THE Princess Anne Marylander and Herald, the political organ of Internal Revenue Collector, Joshua W. Miles, in Somerset county, speaking editorially of Senator Lee's candidacy for Governor says:

"Senator Blair Lee on Thursday last announced that he would be a candidate of the Democratic party for Governor of Maryland. Comptroller Emerson C. Harrington and Congressman J. Charles Linthicum will also be in the race.

"Four years ago Senator Lee was the champion candidate in this county. The organization people, however, felt compelled to support Mr. Gorman, the regular Democratic nominee. As it was, Mr. Lee had come very close to being such a nominee and the feeling against Mr. Gorman was so great that he was defeated and Mr. Goldsborough, the Republican candidate, was elected.

"The time has again come when Senator Lee is in the field. The progressive spirit which imbued him four years ago is still in evidence. In this county, for example, his attitude is unchanged and it will not be long before he will undertake another personal campaign similar to the one which gave him such notoriety and confidence before.

"It will be perfectly natural for Senator Lee to expect the support he had before and in addition to it the support of many of those who supported the organization condidate then, but who have seen enough of Senator Lee's ability to weigh it in his favor.

FANNY CROSBY DEAD.

Blind Hymn Writer Continued Work Almost to the Last. Came of Long-Lived Family.

Fanny Crosby, well-known hymn writer, died at her home in Bridgeport, Conn., last Friday, in her 95th year.

Her death was not unexpected, as her health had been failing for some time. Shortly before the end she became unconscious. At her bedside were her niece, Mrs. Henry D. Booth, and other members of the family, with whom she long had made her home.

In spite of feeble health, especially within the past few months, Miss Crosby continued writing hymns up to a short time before her death.

WROTE 8,000 HYMNS.

Eight thousand hymns of Christian worship sung in Protestant churches throughout the world is the work of Fanny Crosby. No one since the days of Charles Wesley or Isaac Watts has made anywhere near as large a contribution to the Gospel song book as did the blind writer.

Fanny Crosby's name was signed so regularly as author of one hymn after another that the hymn-book makers of a quarter of a century ago were forced to give her some 200 different pen names to make it appear that some one besides the famous writer had contributed.

$3,500,000 FOR ROADS

Commission Receives Proceeds From Sale of Bonds.

The Board of Public Works yesterday turned over to the State Roads Commission the proceeds of the sale of $3,600,000 State bonds. The issuance of the bonds was made under an act of the last legislature appropriating $6,600,000 for the completion of the main arterial system of State roads and for the construction of the new Hanover street bridge. Last year $3,000,000 of the bonds were issued and the recent issue completes the amount appropriated. There was a discount of approximately $60,000 upon the issue of $3,600,000.

Consideration was given the late report made upon the accounting system at the Springfield State Hospital by Deputy State Auditor William A. Gillespie, Jr., with the approval of State Auditor Ray. This, like Mr. Gillespies first report, severely criticized the system at the hospital. The board referred the report to the board of managers of the hospital. It is reported that some of the matters criticized by Mr. Gillespie have been changed.

The board also approved a recommendation that a revised system of accounting be instituted in the State Comptroller's office. This was taken up some time ago by Comptroller Harrington, who consulted with an expert accountant. Mr. Harrington was authorized to go ahead.

To Stop Overdrafts.

Letters were received this week by the banks of Chestertown from the Treasury Department requesting that a resolution be adopted directing that no officer or employee of the banks shall pay or charge to the account of any depositor any check of such depositor when there are not sufficient funds on deposit to the credit of the drawer of the check to meet the same.

The reason for this stringent action is given in the first paragraph of the letter and is that "the granting by some banks of accommodations in the form of overdrafts is objectionable and can not be countenanced by this office." The letters were from the office of the Comptroller of the Currency to the board of directors of the banks.

"This practice (of granting overdrafts) should cease entirely," continued the letters. "To facilitate the accomplishment of this result the subject has been taken up by this office with the banking departments of various States, and these authorities have generally agreed to take the necessary action to secure the effective co-operation of State banks in attaining the end desired."

