AND

The smoke goes up the chimney just the same.

Every big tailor in America takes a crack at the International, but none can touch them in point of value.

It can't be done.

They quote the International prices, but they can't duplicate the styles, the fabrics and the workmanship that goes with our made-to-measure clothes.

Just now we're running a special sale on Suits and Overcoats—eighty-five good styles from last season, and quite a number from the new line at a saving to you of $2 to $6 on a suit or overcoat. Come see.

Rivals may talk big, run sales, cut prices and brag about their values, but you'll always notice that so far as we are concerned the smoke goes up the chimney just the same.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,

Special Representative for Kent and Queen Annes Counties of the International Tailoring Co. of New York, Chicago and London,

(Next to Robert McWhorter's)

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

ALDRIDGE—WALBERT.

The marriage of Miss Grace Marian Walbert to Mr. J. Kennard Aldridge was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Israel F. Walbert, near Lankford, on Saturday last, at one o'clock. Owing to the death of the bride's father recently, the wedding was quiet, only the immediate families witnessing the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. J. S. Bowers, of Baltimore, uncle of the groom. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with evergreen and lighted candles. The bride wore a handsome costume of wistaria silk bengaline trimmed in white lace. There were no attendants. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Aldridge left via Tolchester for a short wedding tour. They were entertained at dinner on Monday evening at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Wm. R. Aldridge. They will be at home to their friends on the Aldridge-George farm after February 15th. The bride was the recipient of numerous costly and valuable presents.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends the ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. H. B. Jester, pastor of St. James M. P. Church. The bride was becomingly attired in a neat traveling suit of blue with hat and gloves to match. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served, after which Mr and Mrs. Morris left on the afternoon train for a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside on the Eliason farm near Lankford, where the groom is engaged in farming. The bride received many valuable and useful presents.

WANTED—OLD FAMILY BIBLE.

I shall greatly appreciate it if any one can furnish me the information that will lead to the finding of an old family Bible which belonged to my grandmother. The Bible contains data that I am anxious to have. My grandmother before marriage was Miss Deborah Haddaway. She married my grandfather, W. H. Lambert, and after his death she married Washington Collins, Esq. They lived quite a number of years in Piney Neck, afterwards moving to Quaker Neck on the farm adjoining Mr. Thos. D. France's farm. Here Mr. Collins died. This Bible was among his effects which were sold after his death. Any information leading to the recovery of this Bible will be greatly appreciated. Address,

Mr. E. Rumsey Anthony has one in his large irrigating system. But we have all kinds and sizes. Don't send out to some mail order house for an engine that has little or no weight, no stability to it. We can give you more engine for almost the same money. Our NEW HOLLAND Hopper Cooled is absolutely guaranteed in every way even against freezing. If the water freezes and injures the engine in any way, they make your loss good or give you a new engine. Four H. P. New Holland Hopper Cooled for $105.00. Come and see this Engine.
