Millington Items.

Mr. Wm. Price, of Philadelphia, Pa., spent the week-end with his sister-in-law, Mrs. T. A. Godwin, near town.

Miss Willie Moffett had her Fall Opening of Millinery on Thursday, Oct. 1st.

Mrs. Frank York and two children, of Baltimore, were the guests this week of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Harris, who is quite sick at her home on South Crane street.

Mr. George Tonkin spent Friday of last week with relatives in Wilmington.

Miss Lidie D. Reynolds visited relatives and friends in Elkton, Md., last week.

Mr. John Culley, of near town, spent a couple of days this week with friends in Philadelphia and Wilmington.

Mrs. Rose Walls and son, Carter, were guests of friends in Chester, Pa., last week.

Miss Mary Numbers returned home on Tuesday, after spending several days in Baltimore and Washington.

Services to-morrow, Oct. 4th, at Asbury M. E. Church, will be as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, Rev. G. P. Smith; 2.30 P. M., Sunday School; 7.30 P. M., preaching by the pastor. Friday, 7.30 P. M., prayer meeting. All are requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dudley spent last Sunday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Dudley, Church Hill.

Mrs. F. E. Fitch and little son, Francis, Jr., are being entertained by her sister, Mrs. P. H. Wood, Jr., of Wilmington.

Miss Kathryn Sutherland returned last Saturday to her home in Baltimore, after spending sometime at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ahern.

Mrs. S. H. Stewart is the guest of her brother, Mr. W. F. Collins.

Kennedyville Items.

There was Quite a large and enthusiastic meeting of the friends and patrons of Kennedyville public school held in the school house on Friday last at 2 P. M. Prof. J. L. Smyth, superintendent of Schools for Kent County, was present and presided. He also gave a splendid outline of the school work, and spoke of the necessity of a new school house not only in Kennedyville but the other points, where they are seeking for them.

Rev. S. S. Hepbron was present and he also made an address on education, as also our genial friend, John Medders, who is working continuously for our school's best interests.

The decision of the meeting was not simply to work for our own school house, but to work for the whole number where ever needed, and they appeal to the voters of Kent county, regardless of politics or party feeling, to help in this struggle for school houses where ever needed. And to be thoroughly convinced that a new building, and different location, is needed here, one only has to visit the present structure and location, where they will find, but a short distance from the building, a ditch through which the refuse from the milk station and creamery house is supposed to pass, but in fact, a great deal of it is lying in this ditch all the time which creates an odor that is very offensive indeed.

Mr. Ellis, one of the workmen on the house of Mr. John McCabe, met with a painful accident on Saturday last, when one of the workmen on top of the building dropped his hatchet, striking Mr. Ellis in the face, cutting an ugly gash above his eye and another in the cheek, but at this time he is doing very well.

Another accident happened in the store of Mr. L. A. Pennington, when the registrars were sitting for registering the qualified voters. Mr. Bonwell, father of Mrs. Lula Dukes, who was to be registered, made a misstep and fell down the cellar way and was very much bruised, besides having one bone in his limb broken. We hope he may soon be fully recovered and able to go about again as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, of Coleman's Corner, with Dr. and Mrs. James W. Urie and family motored to Easton on Sunday last.

Miss Mabel Hague is spending some time in the city of Brotherly Love.

Mr. Wm. T. Baxter had the misfortune to lacerate his hand on Saturday, which has been giving him a great deal of trouble, but at this writting is much better.

Mrs. Hague and Miss Emma Shafer visited Fredericktown Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greenhawk spent the week-end with relatives in Wilmington, Delaware.

Rev. and Mrs. P. B. Stouffer are entertainiug her mother, aunt and sister from Philadelphia.

The Crescent Sewing Circle met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer on Wednesday last, and elected the following officers: President, Miss Emma Shafer; vice-president, Mrs. Ida Scotten; secretary, Mrs. John McCabe; treasurer, Mrs. Frank S. Cain. They will meet with Mrs. Cain at the parsonage Wednesday next at 2 P. M. Members and friends invited to meet with them.

The Daisy Emboridery Club will meet with Mrs. John Hessner on Thursday.

The horse, "Goliath", belonging to a company, was sold on Saturday last at 3 P. M. for the sum of $355, Edgar R. Pennington being the buyer.

Pomona Items.

Miss Belle Emory has returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Baker and daughter, Miss Lizzie, have returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Baker, Baltimore.

The social which was held last Saturday night in Mowbray Hall was fully enjoyed by all who attended, and quite a nice sum was realized.

There will be special services held at Bond and Mowbray Churches to-morrow, it being known as "The Day of Prayer." Everyone should attend some church.

Don't forget Bond festival next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Oct. 7th and 8th. All the delicacies of the season will be served.
