AND

The smoke goes up the chimney just the same.

Every big tailor in America takes a crack at the International, but none can touch them in point of value.

It can't be done.

They quote the International prices, but they can't duplicate the styles, the fabrics and the workmanship that goes with our made-to-measure clothes.

Just now we're running a special sale on Suits and Overcoats—eighty-five good styles from last season, and quite a number from the new line at a saving to you of $2 to $6 on a suit or overcoat. Come see.

Rivals may talk big, run sales, cut prices and brag about their values, but you'll always notice that so far as we are concerned the smoke goes up the chimney just the same.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,

Special Representative for Kent and Queen Annes Counties of the International Tailoring Co. of New York, Chicago and London,

(Nextto Robert McWhorter's)

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

An Interesting Letter.

Mr. Robert B. Morse, chief engineer of the State Board of Health, has written to Hope H. Barroll, Esq., the following letter in reference to the new wells which have recently been sunk by the Water Board on the recently purchased McWhorter lots:

January 11, 1915.

MR. HOPE H. BARROLL,
Chestertown, Maryland.

DEAR SIR—Your letter of January 8 to the State Board of Health, regarding the new sources of the Chestertown water supply has been referred to me. I beg to say that we have taken most active interest in the Chestertown improvements. We have suggested no less than two locations for sinking new wells for the municipal supply. One of these locations was situated near the mill pond, northwest of the town, the other in an isolated location northeast of the community. We believe that either of these locations might have been somewhat preferable to the one finally chosen, as far as the quality of water to be obtained is concerned, but the Water Board, after investigation, found that the expense of delivering the water from wells at these places would be considerably greater, and desired that a permit be given to drive the wells on the Kent street lot.

This permission was given with the understanding that should the water not prove of absolutely safe, sanitary quality, some form of treatment would be required. This location, both before and during the process of driving the wells, was visited a number of times by my assistant engineers, and it is not believed that the water is of bad quality. One analysis has been made already, and as far as it is concerned, the water is entirely fit for use.

All except one of the wells are from 63 to 70 feet in depth, and that one is considerably deeper. Chestertown has had some rather unfortunate experiences with very deep artesian wells.

When the new water was first talked of, we gave some consideration of a site for wells on the hill near Washington College, but it was contended by the engineer whom the town employed, that a sufficien' supply could not be obtained on this high ground. Even if it could have been, the wells would have had to be driven to a greater depth than is necessary on the site chosen.

There are two things of which you may feel assured, and these are, first that we have been devoting a great deal of attention to the Chestertown situation. Second, that the water from the sources which the Water Board chose will have to be put in proper physical and sanitary condition before it is served to the citizens, if it is found not to be in such condition as procured from the wells.

Yours very truly,
ROBERT B. MORSE,
Chief Engineer.

WANTED—OLD FAMILY BIBLE.

I shall greatly appreciate it if any one can furnish me the information that will lead to the finding of an old family Bible which belonged to my grandmother. The Bible contains data that I am anxious to have. My grandmother before marriage was Miss Deborah Haddaway. She married my grandfather, W. H. Lambert, and after his death she married Washington Collins, Esq. They lived quite a number of years in Piney Neck, afterwards moving to Quaker Neck on the farm adjoining Mr. Thos. D. France's farm. Here Mr. Collins died. This Bible was among his effects which were sold after his death. Any information leading to the recovery of this Bible will be greatly appreciated. Address,

EDWARD LAMBERT,
