WHITE SALE

Exposition of White Wear and Fabrics With Rich Savings for Every Buyer!

For this White Sale which we begin Monday large quantities of sheer white goods, domestics, muslinwear, etc., have been purchased. We have the pleasure of presenting for your selection broad stocks of white goods with the added pleasure of quoting low prices for them.

Unfortunate conditions were responsible for the most fortunate purchases of white wear and white fabrics we ever made! Cotton in the raw state has been selling for less than it has brought for many year. This has had its effect on made up goods, the prices of which are correspondingly low.

There are three features of this sale that make it most unusual. The first is the large fresh, assortments presented; the second is the superior quality of every muslin undergarment and every yard of fabrics; and the third is the lowness of prices. The white goods, laces, etc., embraced by this sale are just what you will need for your Spring dressmaking. Buy them now when you can get them for such low prices as the following.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

CHARLES C. WOOD.

Mr. Charles C. Wood, one of the most prominent agriculturists and citizens of the Fifth District, died at his home on the Island last Friday afternoon, aged 75 years. The news of Mr. Wood's death was a shock to the community and called forth expressions of profound sorrow that such a good and worthy citizen had been called to his reward. Mr. Wood was one of the old land marks of the Fifth District. His name has been identified for so many years with that section of the county that one scarcely thought of the Fifth District without associating therewith the name of Wood. The deceased was a good man. Large hearted, sincere and true as steel to his convictions of justice and right, it may truthfully be said of him that he dealt with others as he would that they should do unto him, and his charitable deeds and acts of kindness to his fellowmen will ever be a sweet memory to those who came within their influence. He has left a goodly heritage, and what is far better he has left a name that will endure for years among those who came in contact with him. He will be missed in his community as few men have been, because of the lively interest he took in everything that pertained to its moral, physical and political welfare. He is survived by a widow, his second wife. He also leaves four children by his first wife, Messrs. James M., John C., county commissioner, and Charles D. Wood, a former county commissioner, and Mrs. Ida Elderdice, wife of Rev. J. L. Elderdice, of the Maryland Conference. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon in Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, conducted by Rev. H. W. D. Johnson, the pastor. It was one of the most largely attended funerals seen in that section for years. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. CHARLOTTE AUGUSTA STRONG.

Mrs. Charlotte Augusta Strong, widow of the late T. Romie Strong, and daughter of the late James Page and Charlotte Anna Wickes, died at her home on Lankford's Bay, in the Fifth District, Tuesday morning after a lingering illness, aged 74 years. For years the name of Strong has been identified with the lower part of Kent county, and it has been an honored and a revered name in that section of the county for years. The deceased was known for her hospitality and genial disposition, and her home was the scene of many and very enjoyable social functions for years. She enjoyed the love and esteem of hosts of friends, and her death is a source of regret among all those who know her. She leaves the following children: Mrs. Wm. G. Painter, of West Virginia; Dr. J. Page Strong, of Baltimore; Mrs. W. O. Selby, Elwood Strong, Miss Edna Strong, Mrs. Louise Merritt Brice, of Millington, and William R. Strong. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Martha S. Wickes, and Mrs. J. H. Ruth, of Washington, D. C.; and one brother, Mr. Robert Wickes, of near Rock Hall. Funeral services were held yesterday at St. Paul's Church, conducted by Rev. Dr. Sharpe of Church Hill. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Dr. W. O. Selby, Dr. Merritt Brice, Richard B. Willson, Allan A. Harris, Walter B. Strong and J. Page Gale. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

JOHN W. DUYER.

Mr. John W. Duyer, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed residents of Chestertown, who had been ill with double pneumonia for seven weeks, died at his home on College avenue, Sunday night, age 82 years. Mr. Duyer was born in Chestertown and was once constable for Kent county. For many years the deceased has been in failing health, but the faithful and cheering service of his wife and two daughters, Misses Belle and Elizabeth Duyer, have made his declining years ones of peace and joy. The deceased leaves a wife, four sons, Messrs. Frank E., Jesse, William E. and Lawrence R. and three daughters, Misses Belle and Elizabeth, at home, and Mrs. Ella Woodall, of Galena. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Dr. W. R. Graham officiating; interment in Chester cemetery, C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The pall-bearers were his three sons, Messrs. Frank, Jesse and Lawrence, and his three grand-sons, Colin, Burt and Jack Duyer.

MRS. MARY E. WALBERT.

Mrs. Mary E. Walbert, age 64, wife of George W Walbert, of Swan Creek, died at her home Monday afternoon, of Brights desease. The deceased was a lady of splendid disposition and charater, and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of a host of friends who sympathize with the family in their bereavement. She leaves a husband and three children, Mrs. Ida Cranor, Mrs. Emma Rodney, and a son, Mr. George Walbert, and three sisters, Mrs. Elbert Nickerson and Mrs. Alfred Crouch and Mrs. John Bedwell. The funeral was held on Wednesday from her late home, conducted by Rev. H. W. D. Johnson, interment at Wesley Chapel cemetery. Pall bearers were Joseph Walbert, James Walbert, Theodore Walbert, Alfred Walbert, B. F. Rash, J. W. Joiner. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

JOHN MCKENZIE.

Capt. John McKenzie, a former well-known resident of this county, died at his home in Norfolk, Va., on Monday. He leaves four children, Mrs. Fannie Parrott, of this town; Mrs. Marian Krug, Baltimore, and two sons, Mr. Thos. McKenzie, of Norfolk, Va., Mr. Bruce McKenzie, of Baltimore. The remains were brought to Chestertown by train on Tuesday morning and rested in the home of his daughter on Mill street, where funeral services were held on Thursday, conducted by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin and Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham. Interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd in charge. The pall-bearers were: Thomas G. Wroth, Walter U. Lusby, F. G. Usilton, S. Scott Beck, R. H. Collins and Frank H. Howard.

JAMES R. HOFFECKER.

James R. Hoffecker, 77 years old, of Middletown, died on Wednesday. In 1886 he was the nominee of the Prohibitionists for Governor and supported by the Republicans. He was defeated, however, by Benjamin T. Biggs, Democrat, also of Middletown. He was born in St. George's Hundred August 19, 1837. He was married twice. His first wife was Miss Adelaide Peach, of Bohemia Manor, Md. His second wife, who survives him, was Miss Caroline Burnham, of Middletown, Del. He leaves three children.

Kent county papers are asked to note the following death notice which appeared in the Sun on Sunday:

"On Feb. 11, 1915, John T. Stansbury, in his 72d year, beloved husband of the late Sa Lucinda Stansbury.
