MILITARY BALL — Misses Marsha Rose Hood, left_front; and Cynthia Hunter were guests of Cadet Andrew D. Harvey, 3rd, left, standing; and Cadet T. C. Jackson Jr., all of Baltimore, at the annual Howard University military ball, Friday.

Feminine Front

Deltas Present Guide Library

JACKSON, Miss.—Delta Sigma Theta sorority presented a vocational guidance library unit to President Reddick of Jackson College for the Jackson College library, recently.

This unit, consisting of all types of vocational guidance materials, is one of the four experimental units which the sorority has established as part of its library program in the Southern Region.

Other vocational guidance library units are located at Bennett College, Columbia, S.C.; Knoxville College, Knoxville, Tenn. and Miles College, Birmingham, Ala. Each unit will become a part of the permanent collection of the respective colleges.

The formal presentation to Jackson College was made during a tea at the recent meeting of the southern regional conference of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, here. Miss M. Lucia James is director of the region.

SMASH HOMES OF 7,000

NAIROBI, Kenya (ANP) — Bulldozers last week flattened the homes of about 7,000 Africans after they had been forced out of two shanty-town settlements in the suburbs of Nairobi.

NOTE FOR LOUNGING—Miss Rose V. Murray of Houston, Texas, modeled an at-home ensemble in Detroit, last week. This year's "Spirit of Cotton," Miss Murray is on a nationwide tour.

Zetas To Meet In Greensboro

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Zeta Phi Beta sorority will hold the annual meeting of the eastern regional conference here Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The conference will be presided over by the newly appointed director, Mrs. Bernice H. Henry of Beckley, W. Va. The theme of the conference is "Great Decisions in an Atomic Era."

Dr. Woolridge Scheduled

The public meeting will be held on May 1 at the Bethel AME church, on Regan st. Miss Mytrolene L. Graye, basileus of the local chapter, will preside.

The highlight of this program will be the keynote address to be delivered by the grand basileus, Dr. Nancy Bullock Woolridge, of Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va.

Workshops will be held during the day on Saturday at the Lincoln Junior high school.

The social highlights of the conference will be the Zeta-Sigma Formal Dance on Friday evening following the public meeting, a Basilei Breakfast on Saturday morning for the basileus of each of the thirty-four chapters in this region, national officers a "Blue and White" luncheon Saturday afternoon and a Closed Zeta dance Saturday evening.

On Sunday morning the sorors will worship at the Trinity AMEZ church on E. Washington st.

GIRL FRIENDS—Mrs. Anna Murphy, New York City, national president of the Girl Friends, left, and Mrs. Dorothy Townes of Philadelphia, were also in Baltimore for the "Good Neighbor" party.

Dr. Stewart Delta Honoree

JACKSON, Miss.—Dr. Lula Belle Stewart, first certified specialist in the field of pediatrics in Mississippi, was honored at a tea during the recent meeting of the Southern Regional Conference of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, here.

Dr. Stewart, a member of Alpha Chi Sigma chapter of the sorority, is a graduate of Alcorn College and Meharry Medical college. Her internship was served at Flint Goodridge hospital at Dillard University, New Orleans, La.

For three years she engaged in general practice in Jackson, Miss.

On Meharry Staff

In February, 1950, she accepted a position on the resident and teaching staff at the Hubbard hospital of Meharry Medical college and maintained this position until July, 1950, when she returned to Mississippi to do special work with the State Board of Health, in the Division of Maternal and Child Welfare.

In September, 1950, Dr. Stewart pursued training in Pediatrics at the Cook County Children's Hospital, Chicago. She is, with fellowships from her sorority and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

MAY QUEEN—Miss Jacqueline Townsend, attractive senior science major of North Carolina College, Durham, is typical of May queens in college fetes throughout the United States this week.

4 To Get Inter-Faith Awards

NEW YORK — Mesdames Jackie Robinson, Charles S. Guggenheimer, Joseph Gimma and Martin Beck will be the recipients of inter-faith Mother's Day awards, on the Harry Hershfield television show, May 4.

