BOSS BECK and his delegation in the Legislature, Messrs. Howard Turner and Robert A. Shallcross, put the gallon-a-month law over on the people. It is the curse of the age.

SEVERAL of the sub-Bosses in the Organization faction are so worried at the prospect of Mr. James T. Dixon's candidacy for clerk of the court, that they are endeavoring to make it appear that Mr. Dixon is the Anti-Organization candidate. Well, Mr. Dixon has more following and more political influence in five minutes than these little fellows have in five years, and he will be the Organization candidate for clerk before the campaign fairly gets started.

THE town authorities should exert their utmost efforts to discover the scoundrel who is poisoning valuable dogs in this community. In our judgment the person who would lay poison around for harmless and valuable dogs to get, is not half as good as the dogs, and if he could be caught, he should be punished severely for his beastly act. Three valuable dogs were poisoned last Saturday night, and this is the second time this thing has occurred in our community.

THE name of Mr. Willliam F. Russell Cashier of the Kent County Savings Bank has been mentioned during the week in Organization circles as a candidate for state Senator, notwithstanding the fact that the friends of Mr. Harry C. Willis and of Mr. Howard Turner are working like beavers to have the Bosses in Chestertown to agree on one of them. There has been talk also of the Organization taking up Mr. Harry Cannan, who has been regarded as an Anti man, for County Commisioner to oppose Mr. Harry Nicols. If these talked-of candidates should materialize, Chestertown will have candidates for three of the most important offices on the Organization ticket, namely, two candidates for clerk of the court, the candidate for state Senator and one candidate for County Commissioner. That will make somewhat of a lopsided ticket, and will be a striking proof of the claim that Chestertown gets the cream of the jobs from the organization faction always.

DR. CAIN'S RESIGNATION.

The resignation of Dr. James W. Cain as president of Washington College, which he forwarded to the Board of Visitors and Governors this week, occasioned great surprise throughout the town, county, and State, to those who were not thoroughly conversant with events at Washington College during the past two years. It is not our purpose to express an opinion concerning the resignation except to state our belief that when the true circumstances which occasioned the resignation become generally known, the people of this town and State will realize that a calamity has befallen the college. No action has as yet been taken by the Board of Visitors and Governors upon Dr. Cain's resignation, which is to take effect at the close of the present scholastic year, and until such action is taken nothing need be said. It is known, however, that there is great friction in the board.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

Went From Home to Fill Offices.

Chestertown, Md.

DEAR SIRS:

If I had been talking to you while you were writing that editoral in the TRANSCRIPT last week, which has caused so much comment throughout Kent county, perhaps one or two more incidents could have been added to those cited by you.

Have you forgotten how Mr. Barroll's friends appointed Harry W. Fallowfield Register, and how they appointed Mr. Coleman one of the Clerks in the Chestertown Post Office? Ask Mr. Wm. B. Coleman.

Did you not omit something when you failed to state that Mr. Beck and his friends appointed to one of their places Mr. Charles Gilpin Hines with a salary of $1500 and Mr. Thomas L. Hines with a salary of $1800, both very worthy gentlemen. But do not overlook the fact that the Hineses are closely related to the Becks and the Wickeses. They do not, of course, reside in Kent county but they were appointed by our county Bosses and they could have selected deserving young men from their own county ranks for each of these places.

MAN-ON THE STREET.

Feb. 15, 1915.

Warburton up for Governor.

Hon William T. Warburton, of Cecil county, prominent as a lawyer and banker and Republican floor leader in the legislature of 1912, announced last Friday night at a dinner given at the Main Court Inn, Baltimore, in celebration of Lincoln's birthday, that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of Maryland. The announcement was received with great enthusiasm by the 150 Carroll county Republicans at the banquet.

GOOD NEWS

The Chestertown White House Shoe Shop buyer has just arrived from St. Louis. He was there right on the job visiting the fourteen specialty factories of the Brown Shoe Co., where he selected for the Chestertown White House Shoe Shop the most complete stock that was ever put in a shoe store. He bought of the following well-known brands, which need no introduction to the public:

Which Will Soon Open

Buster Brown Shoes for Boys and Girls
White House Shoes for Men and Women
Mound City Work and Hunting Shoes for Wear and Comfort

We will guarantee every pair of shoes bought at this store to give satisfaction or we will make good.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Other personals on page 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard attended a fine play given by the young men of Pauling School, New York, last week in which their son, Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard, who is a student at the school, took a leading character. Mr. Hubbard impersonated a female character, and displayed much dramatic ability.

There is to be a wedding of importance in town next week, so 'tis reported. Guess who.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Willis entertained a large company of friends at their home near Fancy school yesterday evening.

Mr. J. W. Forster expects to leave in a few weeks for South America where he has secured a lucrative position.

Rock Hall Items.

Will Frazier and Arthur Jones had a narrow escape last Tuesday night. While driving home from this town in the dark, he was run into by one of the Jones boys, who was coming from Rock Hall, too. Frazier was in a runabout—it was dark. Arthur and Hiram Jones were on horse back. When they came upon Frazier his horse stopped causing Jones to run into the carriage. The vehicle was smashed and Frazier just barely escaped being killed. Jones' horse fell and turned over catching one of the riders legs under him. It's mighty lucky that the horse did not crush him.

M. Kramer will again open his factory in Rock Hall next Monday. His able machinist came over last Tuesday to straighten matters and get the engine in working order.

The Oregon Medicine Company arrived here last Tuesday and have been showing the whole week. They have a very creditable show, but can't touch old Dr. Wells.

The Juniors received the metal for their ceiling Tuesday, and they will proceed to finish the upper hall first.

Next Thursday evening has been appointed the time for the young orators try out. There is to be a competitive declamation test held with the intention of taking the winners to Chestertown, where there will be held a similar contest for entries throughout the county schools.

Thomas Hogans & Co. have opened up a wood yard.

Mrs. Ceziel, the aged mother of Mrs. Jester, got out of the house last Tuesday night about six o'clock by the front window, pulled it down after her, and was out about three hours without wraps, with the exception of a small shawl. The night was cold and damp. Friends, with lanterns, turned out and searched in every direction. After a hard search she was finally found in the rear of Mr. Jester's stable standing by a small shed. She had been in the mud and water for nearly three hours. Mrs. Ceziel was taken to the house where she was given restoratives and warm beverages.

Oysters were selling for 8 and 10 cents this week. The lowest prices in thirty years.

Last Sunday evening Dr. Watt, district superintendent of the M. E. Church, preached at the evening services. Rev. Mr. Rice, of Pomona, was also present.

There has been formed an organization in this town called the "Willing Workers." It is their aim to have entertainments, socials, etc., so that at any time the M. E. Church is in need of funds in any branch, that it may call on them and be duly aided. Their membership includes both old and young, their only requirements being willing to help. The officers are as follows: Mrs. Ada Vertz, president; Mrs. Mae Hersch, vice-president; Miss Marguerite Hersch, secretary; Miss Mary A. Davis, treasurer. This organization is going to hold a "Washington Tea" in T. B. Durding's hall, Feb. 20th. The waitresses are to be dressed in Martha Washington costumes. There will be a young man dressed in George Washington costume who will keep order.
