Woman Reports Hubby Missing

A distraught housewife told police, Monday morning, that her husband had been missing since early Saturday night.

Mrs. Sarah Mae Jones, 900 block W. Fayette st., told Southwestern district police that her husband, John H. Jones, left the house shortly before 7 p.m. Saturday.

The woman declared she and her husband, a war veteran, had not quarreled and she couldn't explain his strange disappearance.

Jones, a native of Farmville, Va., was driving a maroon, 1942 Plymouth sedan when last seen.

DRINK Coca-Cola

"Sweetwater" Clifton

long-shot artist and famous professional basketball star, pauses to refresh with ice-cold Coca-Cola.

Basketball is a demanding game. A man must go full-speed for long periods of time, giving all his energy and all his strength to the job of winning the game.

The same thing is true in your job, whatever it may be. You, too, must go full-speed ... with all your energy and all your strength ... for long periods of time. To be at your best, you must take time out when you can to rest and relax. That's when most people head for the friendly red cooler and a frosty bottle of delicious, ice-cold Coca-Cola. And don't forget—take home a case or carton of Coke for the family.

WISE SHOPPING with Mildred Carter

CHILDREN AREN'T the only ones who don't like pills or bad-tasting liquid laxatives—I know lots of grown-ups who feel the same way! But I've found a laxative that even children like—FEEN-A-MINT, the mint-flavored, chewing-gum laxative. You can count on the results—it's PHENOMENAL. And best of all, it keeps you feeling fine afterward! Doctors say many other laxatives must wait "thinking" action TOO SOON, right in the stomach where food is being digested. Large doses of such laxatives flush every food you need for health and energy, but FEEN-A-MINT is different! Taken as recommended, it acts chiefly in the lower intestine, where it REMOVES mostly WASTE, not good food. You AVOID that typical tired worn-out feeling, instead, you feel fine, full of pep! So get this good family laxative, FEEN-A-MINT. 25c, 50c or only 10c.

FRIENDS HAVE BEEN telling me of the thrilling results they are getting by using Black and White Bleaching Cream. It makes skin look shades lighter, smoother, softer! For Black and White Bleaching Cream is now 3 times stronger than before. Its bleaching action goes right into the layer in your skin where skin color is regulated. This amazing action—a result of regular dressing table use—is delicious—helps you have the shades lighter, smoother, softer skin you've always dreamed of. Beginning in just 7 days. Science knows no faster method of lightening skin. And it costs so little, I know you will want to try a jar of wonderful Black and White triple strength Bleaching Cream today.

If your family has a touch of "spring fever"...try giving them up with a luscious home-baked cake. Print the layers in gay colored icing and watch everyone sit up and take notice. And, if you bake this treat with Annabel's Quick-By Baking Powder—Calumet—you'll be sure they'll not only have "company manners" ... they'll ask for "company" all around. That's because you'll find ... and share ... the delicious lightness. You see ... Calumet is Double-Acting—it gives you double leavening power in the mixing bowl, once again in the oven's heat. Set your sky-high cake ... or a jar of baked treats ... after when you start right with the best you can buy—Annabel's Calumet—you think right with the best you can bake.

Buffet For A Bridal Party

A FINE CHOICE for shower menus for your favorite bride includes Hawaiian meat loaf, a thrifty and easy main dish for a buffet meal.

Hawaiian Meat Loaf

½ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
3 slices canned pineapple, drained
12 whole cloves
2 cups ground cooked ham (approx. 1 lb.)
1 lb. ground, round steak
¼ cup Blue Bonnet Margarine, melted
¼ cup tomato catsup
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup soft bread crumbs
¼ teaspoon pepper

Pack brown sugar in loaf pan (9 x 5 x 3 inches). Stud pineapple with cloves and arrange clove side down, to form an attractive design in bottom of pan. Blend together remaining ingredients and press mixture into pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 1 hour. Pour off juice that collects in pan. Invert onto hot platter and serve very hot. Serves 6.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
Veal Leaves
(Makes 8)

1 pound ground veal
1 pound ground pork
1 can chicken soup
1 cup quick-cooking oatmeal
1 egg
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon onion juice
Paprika

Combine ingredients in order given. Make into eight individual patties and pack on edge in a loaf pan, making a solid loaf. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees F.) oven for 1½ hours on the hands and lint-free. Rich lathers for cleaning build up quickly if you squeeze them accordion fashion in water and soap or detergent.

COOKING FUN

By BETTY COOK FOR ANP

You Don't Bake This Pie Crust

Some crust! That expression didn't originate with the creation of this revolutionary and delicious Chocolate Coconut Pie Crust—but it certainly sums up the opinion of all who've tasted it! Rich, dark chocolate and tender coconut combine for this newly-created delicate crust that NEEDS NO BAKING!