Mrs. Robinson will be honored for her work among Charities; Mrs. Guggenheimer, leading figure of the Lewisohn Stadium concerts for many years, will be honored for her work in this regard.

Mrs. Gimma (Lucia Albanese, noted Metropolitan Opera star), will be honored for her cultural contributions. Mrs. Martin Beck, chairman of the board of the American Theatre Wing since 1946, will be honored for her work with this organization.

The plaque to be awarded to each will be a citation "to an American Mother who has won unusual distinction in her public career."

Americans En Route Home, Society In Germany Slows

By MABEL A. GRAMMER

MANNHEIM - FEUDENHEIM, Germany—The society set here, and in the Kaferital area who haven't left for the U.S., or are making plans to depart in May or June.

Although club, civic and social groups are on an integrated basis and are well attended these socialites will be missed.

Major and Mrs. Frank M. Christmas and little daughters, Anita Estelle and Marylin Louise, of Feudenheim, are probably now comfortably settled in their new quarters in Prairie View college, Texas, where the Major will take over his new duties as assistant professor of military science and tactics.

Major Christmas was formerly deputy headquarters commandant, Headquarters USAREUR and executive officer of 7888 Special Troops, US Army Europe. He is the former dean of Alcorn College, whose orchestra, there, under his direction, volunteered for a year's service in the U.S. Army during World War II. The group was inducted into the 367th residing in Heidelberg. Capt. Williams recently returned from America where he attended the funeral of his mother.

Coming Home

Others who are doing last minute shopping before their rotation dates are:

Sgt. and Mrs. Cleveland Ward of New Orleans, La., Sgt. and Mrs. Boss Felton and infant daughter, Wanda Jean, of New Orleans and Georgia; Sgt. and Mrs. Nuffer Thurman and wife of Alabama; Sgt. and Mrs. Roby Steed and son, of Baltimore, and Sgt. and Mrs. H. E. Lowrie, who are making plans to return to the Carolinas.

From Philadelphia

Darmstadt will also lose Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Thomas of Springfield, Ohio, who are going to Ft. Dix or Ft. Devens and Capt. and Mrs. Durrell Blalock and children of Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Pearl Williams and children of Washington recently joined Capt. Willis, who is stationed in Worms, Germany.

CWO and Mrs. Sterling Holmes of Frankfurt, Germany, will soon bid adieu to Germany. Mrs. Holmes is the former Sylvia Rich of Washington, D.C.

Tuckers Of D.C.

Sgt. and Mrs. Curtis Tucker of Washington, and New Orleans, La., are counting the days for the visit of the Stork. They are in hopes that he will come prior to their rotation date in July. They are stationed in Baumholder.

Just learned that Sgt. and Mrs. Nurfiry Thurman will be stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington, La. and Mrs. H. E. Lowrie will go to Ft. Devens, Mass. Lt. and Mrs. L. C. Borden, will go to Ft. Benning, Ga., and Sgt. and Mrs. Bar Baker will go to Baton Rouge, La.

Sealzes Entertain

Sgt. and Mrs. W. Seals, of Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, are about to rotate gave a unique barbecue buffet affair at their residence, 9 Jahnstrasse in Feudenheim, Saturday evening.

Sgt. Seal's barbecue was so tasty that most of the ladies forgot their calorie count and went for the delicacy in a big way. Sgt. Seals will retire from the service in the near future and will open his own business.

At the affair were Sgt. and Mrs. Boss Felton, CWO and Mrs. H. Hollowell and company Major and Mrs. H. Lee; Sgt. and Mrs. R. Saiters and Sgt. Cleveland Ward.

Sgt. and Mrs. Seals recently toured Switzerland.

Colonel and Mrs. L. J. Beasley and family are due to rotate in July but Mrs. Beasley is doing her shopping so that she will have plenty time to travel and sightsee before returning to the States.

Major, Mrs. Christmas

Infantry at Camp Claiborne, La.

