VOL. LIII—NO. 28. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1914 $1.00 PER ANNUM

Third National Bank

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

REVENUE STAMPS ON NOTES

The new War Tax internal revenue law provides that on and after December, 1, 1914, every promissory note and every renewal thereof, shall have attached to it a revenue stamp or stamps of the value of 2c, for each $100 or fraction thereof. The person using or affixing the stamp must write or stamp thereon, the initials of his name, and the date upon which the same shall be attached or used.

EXAMPLE

A note for $100 or less will require a two-cent stamp.
A note for over $100 up to $200 will require four cents in stamps.
A note for over $200 up to $300 will require six cents in stamps. Each additional $100 or fraction thereof will require two cents, whatever the amount of the note.
Each note or check protested will be subject to a stamp tax of twenty-five cents, in addition to the regular protest fees.

IF YOU HAVE MONEY which is only paying you 4 per cent. and desire to invest in land which is a safe and sure investment with every prospect of increasing in value, you should send for my list of farms, containing the most desirable farms in the upper Eastern shore of Maryland. For 10 years I have had the privilege of offering for sale some of the best properties in the two counties and the below properties have no equal for their price.

15 Acres, three miles from Worton, near the water. three or four acres in woodland, 6-room dwelling for $1000. A great bargain.

I HAVE FOR SALE—Mrs. Pearl Boggs' home on Queen street, occupied by Mr. Samuel Hicks, of eight rooms. This section is daily improving, and this property can be bought at a bargain.

J. Waters Russell,
Chestertown, Md.

EVEN

The boy—the unassuming boy. The unsuspecting, confiding, unsophisticated boy, is rapidly learning where to come and hand over his confidence and have his Suit or Overcoat made by dealers who have a reputation built by meritorious trading. The boy is learning his lesson by comparison with those WE'VE been serving, and they're pining their faith to people with a favorable history.

The more mature in years are not so susceptable, and having the advantage of past experiences, have learned our way of trading some time ago. This class have been coming to us from the beginning.

Our trade is increasing daily from the fact—we have shown a large percentage the superior qualties in fabrics and workmanship.

No large upkeep is the reason. Think this over and come see for yourselves.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,
Special Representative for Kent and Queen Annes Counties of the Inernational Tailorng Co. of New York, Chicago and London,

OUR DEATH RECORD.

GEORGE BELL.

Mr. George Bell, one of the best-known and most prominent retired farmers, died at his home on Queen street on Friday night, aged 77 years. Mr. Bell had not been well for some months, but had been confined to his home only a short while, and only two days before he died he was removed to his fine new home which he had erected on Queen street. For some years the deceased was engaged in the hotel business in Relay, Baltimore county, after which he removed to Kent and engaged in farming on one of the finest farms in this section, which he sold several years ago to Mr. J. Walter Skirven. Mr. Bell was an ardent Democrat, and was a great admirer of the late United States Senator Arthur P. Gorman. During his younger days he was regarded as one of the Democratic leaders in his district, and always took an active interest in the councils of his party. He is survived by a widow, and one son, Mr. George Bell, and a daughter, Miss Julia. He also leaves two brothers, Messrs. James Bell, of near Fairlee, and John Bell, of Chestertown, and a sister, who resides with Mr. James Bell. Funeral services were held on Monday morning at 11 o'clock in St. Paul's Church, with which the deceased was identified during his residence on the farm, conducted by Rev. Mr. McGinness, assisted by Rev. Dr. T. Manley Sharpe, of Church Hill. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Tilden Brice, Walter Strong, Wm. G. Smyth, Page Gale, Charles H. Skirven and T. Barclay Kilbourn, vestrymen of the church. Undertaker J. E Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

JESSE COLEMAN.

Jesse, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus Coleman, died on Friday last, after a linger.ng illness of Brights disease. The young lad was a favorite with everybody in the community in which he lived, and his death is a severe shock to his parents, who have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement. Funeral services were held in Wesley Chapel M. P. Church on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Mr. Johnson. Interment was made in Wesley Chapel cemetery.

MRS. PANSY VANDEGRIFT.

Mrs. Pansy Vandegrift died at her residence at Hanesville Friday of Pneumonia, aged 28. Funeral was held at her home Sunday afternoon, interment in St. Paul's cemetery, Rev. Mr. Jester officiating. Three children, William, Richard and Harry survive her. The bearers were: Frank Holdson, William Rodney, Harry Thompson, C.R. Skirven, William Cooper, W. G. Willis. Undertaker C. L. Dodd in charge.

MRS. VIRGINIA E. JONES.

The funeral of Mrs. Virginia E. Jones, widow of Captain Daniel A. Jones, took place from her late residence in Cecilton, Md., Sunday afternoon and it was one of the largest attended funerals ever seen in that section. Mrs. Jones was a daughter of William G. Etherington, a prominent man of his day in that section. She was 76 years of age and left two sons, William G. Jones, of Cecilton, and Rev. Elmer E. Jones, of Rochestar, N. Y.

WILLIAM HERBERT DAVIS.

William Herbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Davis, died at the home of his parents, near Millington, Nov. 11, 1914, aged seven months. The bearers were four little boys, Roy King, Hiram, Ennis and Harry Walls. Interment in Chesterville cemetery, Rev. Miller officiating. J. L. Smith undertaker in charge.

Sleep dear Herbert, and take your rest;
God took you home. He thought it best;
It was hard, indeed, to part from thee,
But God's strong arm supported me.

Oh, pity me for weeping,
For sorrow shades my brow;
He has gone from me to heaven—
I have no baby now.

My heart has been crushed and wounded,
My life has been made lonely and sad,
Which only the presence of his dear face
Could ever again make glad.
