Millington Items.

In the advertisement of the demonstration at Paul Comegys' store of the Great Majestic range, he offered a special prize to the boy or girl giving the neatest and best answer to the question, "Why should the Great Majestic range be in every kitchen?" The award was made to Mary Stevens, who wrote:

"THE GREAT MAJESTIC RANGE."

Every kitchen should have a Majestic range, because—1st, it has a good appearance and is easily kept clean; 2nd, it has a good draught and is a good baker; 3rd, anyone that has ever had a reservoir, would not be without it, as you have hot water always at hand. We consider the thermometer a great advantage. The two doors to the warming closet and the arrangement of letting them down, we consider superior to any other stove. And the arrangement of the oven door is perfect. The ash pan is good and strong. In fact, we regard the Majestic range as near perfect as it can be. For these reasons every kitchen should have the Great Majestic Range. MARY H. STEVENS.

Betterton Notes.

The beautiful new Methodist Episcopal Church at Betterton was dedicated last Sunday. In spite of the inclement weather, the church was well filled at all three services. The amount of money given in cash and subscriptions during the day amounted to $2,000.00, leaving an indebtedness of but $1,000.00 on the church which cost $9,500.00. Dr. J. Morgan Reed, of the New Jersey Conference, preached most eloquent sermons at both the morning and evening services, and Dr. Barrett, of Chestertown in the afternoon. Rev. E. H. Collins, of Wilmington, had charge of the love feast in the morning and all preliminary services of the day. The choir, under the direction of Mr. W. R. Young, was at its best, and furnished beautiful music. Every member was in his place at 9 A. M., and every member was in his place at 11 P. M., when the final benediction was pronounced. The Ladies' Aid Society besides giving the building committee $1,000.00 in cash, has furnished and carpeted the church, and will keep up the interest on the subscriptions until they are paid. The Epworth League has installed the gas lights, the Junior League has furnished the primary room and put in a memorial window. The infant class presented the desk Bible and book mark, and a number of the Sunday school classes gave memorial windows. The triple memorial windows are given as a Crew memorial, a Young memorial and to Mr. George E. Owens, superintendent of the Sunday school for 36 years. All of the fifteen smaller windows except one have been taken as memorials.

Mrs. Carlton Moore entertained the Embroidery Club at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. William Brice is having a home erected on the lot adjoining his father's home.

Mrs. Hughes, of Harrisburg, is the guest of Mrs. A. P. Emerson.

Miss Jeannette Gooding, of Chestertown, spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. Hannah Gooding.

Rev. E. H. Collins was the guest of Mr. W. A. Crew while in Betterton.

Miss Elizabeth Brice is spending her vacation in Wilmington and Baltimore.

Mrs. Walter Crew is entertaining friends from Colorado.

Mrs. Charles Gooding was the guest of her parents the past week and attended the dedication services.

Miss Anna Smyth, of Chestertown, spent the week-end with Mrs. John Brice.
