Dr. Frank A. Manny, social educational expert and lecturer in Johns Hopkins University, is the guest of Prof. W. Raymond Moody. He addressed the Federated Club last evening.

Results of Athletic Sports.

The weather was too inclement on Friday for the country schools to attend the Rally. The athletic sports were held on the High school grounds, and every body had a rousing time. Preceding the various sports Assistant State Superintendent Purdum and Dr. Monohan, of the U. S. Department of Education, Made addresses:

The 11th grade Domestic Science class entertained the visitors, trustees and high school teachers at luncheon. These young ladies and Miss Copper were royally complimented.

To Kennedville went the blue ribbon for the spelling contest open to all pupils from the 7th to the 11th grades, inclusive.

Martha Walls, of the 7th grade, at Kennedyville, had the honor to stand up until she was alone. We congratulate Miss Martha.

Equally as interesting was the spelling bee for the 6th grade down. There were five left standing after the allotment of words was exhausted. They were Helen Simpers, Virginia Parks, Travis Bolin, Helen Hall, of the Chestertown High School, and Mildred Newton, of Worton. To each of these we also extend our congratulations.

As many of the sports as possible were run off at the school grounds. Considering the weater and mud, although no records were mada, the boys did very well. The following won 1st and 2nd prizes:

One Woman To Another

"Say, Belle, if it hadn't been for this telephone of mine, I wouldn't have been able to go with you to the show tonight. When you called up this morning, I was very much in doubt. Same old excuse--nothing to wear.

"But I called up my dressmaker, and made her promise to finish that new gown by 4.30. Then I got Harry at the office and told him about the show, and he got the tickets for us.

"Oh, don't thank me--thank the fates that you and I have telephone service."