Major Christmas is a native of Hazelhurst, Miss., but has established residence in Los Angeles, Calif. He majored in English and music at the University of New Mexico. During World War II he served with the 93rd Infantry Division in the Pacific.

Mrs. Christmas is a native of Pineywood, Miss., and the former Miss Louise Noland.

Mrs. Mary Maidem, and husband, Sgt. Maidem, are en route to the U.S., and their new quarters at Camp Breckenridge, Ky. where the Sergeant will be stationed.

Mrs. Butler Remains

Vivacious Edna Butler, a native of Washington, isn't on the rotation list, and is busy touring the country.

Since coming to Germany she has made many children happy by distributing gifts sent by friends in the States. This week she presented 105 DM ($25) to the St. Joseph Kinderheim a gift from the Chi Wives, mates of the members of Chi Delta Mu fraternity of Washington.

Anita, Marilyn Christmas

Mrs. Butler is very pleased with the spirit of democracy in Germany. She says: "If we can live side by side in Germany, our children attend the same schools, we attend the same civic and social activities, we can do the same thing at home."

Mrs. Butler is a member of the Mannheim Women's club, and the German American Women's club. The latter's meetings are held at the Amerika Haus in Mannheim, monthly, and gives new comers a chance to meet German women.

During the recent flood in Holland the Mannheim Women's group sent 45 crates of clothing to the flood victims.

Mrs. H. H. Hollowell, of Kansas, is secretary of the Parent-Teachers group.

Lt. Paul Waters Home

Lt. Paul Waters of Baltimore, Md., and wife, Doris, of New York City, now of Kaiserslautern, were visitors in Mannheim. Sgt. and Mrs. Paul Waters of Heidelberg were also visitors here.

I had a long chat with Mr. and Mrs. Gener R. Hinds of Los Angeles, Calif., who are touring Europe. Mr. Hinds is a civil investigator in the Golden Gate State.

Capt. and Mrs. Howard Williams and sons, Howard Jr., formerly of Neuoetheim, are now

Atlantic City Host To 2nd District Os

NEW YORK — The Omega Psi Phi fraternity's Second District Conference will be held in Atlantic City, N.J., May 1-3 it was announced by Herschel W. (Rip) Day, Second District Representative. The Second District consist of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, and part of Maryland.

Grant Reynolds, grand basileus of Omega Psi Phi, will be the guest speaker at the public meeting to be held at St. James Church, New York, and Arctic Ave., on Sunday, May 3 at 2:30 p.m. State and city dignitaries will be in attendance.

Plenary Sessions and Registration will be at Stanley Holmes Village. The Brighton Hotel on the Boardwalk will be the general headquarters. Upsilon Alpha is the host chapter.

Never let drab, ugly hair keep your dreams from coming true

...Attract romance with glamorous new haircolor

Now a miracle of beauty can happen the moment you color your hair...for you can give your hair the vibrant vitality that spells irresistible attraction and appeal. Godefroy's Larieuse Hair Coloring can wake your hair to new loveliness quickly, easily. Choose from 18 flattering colors!

Ask at your cosmetic counter for Godefroy's Larieuse Hair Coloring in the red box. Praised by thousands . . . a favorite for more than 65 years. For best results, use only as directed.

Godefroy's Larieuse Coloring FOR THE HAIR

Godefroy's Larieuse

GODEFROY MFG. CO. • 3510 OLIVE ST. • ST. LOUIS 3, MISSOURI

HOW TO DOLLY CURLS

LONG, LOVELY HAIR

at home PERMANENT

Dolly Curlette HAIR DRESSING

FOR THICK, LOVELY LONG HAIR

Make 7-Day Test of Amazing New Powerful

PEANUT OIL Hair POMADE

Stops Brittle Breaking Off . . . Makes Hair Shiny, Soft, Lustrous!

