do not think of you.

DEVOTED FAMILY.

BROWN — In loving memory of my dear husband, and our father, HYRMAN, who passed away, December 12, 1947.

When the evening shades are fallen low,

I am sitting all alone;

In my heart there comes a longing, If you only could come home.

Oft and oft my thoughts do wander, To your grave so far away,

Where I laid you, Dearest husband and father, Five years ago today.

Loving wife BERNICE.

Daughters, ALCATHERINE MARGARET.

BROWN — In loving memory of my beloved husband, WILLIAM, who departed this life, December 17, 1950.

His memory is as dear today, As in the hour he passed away.

Devoted wife, REV. HELEN BROWN AND FAMILY.

DOCKERY — In loving memory of my dear husband and father GARFIELD, who passed away, December 17th.

Now years have passed since that sad day;

The one I loved was called away, God took him home.

It was His will.

But in my heart, he lives still.

Wife, ORA; DAUGHTERS, MILDRED, MAE, VIRGINIA, IVAUN, HAZEL.

MANNING — In loving memory of our dear son, brother and grandson, JOHN W. MANNING Who passed away December 16, 1951.

The days seem long since you have gone,

To a rich and happier place.

Through tears we see your smiling face.

In sorrow, we carry on.

And tho' a year has passed and gone,

And we no longer hear your song We feel that thou art still with us. Telling us to have no fear.

So on this day we write of you. This simple Eulogy.

With heavy hearts we pray that We will meet in eternity.

MOTHER, DADDY AND SISTER

We saw you fading like a flower, But could not make you stay. We nursed you with a tender kindness

Until God called you away.

Oh, darling, dear we loved you, And our hearts ache for you still, Forgotten by some others, But by us you never will.

LOVING GRANDMOTHER, HENRIETTA WILLIAMS AND COLEMAN

Cards of Thanks

COLLEY — I wish to express my sincere gratitude to the friends and relatives for their kindness, sympathy, assistance given and floral offerings at the passing of my nephew, R. N. COLLEY.

Uncle, THOMAS MITCHELL.
