EVEN

The boy—the unassuming boy. The unsuspecting, confiding, unsophisticated boy, is rapidly learning where to come and hand over his confidence and have his Suit or Overcoat made by dealers who have a reputation built by meritorious trading. The boy is learning his lesson by comparison with those WE'VE been serving, and they're pining their faith to people with a favorable history.

The more mature in years are not so susceptable, and having the advantage of past experiences, have learned our way of trading some time ago. This class have been coming to us from the beginning.

Our trade is increasing daily from the fact—we have shown a large percentage the superior qualties in fabrics and workmanship.

No large upkeep is the reason. Think this over and come see for yourselves.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,

Special Representative for Kent and Queen Annes Counties of the International Tailorng Co. of New York, Chicago and London,

(Nextto Robert McWhorter's)

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

FORD—HACKETT.

Miss Marian K. Hackett, one of the popular daughters of Mr. Willis K. Hackett, of Still Pond, and Mr. Clarence N. Ford, son of Mrs. Edward W. Ford, of the same town, were married in Baltimore, on Wednesday evening at six o'clock. The bride wore a becoming traveling suit of dark blue with hat and gloves to match. After a short wedding trip they will reside in Still Pond, reaching that town this evening. The sisters of the bride, Misses Hope and Alice Hackett, attended the ceremony.

BRICE—PARSONS.

Mr. John Brice, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brice, of near Rock Hall, and Miss Myrtle Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Parsons, were quietly married at Wesley Chapel M. P. parsonage on Monday evening by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Johnson. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Brice returned to the home of the bride's parents near Rock Hall, where a small reception was held.

SKIPPER—BRICE.

Miss Nannie Brice and Mr. Thomas Herbert Skipper were married Nov. 17, by Rev. Francis O. Brown in Savannah, Ga. Mr. and Mrs. Skipper have been enjoying a wedding tour through the south and they will return home this evening.

A Distressing Accident.

Rebecca Emily, the little three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hadaway, of near the Cliffs, was burned to death on Thursday afternoon about three o'clock. Mrs. Hadaway left her two children in the house while she went across the road for something. The screams of the youngest child attracted the mother, who had been gone less than five minutes, and rushing back she found Rebecca almost burned to a crisp, her clothing having caught fire from a small stove in the room against which the little girl is supposed to have run while playing. The news of the distressing accident spread like wild fire around the neighborhood and neighbors and friends rushed to Mrs. Hadaway's assistance. The little girl was an affectionate and attractive child, and the grief-stricken parents have the sympathy of a host of friends. Funeral services will be held this Saturday morning at 10.30 o'clock in Mowbray Chapel, conducted by Rev. O. B. Rice. Interment will be made in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

Fine Musical and Supper.

Those who were not able to attend the musical in Emmanuel Parish House Wednesday evening, missed a rare treat. The music, both vocal and instrumental, was of high class, and not at all below such as can be heard in the city at ten times the charge of admission. The tenor duett by Mr. Thomas Perkins and Mr. Mauzanie, was especially fine. The male quartette, by Messrs. Chapman, Perkins, Sparks and Thompson, brought loud and continued applause. Mr. Bordley's violin solos and Miss Cain's vocal solo, were encored, and also Miss Isabel Beck's. We are safe in saying that our home talent is something to be proud of and we are proud of it. Miss Mabel Toulson is second to none as an accompanist. Splendid refreshments were served. The supper on Thursday evening was a splendid success, and was served in excellent style. The menu consisted of fried oysters, chicken and potato salads, roast pig, fine ham, pickles, jellies, Maryland biscuits, rolls, coffee, chocolate, etc., and a fine sum was realized which will be devoted to charitable purposes.

The gunners who frequent the Susquehanna Flats are up in arms about the confusion of the gunning laws. Many of the gunners have all the licenses which they think is in accordance with the gunning laws and yet every once in a while some one is arrested by the Game Warden for violating the law. Gunners are very much incensed at such annoyances, and there may be some trouble if the law is not adjusted.
