OLD TRANSCRIPT BUILDING,

R. GROOME PARKS,

Attorney-at-Law,

Chestertown, Maryland

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

Feb. 9th, 1915.

DEAR SIRS:

Your statement that Senator Blair Lee will be a candidate for Governor of Maryland this year is the first authoritative statement I have seen in any paper in Maryland. I am delighted to hear the TRANSCRIPT and its friends will be behind Senator Lee in this fight. It recalls the fact that the TRANSCRIPT was the first paper in Maryland which got behind Governor Warfield, Senator Raynor, President Woodrow Wilson, and as a rule behind all progressive men and policies in the State. I hope that this will prove a good omen for Senator Lee.

It is likely that every Anti-Organization man in Kent county will vote for Senator Lee in the primary, and my opinion is, a large number of Organization Democrats will do the same.

But how about the leaders in Chestertown, Messrs. Beck and Beck, Wickes and the Usiltons? Behind whom will they get? For whom are Dodd and Willis, Turner and Gibbs? It is dollars to doughnuts they do not know. They are waiting for John Walter's whistle, for his whispered word, "here is your man." Yet these are the leaders who call upon the people of Kent to support them in their reckless squandering of the people's money and have not the nerve to pick a man for Governor at their own initiative and say, "win or lose, our fortunes are with you." Ask any of these gentlemen who he is for for Governor. See what sort of an answer you get. I am a Lee man straight from the shoulder.

THE MAN ON THE STREET.

Massey, Md., Feb. 10, 1915.

GENTLEMEN:

The Kent News has started its annual tirade against the citizens who dare to aspire for political recognition, without having first obtained the "gang" brand of approval.

In speaking of C. S. Hurlock, of the First District, the News says: "The 'Boss' ordered him to run," etc.

Well, if this be true, then our hats off to the "boss"—because even the News will admit that he could not have picked a man who is more respected, better liked, and better qualified in every way to hold office than "Cad" Hurlock, of the First District.

But, knowing Mr. Hurlock, as we do, it has always been our impression that he "bossed himself, and that very capably too.

Regardless of these facts, however, we feel very safe in predicting Mr. Hurlock's nomination to the office to which he aspires, that of Register of Wills, and subsequent election; whatever the News may have to say notwithstanding.

Moral—Don't shoot too high, you are wasting amunition.

A FIRST DISTRICT VOTER.

News From the Sunny South.

An interesting letter from Mrs. James Brice, Tampa, Florida, received this week, tells of a pleasant day spent by Mr. and Mrs. Brice with the Rolands, former residents of Chestertown, at their pretty home in St. Peterburg, Fla. Mrs. Brice states that St. Petersburg is a lovely place and the Roland family have pretty homes and are doing well. Messrs. George and Enoch are in business, Miss Lillian and Mrs. Roland Matthews have good places, and Mr. Roland Matthews has a good position in the postoffice. She did not have the pleasure of seeing Mrs. Pen Matthews and her aged father, because they live some distance outside of St. Petersburg. Miss Lillian stated that her mother is getting along finely, but her grandfather is quite feeble, but is able to be about. We are quite sure that the many friends of this highly esteemed family here will be delighted to hear of their prosperity and good health in the sunny south, and we extend our best wishes for a continuance of their good fortune.

MARYLANDERS FIX THEIR SLATE.

Congressmen Map Out Campaign For Committee Assignments.

Democratic members of the Maryland delegation in the House, at a conference in Representative J. Fred Talbott's office, last Tuesday, decided to make a contest for four major committee assignments in the Sixty-Fourth Congress. The four berths are on the Interstate and Foreign Commerce, on the appropriations, on the Postoffice and Post Roads and on the Naval Affairs. Of the four, only one is now held by a Marylander. Mr. Talbott being a member of the Naval Affairs Committee.

The following is the tentative slate of the Marylanders:

Representative Coady—For the old Covington place on the Insterstate and Foreign Commerce Committees, and a small committee.

Representative Price—For the Appropriations Committee and a small committee berth.

Representative Linthicum—For the Foreign Affairs Committee, which he now holds, and a chairmanship of a small committee.

Representative Lewis—For the chairmanship of the Committee on Labor, which he now holds, and a berth on the Postoffice and Post Roads, should he finally decide he wants it.

Representative Talbott—For the Naval Affairs Committee and the chairmanship of the Committee on Disposition of Useless Executive Documents, both of which he now holds.

Stolen Auto Recovered.

Detectives A.J. Sullivan and William J. Gleason, of Philadelphia, went to Middletown, Delaware, Tuesday night last and located a stolen automobile, a 1914 Ford roadster, which had been stolen in Philadelphia last fall by a young man who was arrested there on Monday last. He said his name was Burdell, and it is said he had carried on an extensive business in stealing machines. He gave the locations of several he had stolen and later sold.

The Ford machine recovered in Middletown, was sold to W. H. Johns, of Warwick, Md., who in turn disposed of it to Ralph Shallcross of Odessa, in whose possession it was found. Mr. Shallcross and Mr. Johns had purchased the machine innocently and thought everything was all right, as Burdell gave a very plausible reason for wanting to sell. The detectives went to the farm of Mr. Shallcross and stated the case to him, whereupon he willingly gave up the car. Mr. Johns refunded him the money he had paid and is out the amount he paid Burdell for it.
