BALTIMORE PLANNING FOR MARCH 14:

Don Barksdale Day Gains Fans' Support

With sports fans throughout the city rallying in increasing numbers, plans for Don Barksdale Day were skyrocketing this week.

The rangy, shot-making pace-setter for the Baltimore Bullets professional basketball team will be honored at the Coliseum on Saturday, March 14, when the Bullets take on Fort Wayne as the local hardwood season draws to a close.

A wide variety of Baltimore merchants are contributing gifts for the Bullets' star performer, according to Charles Bridge, a co-sponsor of the event.

First Tan Player

The first colored player to be added to the roster of the local pro team, Barksdale has emerged as a leading scorer in the league, chalking up 22 points in the team's last outing against Syracuse.

Co-operating in the honor day for the city's only colored professional athlete will be more than a dozen night clubs and social clubs, sponsoring Cocktail-Concerts on Sunday, March 8.

Members of the clubs, which include the Ten Old Pals, the MUGS and the Terpsichoreans, and several other organizations as yet unnamed, will act as hosts.

Night Club Aid

Night clubs co-operating in the project include the Club Tijuana, Red Fox Room, the Casino, the Comedy Club, the Sphinx Club, the Olde Mill, Club 1017, and others.

Featured attractions at the clubs will render the concerts.

The event has been endorsed by the Frontiers Club and numerous other civic organizations and bids fair to become the largest event of its kind ever staged in Baltimore.

Plans are underway for a gala parade, featuring two bands, drum majorettes and a float bearing a life-sized image of the honoree.

Donors Of Gifts

Gifts have already been received from Roberta Jewelers, 27 W. Lexington st.; Kay's Jewelers, 7 W. Lexington; Leon Levi Jewelers, 318 W. Lexington st.; Rosenthal's Dept. Store, Eutaw and Saratoga sts.; Caplan's Jewelers, 207 W. Saratoga st.; Gage Clothiers, 5 N. Liberty st.; M. and F. Men's Store, Eutaw and Saratoga sts.; Lewis J. Smith Sporting Goods, 312 S. Conklin st.; Hyatt and Pinson Men's Shop, Baltimore st. and Hoskins pl.; Cushner's Men's Stor, 2122 W. Pratt st.

Clubs, businesses and organizations wishing to join the Barksdale Day celebration through participation or contributions are urged to contact Charles Bridge at Archway Motors, Frederick ave. and Catherine st.—Gilmor 1642.

K.C. Scores 305 Points In 3 Games

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Knoxville college's freshman cage team won three straight victories here last week and set a new K.C. scoring record.

The Bulldogs swamped Benedict College, 85-65; Johnson Bible College, 112-83, and Morristown N. and I., 108-58, for a three-game scoring average of 101 points and a season's per game point figure of 84.3.

In winning their 11th of 19 games played this season, the K.C. quint ran its total points to 1,603.

Fort Valley Stops Benedict Five, 65-60

FORT VALLEY, Ga. — Fort Valley State college's Wildcats defeated Benedict College Tigers, 65-60, in Griffin, Ga.

Fort Valley will play in the SIAC tournament, March 12-13, at Tuskegee, Ala.

UGA Sets 19 Golf Tournament Dates

Dr. Kenneth Brown Elected President; Donohue Speaks

WASHINGTON

Commissioner Joseph P. Donohue based his welcoming address to the delegates attending the seventh annual meeting of the United Golfers Association, held this week end at the Langston Golf Course Club house, on the total elimination of segregation in the nation's capitol.

Forty-one delegates representing the central state, southern mid-western and the eastern districts heard Mr. Donohue's speech.

The commissioner expressed hope that the legislative branch of our government would catch up with the executive branch in the total removing of segregation, in all of its forms, from our capital.

Brown Elected President

Dr. Kenneth Brown, president of the Royal Golf club of Washington, D.C., and president of the Eastern district, was elected to the office of general president of the UGA for 1953-54.

Other officers nominated were Mrs. Jeanette Worlds of Detroit, Mich., secretary; Mrs. Catherine Dixon of Chicago, financial secretary; Mrs. Helen Ellis of Cleveland, treasurer; Franklin Lett of Detroit, tournament director, and Mrs. Paris Brown of Washington, assistant tournament director.

The present presiding officers of the four districts are:

H. L. Boykins, Dallas, Texas, southern district; Nathaniel Jordan, central state district; William H. Seawright, mid-west district; and Doctor Brown, eastern district.

Tourney Dates Set

Following the installation of the new officers by Dr. George Adams, chairman of the nominating committee, the entire delegation gave a rising vote of appreciation to the retiring president of the association, A. D. V. Crosby, of Columbus, O., who presided over this year's meeting.