To help grow thick, manageable hair that's shiny, easy to set . . . that supplies hair and scalp with the nourishing PEANUT OIL

HAIR POMADE for 7 days! Amazing results! Make hair more manageable, easier to grow in longer, brother. Stops splitting ends, breaking off. Gives hair that shiny, healthy look that's so easy to set. Get PEANUT OIL HAIR POMADE today at your local drug store. Only $1.25 a jar (Tax Incl.) Or send direct for a trial size jar.

AMAZING 7 DAY TEST! $1.00

Send $1.00 cash, check or money order for introductory size. The 7 days, be delighted or return for full refund. (Or sh. ship $1.10, C.O.D. $2.00, with guarantee)

FREE! When You Send Order! Genuine BOW PEANUT MILK Deodorant or PLASTIC Enamel Comb. BOW PEANUT-IRRITATING!

Dept. 4 Dept. 4

BUGENE MARCHAND Dept. 10 1500 Broadway, N. Y. 1, N. Y.

Going on in the USA

By Lulu Jones Garrett

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Lewis (New York City) have announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol Jean, to Dr. Thomas W. Matthew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel O. Matthew of the Bronx.

Miss Lewis received a B. A. degree in 1952 from Sarah Lawrence college, Bronxville, New York, and is attending the New York School of Social Work. Her father is the executive director of the Urban League of Greater New York.

The prospective bridegroom is an alumnus of Manhattan College, New York, and Meharry Medical college, Nashville, Tenn., where he received his M.D. degree, class of '48.

He is at present chief resident in sure-surgery at the Boston, Mass., Veterans Administration Hospital.

A late summer wedding is planned, after which the couple expect to reside in Boston.

Among June brides will be Naomi Pearl Dickson, daughter of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. S. Dickson Jr. of Society Hill, S.C., who is affianced to Lt. McLain Davis, USA.

Lt. Davis, son of Mrs. Irene Davis McKissick, of Phoenix, Ala., has also been a resident of Cleveland, Ohio. The bride-elect is a senior at South Carolina State college.

Then add:

Tommy Cobb and Jane White in Philadelphia, who made their vows on Sunday; Aubrey Lee Hoxter Jr. and Raymunda Casin in Atlantic City; Peggy Boyd became Mrs. Ernest Siler in Marion, N.C.;

Olivia King and John Holt in Pittsburgh; Grace Byron and Warren Ellis in New York; the Peter Strongs' child Phyllis Anne, of Detroit, and Lt. Robert Green, son of Col. and Mrs. John Green of Oakland, Calif., who have late summer plans.

Then cross the ledger and note that the former Lethia Warren, Cleveland schoolmarm, is sending her marriage to her broker husband, Hyland B. Nicholson.

WITH THE LADIES

Gladys Cooper, associate professor of home economics at North Carolina college, Durham, has been granted a Fulbright to study at Queen Elizabeth college, University of London, next year. That cute senior from Philadelphia, Jennye Thomas, will be Morgan State college's May Day Queen, this year.

And at A. and T. It's Elizabeth Hill, of Columbia, S.C. who will wear the queen's mantle.

POT-POURRI

Velma T. McEwen (formerly a secretary in the Baltimore Urban League) pens with enthusiasm of the new Urban League project, a housing development in Forth Worth, Texas. (She's executive secretary in the Fort Worth League.) The project has been named from Cleveland's Jane M. Bolin, attorney.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Alexander of New York gathered sixty guests at buffet supper on Thursday evening, in honor of the Hon. Audrey L. Jeffers, M.B.E. of Trinidad, who was in New York en route to England as a delegate to the coronation of Queen Elizabeth, II.

Mr. and Mrs. Rheuben H. Hicks (he's a leader among Shriners and she's voluntarily retired deputy of the Oasis, Daughters of Isis, of Virginia) of Richmond were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Josephus Simpson of Edmondson ave.

And speaking of parties, Mrs. Arthur D. Gray of Talladega College was hostess for a bridge party honoring Dr. Gray's sister, Mrs. Louise Harris of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Mary B. Sumner of Brooklyn, New York, recently.

Five tables of guests were seated in the living room of the presidential home, which was beautifully decorated with baskets of cut flowers sent by friends and local business establishments.

