PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Mrs. J. Frank Davis, of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. J. W. Flesh, of Piqua, Ohio, have been guests of their sister, Mrs. Wm. F. Russell, during the week.

Mr. Rogers Sappington, of Baltimore, spent last week with his mother, Mrs. J. B. Sappington.

Mr. Legg, of Trappe, Talbot county, formerly station master at the Pennsylvania depot here, has been in Chestertown during the week.

Miss Minerva Taylor, of Baltimore, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, in Queen Annes.

Mr. Metcalfe, the popular grain buyer, who was operated upon for appendicitis in Baltimore, last week, is still quite ill. A second operation was necessary on Tuesday, and his many friends in Kent and Queen Annes are very anxious about him.

Miss Springer, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank B. Hines.

Misses Alice and Leonore Wilmer have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Mary B. Mann, in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter left last week for the mountains of Western Maryland. Mr. Klinefelter's health has not been good of late and he thought the mountain air would hasten his recuperation.

It is reported that one of Kent's popular teachers is to be married shortly. We refuse absolutely to divulge the name of the fortunate young lady. Guess, if you can, who it is.

Mrs. Munnikuysen, of Belair, is visiting friends here.

Mr. C. H Lickle, of the Washington College foot-ball squad, who had the misfortune to dislocate his hip in the Washington-Western Maryland game here last Saturday, is improving and able to be up and about, we are glad to report. He will not likely be able to play again this season.

Mr. J. A. Pearce Crisfield and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Norris, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with Mr. Crisfield's uncle, former Judge James A. Pearce.

Mr. and Mrs. Dungen, and Mr. and Mrs. Scarlet, of Philadelphia, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson over Sunday.

Mr. Raymond Joiner, of Northfield, Mass., is visiting relatives and friends here.

Messrs. Herman Blackway and Julian Coleman spent the past week in Baltimore.

Mr. Jas. L. Crouch, of Baltimore, has been visiting relatives and friends here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Anthony have returned from Virginia and are making their home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Anthony.

Mr. David B. McMenamin and family, who have been at Mt. Lake Park, throughout the summer, have taken a cottage at Aiken, S. C., for the winter months. Mr. McMenamin's many friends will be glad to learn that there has been a decided improvement in his health.

Mr. and Mrs. Horsey, of Camden, N. J., spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Betten, Front Street.

Mr. Harry R. Graham is spending the week in Baltimore on business.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wheatley and daughters, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with his uncle, Mr. W. A. Wheatley.

Messrs. T. Kemp Bordley and H. E. Lemen are in Baltimore this week attending a violin recital given by one of the most noted of the world's violinists.

Master James Kirby, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kirby, observed his birthday by giving a "theatre party" at the Lyceum to many of his young friends last week.

Master Joseph Jester, of Virginia, is a guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Anthony.

Miss Clara Coleman is a guest of friends in Baltimore and Annapolis.

Miss Elsie Whiteley observed her 18th birthday Sunday evening by giving a supper to a number of her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Smith, of Church Hill, spent Saturday and Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. F. S. Russell.

Mrs. Amos L. Woodruff, of Philadelphia, spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Jonathan Anthony.

Mrs. A. W. Carmine is spending the week with Philadelphia relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Carmine had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Swing, Mr. and Mrs. James Swing, Miss Margaret and Messrs. Mulford and Jas. Swing, Jr., of Ridgley and Mr. Cline Smith, of Washington College.

Mr. Charles Smith, who has been studing dentistry in Baltimore, is home to recuperate his health. Mr. Smith has been having a great deal of trouble with his eyes, due to studying.

Miss Helen Hynson is a guest of friends and relatives in Baltimore and elsewhere.

Addresses Federated Club.

Dr. Frank A. Manny, of Johns Hopkins University, delivered an interesting lecture Friday evening before the Federated Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard. About sixty were present, who enjoyed the occasion immensely.

Mr. Raymond Moody, of Chestertown, paid a fitting tribute to the speaker in his introductory remaks.

Dr. Manny understands social conditions throughout the state and country generally and told many interesting things that occurred in connection with his work.

Speaking of prisons, Dr. Manny said that he doubted that few people of this community realized the poor condition of Chestertown jail, which he visited Friday. He said that the place was very poorly ventilated and that the disinfectant spread about was hardly adequate.

The speaker also said that one prison he had visited on the Eastern Shore was a veritable hot-bed of tuberculosis and that he had been informed that many healthy negroes had been confined there one month and had contracted the dread disease in that time.

Speakers of this type open the eyes of people to their needs and we cannot have too many lecturers like Dr. Manny.

We are in receipt of a booklet explaining Dr. Manny's work in detail and, if space and time would permit, much of it, no doubt, would be of great interest to our readers.

One Woman To Another

"Say, Belle, if it hadn't been for this telephone of mine, I wouldn't have been able to go with you to the show tonight. When you called up this morning, I was very much in doubt. Same old excuse--nothing to wear.

"But I called up my dressmaker, and made her promise to finish that new gown by 4.30. Then I got Harry at the office and told him about the show, and he got the tickets for us.

"Oh, don't thank me--thank the fates that you and I have telephone service."