In other business during the two-day session was the setting up of this year's tournament dates, chief of which was the 1953 National Open which will be held in Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 24-28.

The delegates also selected Dallas, Texas as the site of the 1954 national open and also voted to hold the eighth annual meeting of the association in Flint, Mich., Feb. 27-28, 1954.

Banquet Held

The group was feted at a banquet by the Wake Robin Women's Golf club and the Royal Golf club on Saturday evening. Edgar G. Brown stressed the importance of total elimination of segregation in our nation's capital and throughout the country.

The top tournament events for the year are listed as follows:

May 23-24 — Mack McCullum Open Paramount, St. Louis, Mo.

June 27-28—Douglass Golf club, Indianapolis, Ind.

July 1-4—Southern Open, Atlanta, Ga.

Hampton Supreme In Ring Battles

Morgan's Brown, Eubanks Win Wrestling And Boxing Titles

By GEORGE LYLE JR.

LINCOLN U., Pa. — Lincoln University's grunt and groaners retained the wrestling title, and Hampton disposed of Howard and A. and T. as boxing rulers in the 17th annual CIAA boxing and wrestling tourney held here Friday and Saturday.

Lincoln led the qualifiers on the mat, with six men, headed by their two - time champion, Clay Carothers. All six won titles.

Pirates Win Two

Hampton, with seven men entered in the final round of the boxing, managed to wrest only two championships but piled up enough points to capture the crown.

In point score, the standings were, wrestling:

Lincoln 47, Howard 31, Hampton 26, Morgan 22, Va. State 15, St. Augustine 5, and Shaw, 2.

Boxing standings — Hampton 31, A. and T. 28, Howard 22, Morgan 11, Wilberforce — Salem Teachers, 3.

Carothers Retains Crown

Of the five defending champions in competition, four were able to remain king. Carothers of Lincoln won his third 147-pound crown, while Mittmen John Eubanks of Morgan, 132; Donald Quarles, 178, and Art Saturn, heavyweight, both of A. and T., retained their titles.

Eugene Thurman, 1953 115-pound king, was stopped by Bill Keenan of Hampton, in the opening round on the mat.

Roosevelt Brown, Morgan's great football player who recently signed with the New York Giants of the National Football League, gained the only pin of the finals when he tossed Joe Nicholson, of St. Augustine, in 15 seconds of the second fall.

Troy In Big Test As Pro

Mets A Spoiler In Holly Mims

WASHINGTON

The often discussed topic whether Willie Troy's buildup as a fighter has resulted from handpicked matches, will be decided in a 10-round middleweight fight, Wednesday night, March 4 at Uline Arena.

Walloping Willie, a spindly two-fisted boxer, who got his start in the District Golden Gloves' tourney, faces Holly Mims, a counter-punching demon. Troy will be shooting for his 20th straight victory as an undefeated pro, 13 bouts have been by the knockout route.

Mims, an in and out fighter because of managerial mixup, and the fact he has accepted numerous matches on short notice, doesn't have a comparable record. However, Mims' record shows that he has met a higher caliber of opponents than Troy.

Mims, A Spoiler

Mims is a known spoiler as evidenced in his two wins over Johnny (Honey Boy) Bratton, and a decision over Lester Felton. Mims' other claim to fame is the fact that he went 10 rounds with Sugar Ray Robinson, agd lost a decision.

On the other hand, Troy holds victories over Randy Sandy, Bobby Jones, Art Solo, and a list of fighters who are scarcely known to the sports followers. Whether Troy has gained enough experience to take Mims in now remains to be seen.

One thing sure, Troy cannot afford to miss Mims as much as he did against the weaving and bobbing Bobby Jones, recently, when he came up with an unpopular split decision.

Mims is sure to worry Troy, providing he is in as good condition as he claims to be. Mims is a crowding fighter, who can counter with amazing rapidity.

Winner To Meet Olson

The winner of the match likely will be given a chance at Carl (Bobo) Olson in the current middleweight elimination bout.

In a press luncheon last Thursday, Promoter Goldie Ahearn said that he had already offered Olson's matchmaker, Dewey Fragetta $7,500 to meet the winner here in late April or early May.

The proceeds from the contest, a benefit affair, will go toward the building fund of the St. Sophia's Church, a Greek Orthodox church here.

Smith Bulls Halt Winston Teachers

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Johnson C. Smith University's tournament - bound basketball team cooled the red - hot Rams of Winston-Salem Teachers College here Saturday night at the second Ward gym, 69-65.

It was the second time in three encounters this campaign that the Herd have taken the measure of Clarence Gaines' high-scoring charges, who finished the season atop the final standings in the CIAA basketball race with 12-4 record.