Players included:

Mesdames George Owens, W. D. Gay, Harriet Wade, Donald Rasmussen, Claude Clark, Fred Montgomery, Frank Brown, John Bross, William Harris, William Twyman;

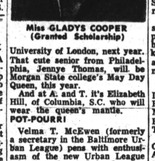
Mesdames John Morrow, L. P. O'Hara, Lloyd Hogan; Misses Annie Lois Bailey, Ruby Kennedy, Elizabeth Bingham, and Margaret Montgomery, of the Talladega College faculty.

After the serving of refreshments, prizes were awarded top score winner Mrs. Morrow, runner-up, Mrs. Bross, Mrs. William Harris, and Miss Montgomery.

Miss CAROL JEAN LEWIS (To Wed Physician)

Miss JENNYE THOMAS (Morgan Queen)

Miss ELIZABETH HILL (A. and T. Honoree)



Miss GLADYS COOPER (Granted Scholarship)

$170,000 Granted For Southern Talent Hunt

NEW YORK (ANP) — A $170,000 grant has been awarded to the National Scholarship Service and Fund for Negro Students by the Fund for the Advancement of Education of the Ford Foundation for a southwide talent search.

The grant will be used for the extension and development of the scholarship service's existing program to identify talented colored students in the south and aiding them in reaching their educational objectives through advisory services, supplementary scholarship aid,

Publishers To Present Awards

CHICAGO (ANP) — The National Newspaper Publisher association last week announced a series of merit awards to be given in eight classifications among colored newspapers for work done during 1952.

Awards will be made during the NNPA convention, June 18-20, at Morgan State College in Baltimore. They will be in the following division: 1. News stories. 2. editorials. 3. columns. 4. feature stories. 5. art and photography. 6. mechanical production 7 public service programs. 8. best examples of promoting the newspaper.

Judges are Dr. Pride, chairman; Les S. Cole and Consuelo C. Young, associate professors, and James A. Saunders, instructor, all of th Lincoln School of Journalism.

WHEN KIDNEYS Worktoo Often

If you are embarrassed and bothered by Nagging Nights Rest, Backache, Burning or Stinging Discomfort, Scanty Flow, Puffiness around Eyes, Swollen Ankles, Leg Pains, Nervousness and Bladder Irritation, set your kidneys right with DOAN'S PILLS. Such symptoms may result from a slow down of your kidneys. Doan's Pills stimulate the flow of kidney tubes. For over 50 years, DOAN'S PILLS have been a favorite. Doan's Pills have stood the test of time. Doan's Pills have proved effective through its action as a stimulant to the kidney tubes (non-specific gentle irritant). In mild urine and as an analgesic (relieve pain relievers). Over 900 million boxes of Doan's Pills have been sold the world over. Ask your neighbor! Ask your druggist! Ask! Demand Doan's Pills! Use only as directed. Doan's Pills are a dependable friend and aid to you. Satisfaction or money back guarantee.

Amazing New Cream Shampoo

Re-Colors Hair IN 17 MINUTES

Now change your hair color at home easily, gradual or dark. Only a cream shampoo. Not a bleach! Lasting color, not temporary. Not a dye. Not a rinse. Use today. It's as easy as shampooing your hair. Gives hair color that looks natural. Not a trace of dye. Not a bleach! Lasting color, not temporary. Not a rinse. It's as easy as a shampoo. Wash your hair as usual. MONEY BACK GUARANTEE. Choose your choice of 12 beautiful shades today.

CREME SHAMPOO HAIR COLORING At Drug Stores

"Change of Life Made Me Scream at My Husband"

writes Mrs. A. M., New York, N. Y.

"Hot flashes, nervousness, feel like I'm about to explode and nervousness—feel fine," she adds. If you, too, are suffering from the irritable, restless feelings and hot flashes of change of life—listen! In tests by doctors Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets gave relief of much functionally-caused distress in 63% and 80% (respectively) of the cases! Complete or striking relief!