The bank boards were requested to forward a certified copy of the resolution to the Federal Comptroller's office as soon as it is adopted. This resolution must show the names of the directors present at the meeting when it was adopted.

"War Bread" of Soldiers.

The commissary departments of the armies of Europe in supplying "war bread" to troops have sought to give to the men a bread ration of the highest nutritive value as well as of the highest degree of palatability. The war bread is not the bread which is regularly baked in the field bakeries for issue and consumption within the customary time, but is bread that is issued to troops to be eaten when fresh bread cannot be had.

The war bread of the German soldier is made of wheat flour, potato flour, rice, eggs, milk yeast and salt and is flavored with cinnamon and nutmeg.

The war bread of the Austrian soldier is made of wheat flour, potato flour, eggs, milk, yeast and salt and is flavored with cinnamon and nutmeg.

The war bread of the Belgian army is made of wheat flour, sugar and eggs. The war bread of the French soldier is baked of flour, yeast and water, and the war bread of the British army is thoroughly baked wheat flour put up in airtight tin boxes, which, like the first aid pockets, are not to be opened until needed.—Washington Star.

What "S O S" Means.

In talking with the wireless operator many ship passengers ask the meaning of the three letters used in the distress signal, "S O S." There seems to be a general opinion that the letters are the abbreviation of three separate words with a definite meaning. Persons of an imaginative trend will tell you that the letters stand for "Save our ship," "Send out succor," "Sink or swim" or some such meaning. The letters signify nothing but that a ship is in distress and in need of assistance. The call is used by all nations as a universal code, so that any wireless operator, regardless of the language he speaks, can immediately intercept the call of distress. Inasmuch as the call is in use by all countries, it can be seen that the signal can have no meaning in any language. The character of the code makes it a call that can be picked out easily from other signals, being composed of three dots, three dashes, three dots.—Ocean Wireless News.

The Way to Boston.

Earlier in the day he had been sixteen miles from Boston. He was now only eleven miles away. The condition of his pockets was such that there was no way for him to reach the city without further wear on his shoes. Several automobiles had rushed past him toward the city, but although he had looked at them appealingly, the drivers had made no sign that they were willing to help the footsore pedestrian.

He grew a little bitter as he put one foot up and the other foot down on the dusty road. Finally he was hailed by the driver of a car that bore a Pennsylvania license number.

"Hey, there, do you know the way to Boston?"

"Yes, I do. Just follow me. I am going there."

The driver grinned. The tramper reached Boston in twenty minutes.—Youth's Companion.

Round Shouldered Boys.

Head up, chin in, chest out and shoulders back is a good slogan for a boy scout who desires an erect figure. One can scarcely think of a round shouldered scout. Yet there are such among the boys who desire to be scouts.

There is no particular exercise that a boy can take to cure round shoulders. The thing to remember is that all exercise that is taken should be done in the erect position, then the muscles will hold the body there.

An erect body means a deeper chest, room for the important organs to work and thus affords them the best chance to act.

A few setting up exercises each day in the erect position will help greatly to get this result.—Boy Scout Handbook.

He Got There.

The man was reading the front page of the newspaper as he walked across the busy street.

"Gee," he mused, "I'd like to get my name in big type on the front page of a newspaper."

Just then a street car bumped into the man.

He got his name on the front page of the next edition of the paper.

But he missed the story.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Cromwell's Seal.

The seal of Oliver Cromwell, now in the possession of a prominent family in Wales, is a plain, gold mounted corundum stone five-eighths of an inch in diameter. It dates from 1653 and was used on several of Cromwell's deeds. All the Lord's prayer is engraved on it.—London Globe.

Natural Anxiety.

Lawyer (to hesitating client)—Revenge is sweet, remember. We'll fight this case to the bitter end. Client—But who'll get the bitter end, the other fellow or me?—Chicago News.

Two of a Kind.

"Bald heads remind me of kind words."

"Why so?"

"They can never dye, you know."—Boston Transcript.

Caustic.

"I wish I had your voice!"

"Yes, no doubt you do."

"Yes. If it belonged to me I could stop it when I liked, you see."

Fusileers.

"Fusil" was the old name for the flintlock to distinguish it from the matchlock, and fusileers were those who carried fusils.
