Still Pond Notes.

A very unique Sunday school Christmas service took place in Still Pond M. E. Church on Wednesday evening, Dec. 30. It was known as an evening of Christmas surprises, in that each class took a part which ten other members of the school knew nothing of until rendered. The violin duet by Howard Harper and Laurence Krusen, and the Saunty Claus song rendered by Mrs. Taylor's class of boys revealed the musical talent of our growing youth. The church was beautifully decorated with Christmas trees, wreaths, etc. The treat consisted of unusually fine candy, daintily packed, and oranges. Thanks to the labors of Messrs. B. F. Harper and C. T. Norris, to whom was assigned the task of procuring the same. Never before did Still Pond Sunday school give so fine a Christmas entertainment at so little expenditure of labor and worry. The surprise feature is a splendid idea and will doubtless accomplish even better results if adopted in future years.

Our honored citizen, John N. Bennett, received a great surprise on Tuesday evening of this week, when his friends and neighbors, in a body half a hundred strong, marched in on him and taking possession of his home proceeded to make merry. It was the occasion of his fourtieth birthday. As a token of respect and esteem on the part of his numerous friends he was presented with a fine house jacket accompanied by a sincere wish that his years may be more than doubled and that his valuable services in the affairs of State, school and church may continue. Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Roseberry, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bonwill, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bonwill, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ricards, Rev. and Mrs. F. X. Moore; Messrs. A. J. Hackett, J. T. Baxter, B. F. Harper, Emory Bonwill; Mrs. Sarah Parrott, Mrs. Jarvis; Misses Emma Meeks, Lucille Parr, Inez Russell, Edna Bonwill and Hallie Cooper. The evening was spent in delightful social intercourses, accompanied with music, games, etc. The host and his accomplished wife proved their ability to provide for an emergency in the abundant supply of refreshments for all.