This research has proven these magnificent formulations are the highest value medicines for functional period pains, nervousness, dizziness, "hot flashes" and simple nervous upsets in relieving distress of "hard women"!

Stay Beautiful ...by avoiding Monthly Look

No bulky pads, belts, pins to show through sheer clothes. Modern way! Use Kotex. Better than any other way.

Why look and feel worse one day out of every 28 days each month? Why let everybody know you're "that way"? Why not be free of embarrassing pads and women take a little Cardui each day to help build your energy and resistance. They look, feel, act better, feel more gay, have more energy each month, have more pep through periods without pain after a few months of Cardui. Cardui is not a tonic for Cardui! (Say) "card-qui-ee-qui".

CARDUI CHANGE OF LIFE

BAD SKIN

Don't be discouraged when your skin is broken out with ugly pimples or blackheads or other skin blemishes. You can do something about it when your complexion is responsible for your skin troubles. Thousands have proved it! Use Doan's "SKIN-SUCCESS" SOAP.

1. The doctor-prescribed medicated foam cures the annoying irritation like magic. Your skin feels so much fresher right away!

2. It gets down to the pores and helps remove those stubborn skin germs that so often grow and aggravate the infection!

3. The remarkable "revitalizing" action conditions and pops up the skin to feel fresh and alive!

4. Your skin becomes smoother, easier to be seen when the doctor-tested formula works gently down and accomplishes amazingly good results.

Super-concentrated means you do so much to help your poor skin because it is so much more effective than ordinary skin medicines. Thousands of happy users! Get Doan's "SKIN-SUCCESS" SOAP daily and see what a wonderful difference it may make in a short time. Only 25c. Time for fresh and glamorous, too!

Depend on "SKIN-SUCCESS" OINTMENT for fast, blessed relief when attacked by the stubborn, itching misery of eczema, ringworm or other skin troubles.

OINTMENT PALMER'S and SOAP SKIN SUCCESS

Beauticians Set June Meeting

NEW YORK—The New York Beauty Culturists Association will mark its 12th anniversary with a four-day convention, here, June 7-10.

The program will include workshops, lectures, clinics, demonstrations, a crystal ball at which a beauty queen will be crowned and a birthday party.

Sessions will be held in the Skyline Room, Hotel Theresa.

Mrs. Maude Gadsen is founder-president of the association. Chairmen in charge of the convention will include Mesdames Mary E. Whitehurst, Nellie Stargis, Pearl Austin, Mary Calendar, Marion Fields, Ella Lee, Ophelia Blair, and Gladys Joyner.

Mrs. Ethlyn Smith Carter will serve as mistress of ceremonies for all of the sessions.

Meet The Bridegroom Of Singer Mattiwilda Dobbs

Meet Mr. Rodrigues Garcia de la Piedra because you will be seeing him next fall.

He is a foreign correspondent for the National Radio in Madrid and serves as their foreign correspondent and writer in Paris.

He was at the Sorbonne in Paris studying law and there he met and fell in love at first sight with one of our girls.

Wed In Italy

A couple of Saturdays ago at 11 o'clock they were married in Genoic, Italy and he will travel with her throughout the continent. He will be in London when she gives her coronation concert in May, and then come back to Paris, which will be their temporary home.

Every year he will bring his bride back to North America for her tour.

The parents of our girl were over to see their prospective son-in-law and they have given him an okay. They told the AFRO he is a fine young man. They love each other and nobody else and parents on both sides have given the marriage their blessing.

Parents From Atlanta

The name of these parents Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Dobbs of Atlanta, Georgia, and it is their daughter who is now Mrs. Rodrigues Garcia de la Piedra.

Before her marriage to Rodrigues, Miss Dobbs was Mattiwilda, one of the famed Dobbs sisters who made her debut in the LaScala Opera House recently singing the role of Elvira in Rossini's "Italiana In Algeri."

Her manager is Sol Hurok, who also handles Marian Anderson, and it is Sol who says Mattiwilda is scheduled for the Metropolitan Opera.