It was the Golden Bulls' 12th triumph in 19 engagements this year, and the sixth setback in 29 starts for Winston-Salem.

Although the game will not count against either side's conference record, both teams went all out to bag the win.

The clubs were never more than five points apart during the hectic struggle.

The Herd first gained the advantage in the opening period when they opened an 8-3 bulge, but Winston-Salem prevailed at the quarter by a 15-13 count.

The Smith quintet went ahead, 32-29, at the intermission.

There were six exchanges of the lead and 45-45, 47-47, and 49-49 deadlocks in the thrill-packed third stanza before Winfrresistible Johnson put Winston-Salem forged ahead, 53-51, a sensational side set at the third quarter's end.

Wells Clinches Game

Robert Wells, Bulls' brilliant first-year man from New York City, found the baskets with four timely set shots in the final chapter to keep Smith ahead. It was his 15-footer that sank the Rams' 67-65.

Willie Jones, with 17 points, was high man for the game. Johnson, with 14, Millard Harris with 13 and Marshall Emery with 11 were the Rams players in double figures. Mike Wade was good best for the victors with 12.

Hampton Trips Howard, 80-73

HAMPTON, Va.—Racing to a 40-25 halftime margin, Hampton cagers outlasted a belated Howard rally in the second half to down the Bisons, 80-73 last Saturday night on the Pirates' court.

Harold (Tree) Adams' 29-point effort for Hampton was the deciding margin of victory George Butler scored 19 points for the Bisons.

The victory was the finale for the Bisons, and gave them a final CIAA record of seven victories and 11 defeats.

CORRECTION

In the ad for Archway Ford in the AFRO on Feb. 28, Lester Hough was listed as the superintendent of the body and metal shop. Mr. Hough is the point shop foreman. The AFRO regrets the error.

Those Extra Three Pounds?

Manager Charley Dressen, left, and pitcher Bob Black Josh Roy Campanella about the mustache the catcher brought to the Brooklyn Dodgers' Vero Beach training camp last week. Cap, which weighed in at 203 pounds, three more than he was allowed in order to collect a wager of a new hat from vice president Buccy Bavasi. Dressen and Black chide Camp on the mustache, contending that's what made him except the 200 pounds that would have won the new hat for him.

Annual Army Boxing Tourney Is Under Way At Fort Meade

Fort Meade is now serving as host to the annual Second Army Boxing Tournament.

Fifty contestants from six installations are competing for qualifying positions to represent the Second Army in the All-Army Tourney.

Starting time tonight (Tuesday) and Thursday is 8 p.m. Ten weight classes are being represented.

Free Admission

No admission will be charged to fans attending the matches.

Last year's co-champs, Fort Lee and Fort Meade are top favorites to cop the team championship, with Camp Pickett playing the dark horse role.

Over the past four years Fort Meade has dominated the event by winning three undisputed team championships and tying Fort Lee last year for the title.

Two Champs Will Lead

Two present Second Army champs, Cpl. George Davis and Sgt. Fleming Butler, will lead the strong well-balanced Fort Meade aggregation. Davis is a former All-Army bantam weight champ, and Butler has gone as far as the All Army finals in the middleweight bracket.

Featured among Lee's eleven entrants are Pvt. Bill Patterson and Pvt. Carl Jordan. Patterson is a hard hitting middleweight, and a brother of the famed Floyd Patterson who won the Olympic lightheavy crown at Helsinki last year.

He is a leading contender for Second Army honors. Carl Jordan is a former Ohio AAU champ and has won six of 107 fights.

"Sleepers"

Among the "sleepers," Camp Pickett will enter a well-balanced team headed by Pvt. Bob Stevenson.

Stevenson is a well-known middleweight throughout the Washington area, and has defeated Meade's Second Army champ Fleming Butler on one occasion this year.

The Fort Eustis, Va. entry will make a big bang when Cpl. Zora Folley enters the ring. Folley is a classy heavyweight, and is the present All-Army Champion.

A Favorite

He's a strong favorite to win over Pvt. Warnell Lester of Meade, and Pvt. Thomas Jones of Fort Lee, a couple of tough heavies' Folley-recently won the 1953 MAISAC heavyweight title.

Pfc. William Finney, present All-Army middleweight champion, will head the Fort Knox Tanker's eight entries.

Pvt. Michael Maye will be another big asset to the Kentucky lads. He has won 55 fights without a loss and was the National AAU heavyweight champ back in 1951.

The remaining fighters have notable experience and may go a long way in the tournament.

No individual data has been received from the Camp Breckinridge entries but they too will participate for honors.
