Lambda Kappa Mu Plans Luncheon

BROOKLYN, N.Y. — Lambda Kappa Mu sorority, a national organization of business and professional women, is working on final plans for their Founder's Day luncheon at the Brass Rail, 100 Park avenue, January 17.

The Metropolitan chapters in New York and New Jersey, hostesses, will have as their guest speaker, Dr. George N. Schuster, president of Hunter College, who will speak on "Moral and Spiritual Values in the Present World Crisis."

COED VISITS MOTHER

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Miss Jeanette Bowser student at Howard University, is home for the holidays visiting her mother, Mrs. B. L. Bowser.

ENROLL NOW!!
SECURE YOUR FUTURE
Be A Qualified
BEAUTICIAN IN 7 MONTHS
Use Apex's Easy Payment Plan
For Information Write or Call
APEX SCHOOL of BEAUTY CULTURE
525 SO. BROAD ST.
PHILADELPHIA 47, PA.
Phone: PE. 5-6484

DO YOU WANT LONGER LOOKING HAIR?
STOP HAIR BREAKING OFF
Thousands of men and women report hair, dry, brittle, lifeless hair, dandruff, itchy scalp from external causes treating with olive oil. Guaranteed to please or money back.
Only 69c at druggists everywhere
SHIM HAIR & SCALP FORMULA
AT ALL GOOD DRUG STORES

CAPITAL Scrap Book

By VIVIAN TURNER

The Tropical Room of the Dunbar Hotel was the scene of a very pretty Testimonial Dinner last week when administrators, teachers, family members, students and friends paid tribute to Clarence O. Lewis, retiring Assistant Director of Evening and Summer Schools, Division 2.

Miss Annie Duncan, formerly the principal of Cardozo Evening School, now Assistant Principal of Spingarn High School, served as Toastmaster.

Other speakers, who elaborated upon the fine qualities and work of Mr. Lewis were: Edgar P. Westmoreland, Director of Vocational Education, Division 2; Charles C. Knight, Assistant Director of Summer and Evening Schools, Division 2; Dr. Harold A. Haynes, First Assistant Superintendent of Public Schools Division 2. Mrs. Margaret Brooks, a former pupil and Dr. G. C. Wilkinson, retired First Assistant Superintendent of Public Schools, Division 2.

Sponsored By Principals

A solo was sung by Miss Louise Beleno, a former Evening School pupil, followed by several other appropriate encores. Lawrence T. Burwell, the principal of Armstrong Evening High School presented Mr. Lewis with a contour chair as a gift from his many friends and co-workers. Mrs. Alice Cabell and her assistants served dinner.

The committee sponsoring the affair was composed of these Evening School Principals: Mrs. Esther Payton of Douglass Junior High School, Miss Dorothea Berry of Francis Junior High School, Mrs. Vivian T. Turner, of M. M. Washington Vocational High School, Lawrence T. Burwell of Armstrong High School, Roscoe C. Lewis of Phelps Vocational High School and Morse School, Mr. Randall Evans of Cardozo High School and S. A. Douglass of Randall Junior High School, who served as chairman of the group.

Law Fraternity Party

Bids are out for the gala affair of the Sigma Delta Tau Fraternity to be held on January 16th at the Lincoln Colonnade. It promises many thrills, exquisite music, pretty and winsome girls and a host of visitors, who will be in town for the inaugural events.

Carlisle Pratt is Chief Justice, William H. Thomas, Associate Justices, Russell Washington, Scribe, George Ross, Financial Scribe, Charles Tibbs, Marshall, Matthew I. Jefferson, Bailf; and Bookeer T. Smalley, Pontiff. The Social Committee includes Alfred T. Brown, Chairman; Theodore Dean, Matthew Jefferson, and Franklin H. Tinsley.

Mrs. Clark Feted

The Polyanneas Club of Washington, well known in former years for civic and community work met last week at the home of Miss Adelia Parks with Miss