AND

The smoke goes up the chimney just the same.

Every big tailor in America takes a crack at the International, but none can touch them in point of value.

It can't be done.

They quote the International prices, but they can't duplicate the styles, the fabrics and the workmanship that goes with our made-to-measure clothes.

Just now we're running a special sale on Suits and Overcoats—eighty-five good styles from last season, and quite a number from the new line at a saving to you of $2 to $6 on a suit or overcoat. Come see.

Rivals may talk big, run sales, cut prices and brag about their values, but you'll always notice that so far as we are concerned the smoke goes up the chimney just the same.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,

Special Representative for Kent and Queen Annes Counties of the International Tailoring Co. of New York, Chicago and London,

(Nextto Robert McWhorter's)

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

YOUR PURSE STRINGS will loosen as you pass our store and see the windows "Crowded with BARGAINS."

Let us suggest to you, Mr. Farmer, the early selection of your needs for this spring. The TIME to make this selection is NOW. The PLACE is "HERE."

NOTE THE PRICES—Pick out the ones you like and have them put aside for you until you are ready for them.

If you have never dealt with us, it is your fault, but if you deal with us just once and do not continue, it is our fault, so come in to see us and give us a chance.

We enjoy showing our goods just as much as you do seeing them, and we will see if we cannot show you some bargains. We are,

Yours for business,

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MRS. MILCAH LUSBY.

Mrs. Milcah Lusby died at her home in Cecilton last week of heart failure. Mrs. Lusby was in the seventy-fourth year of her age and had enjoyed comparatively good health until a few days before her death. She was the daughter of the late James Morgan and Rebecca Hayes Morgan, and was born in the First District of Cecil county, where her entire life was spent.

She married the late Henry Lusby, but enjoyed only a short married life, having been a widow over forty years. Five children survive: James, Harry, Robert and Miss Nellie, of Cecilton, and Parker, of Sassafras. Mrs. Lusby's life was sweet and simple in its dignity, and her gracious presence will be sadly missed. Funeral services were conducted at her late home on Sunday at 1 P. M., by Rev. Wm. A. Coale, and interment was made in the family lot at St. Stephen's cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. A. B. Darby, J. H. Black, Robert Ferguson, G. W. Padley, J. C. Rowman and Alexander Wilson.

ENGELBERT MUELLER.

Mr. Engelbert Mueller, proprietor of the Court street grocery and provision store, died at his home on Saturday evening of apoplexy, aged 55. The deceased came to this country from Germany, and had been engaged in the grocery and provision business here for about eight years. He leaves a widow and a niece, his only relatives in this country. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, with interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Wm. T. Hicks had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pall-bearers were: Sheriff Wm. E. Brown, Samuel Hicks, Edward Robinson, John Schauber, Frederick Jette and Mr. Voigt.

JAMES HOWARD WATTS.

James Howard Watts, aged 89 years, died at the home of his nephew, Mr. George W. Watts, at Smithville, on Tuesday. Funeral services were held on Thursday at 11 o'clock; interment at Union cemetery, Worton, Rev. H. B. Jester officiated. The pall-bearers were: Robert B. Usilton, George W. Watts, Thomas Bradley, Harrison I. and Louis Parsons and Willard Pinder. Charles L. Dodd undertaker in charge.

Notes From Queen Esther.

So anxious were the people to hear Queen Esther rendered that many were offering $1.50 for a seat the last evening, and quite a number purchased standing room.

Just before the curtain rose for the first act on Wednesday evening Haman, on behalf of the club and orchestra presented Mr. Chapman and Dr. Clarke, the directors who made the cantata such a pronounced success, each with a handsome diamond scarf pin as a token of their appreciation of the efforts of these two masters to make the beautiful cantata the greatest success ever.

Manager Russell, of the Theatre Company, did everything in his power to make the audience and the chorus behind the scenes comfortable, and he succeed admirably.

There has been a great demand from all parts of the county for a repetition of the performance, but the directors prefer to allow the memories of beautiful Queen Esther to linger in the minds and hearts of those who heard and enjoyed it, and it is the intention of the club to present another cantata of equal merit in the near future.

The total receipts for both performances were something over $400. It cost about $150 to stage the play.

Grange Notes

Other Grange Notes on Page 2.

The meeting of Kennedyville Grange, No. 343, held last Monday night was well attended. During the routine of business the Lecturer presented two questions for discussion at the next meeting. "What do you consider the first important step of the Lecturer?" and "What do you consider your duty to the Lecturer to be?" After confering of degress upon the candidates for admission, a shower of many useful articles was presented to the Worthy Steward, Lloyd Kennedy, and his bride. All were then seated at tables spread with delicacies for the delight of the inner man, the social hour being thoroughly enjoyed by all.
