OUR DEATH RE

(Other deaths on

MRS. ANN ELIZABE

Mrs. Ann Elizabeth our oldest and most prom died at her home, on F Saturday morning, aged immediate cause of death tion of the throat, though the of age had their effect. The was a daughter of the late Pa Wethered, and had been one of most highly esteemed residents many years. She is survived by two children, Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., member of the State Tax Commission, and a member of the local bar, and Miss Rebecca Wickes. Funeral services were held from her late residence on Front street on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. Henry B. Martin, of Emmanuel P. E. Church. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. William Janvier, Curtis E. Crane, L. W. Davis, E. F. Perkins, Alan A. Harris and H. Clay Brown. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Maintenance Fund.—The Modern Woodmen of America has a sanitorium for the free treatment of any of its members affected with tuberculosis. This sanitorium has attached to it 1000 acres of land, and it requires a great amount of money to maintain it each year. In order to meet the cost of maintenance the Head Camp at its last convention in Toledo, Ohio, ordered a monthly assessment of 5 cents upon each member. The assessment is to be paid every month with the regular monthly dues, and no one should quibble about paying such a small sum for such a great blessing to thousands of members of one of the best orders in existence. The clerk's report for September was not accepted by the Head Clerk because he failed to remit the assessment for the sanitorium fund, showing that it is necessary for every member to pay each month.

The Town Relief Society will serve luncheon from 12 to 2 and supper from 5 to 8 P. M. in the Eliason Building on High street on election day, next Tuesday.
