An Important School Question

When the circuit court for Caroline county convenes next Monday a most important question to the school authorities and school patrons of the State will be decided.

Litigation over the closing of the public school at Furman's Grove, in the Ridgely election district, which has been going on since last September, is expected to reach a decisive phase at the sitting of the circuit court. Last year the School Board closed three schools in that section of the county, consolidating them with the Ridgely schools and providing wagons to carry the pupils to Ridgely, and antagonistic patrons sued out a mandamus to compel the board to reopen the schools.

Judges Constable, Adkins and Hopper granted the mandamus under a section of the code which requires Maryland school boards to keep open at least one white school in each school district, although the school consolidation act of 1904 gave discretionary authority to the boards to consolidate schools. The School Board took an appeal to the Court of Appeals, which was not decided until last June, when the court held that the State Board of Education is the governing authority in questions of school administration when strictly legal questions are not involved.

Before Judge Burke handed down the decision, however, the Legislature had amended the consolidation act so as to except from the discretionary power of school boards in consolidating schools, such as had an average yearly attendance of 12 or more pupils, which are exempted from consolidation with other schools except when the consent of 60 per cent. of the patrons is first obtained.

While the controversy has been passing through the court and the State Board of Education the Furman's Grove patrons employed a teacher themselves and reopened the school, with an attendance of 19 pupils. President Seward and Secretary Noble visited the school and sought to close it again, but were resisted by the patrons, and other efforts to force the pupils to go to Ridgely were nugatory.

To Solicit Belgian Relief.

A committee composed of Dr. James W. Cain, chairman; Judge James A. Pearce, Wm. W. Beck, Fred G. Usilton, treasurer; Wm. M Slay and Hope H. Barroll, to act in conjunction with the Maryland Committee has been organized for the purpose of soliciting funds for the relief of the war-stricken people of Belgian. No people of modern times have been forced to endure through the ravages of war what the Belgian people are now suffering. Their towns and villages have been destroyed, all industry has been paralyzed, homes burned, crops ruined, and the women and children are adrift, seeking food and shelter wherever it can be found. Here is a beautiful chance for the charity for which the people of America are noted to show itself. Let our people respond nobly. The above committee will be glad to receive any contribution, whether in money, food or clothing, and they have had printed placards designating depositories for the same. This is a noble work, and since Mr. L. Wethered Barroll has done so nobly in providing hundreds of unemployed Germans with employment, we urge all of our citizens to assist Dr. Cain and his able committee in providing means of relief for the stricken Belgians.

Farm Laborers.

L. Wethered Barroll, 609 Keyser Building, Baltimore, Md., will be in his office on November 30th and December 1st, for the purpose of distributing German farm laborers and household help to the people of this county. It is well worth the while of our farmers to call at his office on those days, pick out their men and bring them home with them.

These German men as well as the young boys are often valuable household servants and in case any one should desire to employ them to do the cooking and the housework, Mr. Barroll advises us that generally their services in this regard, are satisfactory. As farm laborers, these Germans are unexcelled. These laborers will take places on farms and as household help for from $8.00 to $10.00 per month during the winter months. Mr. Barroll makes no charge for his services and if anyone wishes to try out this kind of labor, we advise them to call on Mr. Barroll.