Here then is failure-proof pie shell that has never seen an oven. The ingredients are easily mixed in a saucepan, then gently pressed into a pie plate. The pan is then placed in the refrigerator for a short time and soon you have a lovely, lacy-looking pie shell with a wonderful "built-in" fudge flavor. That's really fast fixing!

Quick enough for the most hurried dinner, yet fancy enough for the most lavish occasion, Chocolate Coconut Pie Crust tastes good all the way through to the plate. Fillings are practically unlimited, especially if you use ice cream, the dessert of many flavors.

For a special Spring treat, just before serving, spoon about a quart of strawberry ice cream into the crust and garnish with a stand by for the "Oh's" and few choice strawberries. Then "ah's" of six or eight appreciative people.

Chocolate Coconut Crust
(See Accompanying Illustration)

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
water
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons hot milk or 2/3 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
1½ cups shredded coconut, cut, toasted or plain

METHOD: Melt chocolate and butter in top of double boiler, stirring until blended. Combine milk and sugar. Add to chocolate mixture, stirring well. Add coconut and mix well. Spread on bottom and sides of greased 9-inch pie pan. Chill until firm. To serve, fill crust with ice cream or other pie filling.

Your Weekly Trest Recipe

There are very fet people who don't love good fried chicken, but this meat can also be dressed up in any number of attractive ways. For instance, why not treat your family to a dish of chicken and tomatoes? e

Chicken And Tomatoes

1 young chicken 2½ to 3 pounds
3½ cups canned tomatoes
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup fat
1 finely sliced onion
¼ teaspoon pepper.

METHOD: Cook the cut-up chicken in hot fat until it is delicately browned. Add onions and cook until they are soft but not brown. Add tomatoes, salt and pepper. Cover tightly and let cook until chicken is tender and tomatoes have made a thick sauce (about 30 to 45 minutes).

Serve hot over pre-cooked rice.

You will find this chicken dish just a little out of the ordinary, but it's one that is bound to please. The tomatoes and onions add a zip and richness to the dish that will "tickle" the palate. The above recipe is sufficient for serving four to five persons. So, why not serve chicken and tomatoes at an early date and then start counting the compliments of your family or guests?

"EASY DOES IT"

BY ..... HELEN HALE

GETTING the home in spanking clean condition for the new season? You'll find these tips welcome help for your cleaning sessions.

As one cleaning tool, have two pails or one pail with two compartments. One can hold your suds and the other the rinse, and you'll have both with you at the same time, as you need them.

Make your own dustless dusters for dusting furniture and woodwork. Soak clean cloths for several hours in hot suds to which a few drops of turpentine have been added. Wring and hang to dry. Keep one of these in the living room where it will be handy.

Lots of sponges make the cleaning jobs easier because they're easy to wring out, easy

Have three mops for treating your floors: one soft mop is used on polished floors, a string, cloth or sponge mop for linoleum and tiled surfaces and a detachable lamb's wool mop for polished floors.

Keep your dresser drawers clean by wiping every now and then with a soapy cloth, rinsing with a damp, clean cloth. Use plastic sheeting for lining drawers to make them easy to dust

Wash shower curtains in suds in the bath tub. Swish in clean water and spread out to dry, never squeezing them as this creates creases which may mar their appearance.

Early Days Topic Of Dental Parley

(ANP)—Dental practices during the 19th century and dental apprentices will be among the topics discussed at the John A. Andrew Clinical Society which meets here April 12-16.

Among the exhibits on the first topic will be those on: African customs, the plantation dentist, early dental incidents and post emancipation.

There will be six exhibits on the second topic. They are: apprenticeship, college of dentistry, Howard university; school of dentistry, Meharry Medical college; earliest colored graduates, post-graduate education, and research and specialization.

"We're strictly a Bond Bread family!"

Meet Robert Jackson, Mrs. Lottier's grocer, whose store is on 1655 N. Bentalou Street, Baltimore, Maryland

He says: "Listen to Mrs. Lottier, folks and you'll enjoy the taste and flavor of the best bread there is . . . BOND. My customers tell me it stays fresher longer, too, but I know . . . I use BOND BREAD myself."

Says: Mrs. George C. Lottier
1818 N. Bentalou St., Baltimore, Maryland

"BOND BREAD's been providing wholesome food energy for our whole family for years and years. My children are growing up on its healthful goodness . . . and they sure do go for its oven-fresh flavor. Plain, toasted . . . any way at all . . . BOND BREAD's our number one favorite!"

Taste tells . . . BOND's your best bread buy!
