Dentist Gives Dope On Numbers Racket

Testimony At Florida Hearing Shocks Listeners

MIAMI, Fla. — A local dentist's testimony shocked Miami's law enforcement hearing Monday when he testified about the flourishing numbers racket and accused white racketeers of "bleeding" colored sections of the city.

Dr. G. G. Hawkins, a graduate of Florida A. and M. College, also told the city commission hearing that he could bet as much as $20 on a Cuban lottery number with as many as 20 operators.

The frank talking dentist startled spectators with his testimony which was especially bitter when he talked about how the money racketeers made on colored players was taken out of the colored sections.

"It goes out of the colored section and it stays out," he said.

Friday Pay Checks

"There are people who get their checks on Friday afternoon. They go to the bolita writer and then to the bar," the dentist told Hilton R. Carr, committee attorney.

"When the rent man comes around Saturday and when their children want food, they haven't any," he continued.

The dentist said anyone known to operators has no trouble in placing large bets, although he admitted the numbers operations are now on a sneak basis since the killing of a bolita king last Aug. 7.

"How many places could you telephone today to bet $10 or $20 on a number?" Carr asked.

From 12 To 20

"I imagine, the number of people who know me, I could call a dozen or 20 numbers," Dr. Hawkins declared.

Dr. Hawkins' testimony was backed up by a crime investigator, John R. Walsh, who produced figures to show that illegal gambling now is a $5,000,000 a year business in Dade county with three-fourths of it done in Miami.

A colored bartender, Edwin W. McKinney, also bolstered the dentist's revelations when he said he once bet $22-$23 weekly of his $40 a week salary on bolita.

Doesn't Play Now

As a city employee, he said, he bought tickets on the Cuban lottery on the ramp at the city incinerator. He declared he had stopped playing numbers now, however.

"I always lost. I never won," McKinney told the committee.

Another city employee, James Boswell, told the committee he even used to cash his check with a woman numbers seller on the city incinerator grounds.

Va. Lawyer's Case Continued

Pinch 2 Witnesses For Linwood Smith

RICHMOND

Two key witnesses who failed to appear Thursday at the disbarment hearing for Lynwood E. Smith, attorney, were arrested and released Friday in $500 bail.

They pair for whom Judge John L. Ingram issued an attachment (warrant) were Miles McCoy of 2309 E. Franklin st. and his sister, Miss Julia McCoy of 2109 E. Franklin st.

The disbarment hearing for the popular lawyer was continued until Jan. 5, when the two key witnesses failed to appear to testify in his behalf.

Defense Wants Witnesses

Judge Ingram ordered the continuance after Martin A. Martin, one of the attorneys defending Mr. Smith, said he felt the witnesses should be present.

Dapper as usual, in a grey double-breasted suit, white shirt and maroon tie, Smith sat expressionless throughout the brief hearing Thursday.

The hearing is the outgrowth of a complaint filed in Hustings Court by the third district committee of the Virginia State bar, which heard stimony from a northside woman, Mary Shaw of 2208 North ave.

Said Check Forged

Mrs. Shaw charged that Mr. Smith, without her knowledge or consent signed her name to a check for $475 and cashed the check at a local bank.

The check was drawn against a $1,500 fund set up on Oct. 15, 1951, for Mrs. Shaw's infant daughter, Jean.

The hearing began shortly after 2 p.m. as T. Gray Haddon, Commonwealth Attorney read the testimony Mrs. Shaw gave before the bar committee.

Court Clerk Testifies

Then defense attorneys Martin, and Colston Lewis called a character witnesses, Wilbur G. Griggs, clerk of the Circuit Court in Richmond.

Mr. Griggs, in answer to questions from Mr. Martin, said he had dealt with Mr. Smith on numerous occasions and always found him to be honest and reliable.

Later, Mr. Martin told the three-judge tribunal that he wanted to put Mr. Smith on the stand to tell his story. He said that Mr. Smith's testimony would be corroborated by that of Miles McCoy and Miss Julia McCoy who were not present.

At this point Judge Ingram ordered that the witnesses be arrested and held "without bail" until they appeared before him.

Unions Attack Bias At Hiring Gates

DETROIT — Detroit area regional directors of the UAW-CIO have disclosed that the union's recent four-pronged attack against discrimination at the hiring gate is beginning to meet with success. Three current developments reveal the UAW success in combating hiring discrimination by Detroit employers.

These developments are:

A letter to UAW-CIP President Walter P. Reuther, in which Governor G. Mennen Williams pledged himself to again introduce Fair Employment Practices legislation before the Michigan Legislature as to work for its passage.

Second, both Mayor Albert E. Cobo and Council President Louis C. Mirian have responded to the need for action on FEPC legislation. They assured Reuther that they are referring discriminatory hiring charges to the Detroit Interracial Commission for investigation.

Third, unions report increased hiring of colored women since the launching of the current UAW-CIO drive against discriminatory hiring practices.

Colored Community In Mo. Approved As 4th Class City

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (ANP)—Amandus Brackman, judge of Circuit Court, last week reversed a ruling of a County court and approved the incorporation of the all colored community of Kinloch as a fourth class city.

The old St. Louis County Court had ordered Kinloch disincorporated in June 1949, but Kinloch appealed to the Circuit Court. In his ruling last week, Judge Brackman said there was insufficient proof to show the 1,814 signatures on a petition for disincorporation was a sufficient number under the law.

Name Police Captain In NY

Also Make Doctor A Police Surgeon

NEW YORK (ANP) — Two outstanding men last week were appointed to important positions with the police department here. The men and their new appointments are Dr. Robert S. Wilkinson, 53, police surgeon, and George Henry Redding, 52, police captain.

