New Films Scheduled

'THUNDER IN THE EAST' SLATED FOR REGENT

A motion picture which combines throbbing, excitemen-filled drama and an unusually impressive cast is Paramount's "Thunder in the East," opening Thursday, at the Regent Theatre.

Set in the mystical Indian province of Ghandahar, "Thunder in the East" stars Alan Ladd, Charles Boyer, Deborah Kerr and Corinne Calvet.

This top-notch starring quartette plays its assorted roles against an atmosphere thick with intrigue and violence. Alan Ladd, in another two-fisted soldier of fortune role, arrives in the tiny Indian province with an airplane load of munitions. He tries to sell the shipment, of-death-dealing contraband to Ghandahar's Maharajah.

"ANGEL FACE" SLATED FOR MET SCREEN

"Angel Face," a tensely-told superbly-acted mystery melodrama, produced and directed for RKO Radio by Otto Preminger opens Thursday at the Met Theatre.

This film, presented by Howard Hughes, offers a full measure of thrills and supense, and stars Robert Mitchum and Jean Simmons.

The plot deals with the events that lead up to the murder of a wealthy man and his second wife; the trial of their daughter and her boy-friend who are suspected of having committed the murder; it ends in a shocking climax that leaves one shivering.

'THE PRESIDENT'S LADY' NEW ALBERT FEATURE

Ruth Attaway, distinguished colored actress, makes her screen debut in "The President's Lady," 20th Century-Fox's historical drama which comes to the New Albert Theatre Thursday, March 19th.

Susan Hayward and Charlton Heston are co-stars of the film drama. Also starred is Vera Francis, Hollywood's foremost colored model.

Miss Attaway went to Hollywood from New York where hse had been successful as a stage, radio and TV actress.

She is a graduate of the University of Illinois where she majored in sociology.

'JEOPARDY' SLATED FOR HARLEM SCREEN

One woman and two desperate men. Four hours between life and death. A life pitted against a life, depending upon a woman's decision—as time runs out.

These are the dramatic factors of "Jeopardy." M-G-M's emotionallay taut drama, starring Barbara Stanwyck Barry Sullivan and Ralph Meeker on the Harlem screen.

Miss Stanwyck plays one of her most dramatic roles as the young wife who seeks aid in saving her husband, pinned under a fallen fetty on a desolate Mexican beach. The husband is played by Barry Sullivan.

Barbara Stanwyck and Barry Sullivan star on the Harlem Theatre screen in "Jeopardy."

'President's Lady' At New Albert

Susan Hayward and Charlton Heston co-star in "The President's Lady." Twentieth Century-Fox's historical romantic drama coming to the New Albert Theatre on Thursday.

This story of the most slandered couple in American history, Rachel and Andrew Jackson, was taken from Irving Stone's best-selling book of the same title and has been given elaborate production by Producer Sol C. Siegel and Director Henry Levin.

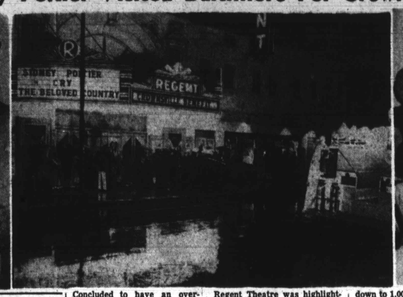
As Movie Star Sidney Poitier Visited Baltimore For Crownsville Benefit Show



Concluded to have an overwhelming success, the Crownsville Benefit showing of "Cry the Beloved Country" sponsored by the AFRO-American and Regent Theatre was highlighted by the appearance here of Sidney Poiter, co-star of the film. Despite the rain which held the premiere night crowd down to 1,000, many supporters of the project are still finding use for their tickets as the showing of the film continues through Wednesday. In the photos above a premiere-night couple enters the theatre at left. The center panel shows the marquee of the Regent on opening night, and, at right, Poitier, and Mrs. B. M. Phillips, co-sponsor of the benefit, help Crownsville patients with a jig-saw puzzle during the star's visit there.

Old Discovery

A Blend of the Choicest Straight Whiskies from the Three World-Famous Whiskey States

A Story of the Old South... and Old Discovery

...And it came to pass that a gentleman from Maryland and a Colonel from Kentucky, both distillers and warm friends, fell out over the merits of their whiskies. Hot words followed and they agreed to settle their difference with duelling pistols.

It is said that the duel was averted at the last moment when a mutual friend appeared with a flask containing a blend of the whiskey produced by the gentleman from Maryland mixed with the best from the Kentucky Colonel's cellar, plus whiskey from the mutual friend's own Pennsylvania stock. Today, this blending of the finest whiskies from Kentucky, Maryland and Pennsylvania achieves a smoother, more delightful drink.