Born in Orangeburg, S. C., Dr. Wilkinson is a graduate of Dartmouth college and the Harvard medical school. He is the son of the late Robert S. Wilkinson, former president of South Carolina State College.

A veteran of some 25 years on the police force, the only Negro named captain is the brother of the late Wesley Redding, a former detective in the police department.

The newly-appointed surgeon served his internship at Harlem hospital from 1927 to 1929 and since had served with the hospital in the department of surgery.

He is visiting surgeon at Harlem hospital and attending surgeon at Mount Morris Park hospital. From 1940 to 1948, he served as consulting surgeon of the Harlem Valley State hospital, Wingdale, N.Y.

Dr. Wilkinson was a major in the Army Medical corps during World War II and is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons. He is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic fraternity, Elks, NAACP, Odd Fellows, Omega Psi Phi, an Episcopalian Church and is an Independent Democrat.

Both Dr. Wilkinson and Capt. Redding will earn $6,800.

Toll Rises Across Nation As Winter Fires Claim Lives Of Seven More Kids

Latest Victims Lived In Chicago, Tarboro And Little Rock; 3 Lucky Tots Were Saved

CHICAGO (ANP) — Fire continued along its blazing path last week and left in its wake the charred bodies of seven small children in three cities throughout the nation.

The latest victims of winter's most unwelcome aspect were three tots in Chicago, four in Little Rock, Ark., and there in Tarboro, N.C. left homeless.

Here in Chicago three sons of Mrs. Ellen Sullivan, 23, were killed when fire swept their one story frame home after an oil stove exploded. Firemen found the bodies of Jerome, 3, and Duke and Dudley, one-year-old twins, in the ruins.

2 Children Saved

Mrs. Sullivan said she awoke to find the building afire but managed to save two other children, Sheila, 4 and Silvia, 2. She suffered burns on the shoulders and was taken to a nearby hospital for treatment.

Damage to the home was estimated at $5,000 by a fire chief.

In Little Rock, four children, ranging in age from 9 months to 4 years, were burned to death in a fire that leveled a two-room shanty on the County.

Children Named

They were Bob Louis Carter, 8 months; Tommy Lee Carter, 2; Jean Carter 3, and Billie Jean Carter, 4.

The mother, Mrs. Fleeta Mae Carter, who lived alone with the four tots was not at home when the fire broke out. She arrived on the scene while the bodies were being removed.

The nearest house to the scene of the tragedy is about a block away. Firemen arrived at the fire, but were too late to control the flame.

Three Rescued

Three children in Tarboro were more fortunate than those in the other two cities. In that city, three youngsters were rescued from a flaming death in their home.

The tots are Arabel Perry, 3; Eddie Perry, 5, and a 6-month-old Perry baby.

Arabel was saved by a colored filling station operator who was attracted by the blaze, and the screams of the child. He is Walter Youngstone.

The other two Perry tots had been removed from the house earlier by two white workmen, G. T. Thorne and Cotton Guill, rescued them two minutes after the fire started. They did not see Arabel who was in another part of the house.

Liberian Official Visits New Orleans And Likes It

NEW ORLEANS (ANP) — Dr. Gabriel L. Dennis, Liberia's suave and erudite secretary of state, left here last week by plane for New York City fully convinced that this "Queen City of the South" is the most hospitable metropolis he has ever visited.

Dr. Dennis, who is chairman of the Liberian delegation to the United States in New York, came here on a private visit to confer with Dr. J. A. Hardin, Liberian counsel in New Orleans.

The robust bespectacled statesman threw himself wide open at a press conference in the home of Dr. Hardin, with no questions being answered "off the record."

Colored and white newsmen, the latter well represented, established a precedent here by taking pictures of Dr. Dennis and surprisingly running them in all three of the dailies.

First, Liberia's romantic history was discussed. The visitor then explained how the government projects and fosters "African tribal tribal ways are built on the original "communism" in the sense of sharing, as were the medieval European "communes," so modern political communism can make "absolutely no headway" there."

Entertainment for the celebrity consisted of a tour of the city with police motorcycle escort, a luncheon by the executive committee of International House, a harbor trip aboard the Dock Board yacht Good Neighbor, and dinner aboard the national ocean liner Del Mar of the Mississippi Shipping company. On his arrival at Moisant Airport, Dr. Dennis was greeted by the French consul, Guy de Schompre, with whom he resided while here.

In Memoriam 1

A TRIBUTE TO
JOHN H. MURPHY SR.
Founder, Afro-American Newspapers
Dec. 25, 1940—April 5, 1922

Was it a dream and nothing more—but faith of John H. Murphy's in the value of straight thinking and hard work to help make the world a better place in which to live?

Was it a dream and nothing more—but faith in mankind and its willingness to fight to the finish for the things all free men hold dear?

Was it a dream and nothing more—but faith in the weekly newspaper as a potent weapon with which to fight for the rights of the people in city, state and nation?

We, the children of the late John H. Murphy, believe in and cherish the ideals for which he worked. We accept the challenge and hereby pledge our continued efforts to help make his dream come true.

—FRANCES L. MURPHY

ALSTON—In loving memory of our dear Mother and Wife, HILDA who passed away December 22, 1949.
God did not give this life to lose,
Nor send us death to kill.
But reached down in the valley
So, to lift you to the hill
Your loving HUSBAND AND CHILDREN

JOHNSON—In loving memory of our dear HERBERT R. JOHNSON who passed away one year ago, December 22, 1951.
Sad and sudden was the call
Which took our dear one away to all.
A bitter grief and a shock severe
It was to part with one so dear
We often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died
To think you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best
Oh God grant you eternal rest.