NORFOLK WEDDING —Members of the wedding party of Miss Rosa B. Armstead and Luther C. Holland, Jr., photographed in Norfolk, Va., are: left to right, first row: Miss Blanche Smith, Mrs. Una Smothers, S. Thomas, Mrs. Juanita Thomas, Alan Shelton and Marcia Parks; second row: Henry Armstead, Leonard Sloan, Richard Armstead, Mr. and Mrs. Holland, Miss Phillis Fisher, Leon Armistead, Allie Carr; third row: Father Joseph C. Otterbein, Leon Shelton, Joseph Smithers and Miss Aurelia Parker.

GOOD NEIGHBORS — Girl Friends who came to Baltimore from seven cities to attend the Maryland city chapter's good neighbor party included, left to right: Mesdames Dorothy Sayles, Washington; Marian West, Montclair, N.J.; Thelma Baltimore, Washington.

Feminine Front

WEDDING GIFTS—The former Miss Ethel Stuart and her bridegroom, Charles Stewart, admire gifts following their recent wedding in Detroit.

Broadcast, Dedication Spark Deltas' Fortieth Anniversary

WASHINGTON

Dedication of national headquarters building here to the nation's capital, and listening parties for a special Town Meeting of the Air Broadcast, will feature the four-day 40th anniversary celebration of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, May 9-12.

Deltas, representing 229 chapters all over the country are expected to send representatives here to participate in the celebration under the direction of Miss Dorothy Height, grand president, and other members of the May Week committee including:

Mesdames Theodora Daniels, Washington, chairman; Bertell C. Wright, Montclair, N.J., co-chairman; and Miss Patricia Roberts, Washington, executive director.

Banquet At Howard

The celebration here opens Saturday, May 9 at 10 a.m. with a panel discussion at Howard University; followed by a visit to the new headquarters at 1816 M st., nw., and the 40th anniversary banquet at 7:30 p.m. at Howard.

On Sunday, May 10, 11 a.m., there will be special church services at Howard, followed by dedication of the headquarters and an artists' recital. The recital will be held at Metropolitan AME church and will feature Charlotte Wesley, soprano; and Anna D. Wilson, pianist.

An all-day seminar on effective citizenship will be the feature of the Monday, May 11, session, with addresses by key Government officials, visits to Capitol Hill and other key points.

This seminar will be continued Tuesday morning, followed by a sightseeing tour.

ABC Broadcast

At 7:45 p.m. on Tuesday, May 12, Deltas all over the country as well as those assembled in Washington for the celebration will gather to listen to talks by local leaders and then tune in at 8 p.m. for the American Broadcasting Co.'s Town Meeting of the Air which will be dedicated to the security.

Subject of the broadcast will be "Are We Losing Our Moral Courage?" Taking the affirmative side will be Dr. Charles S. Johnson, president of Fisk University. The negative side will be argued by Stanley High, senior editor of Reader's Digest. Moderator is Gunnar Back.

The Washington Hostessing party will assemble at Cardozo High school and the Baltimore listening party at Coppin Teachers college. Following the broadcast, guests will discuss the topic with local leaders acting as moderators.

Harlem Nurses School Holding Fifth Dinner

NEW YORK—The Faculty of the Harlem Hospital School of Nursing sponsored its 57 annual dinner, Monday, April 27, at Tavern-on-the-Green at 8 p.m. The Class of 1928 will be honored on the occasion of their silver anniversary.

The famous JORDAN GOSPEL SINGERS are starding their Southern Tour, on May 1st. They will be singing in Washington, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. This unusual group of radio and recording popularity will bring tears in your eyes and joy into your soul. They are singing their way into the hearts of America. These great singers have been the talk of many towns for more than 5 years. Radio Station Jordan will be along with them as guest soloist. Professor John Jones, from St. Louis, Mo., is pianist. For further information contact the

JORDAN GOSPEL SINGERS
2623 W. MOSHER ST., BALTIMORE 16, MD.

It was tops in the '20s (Ask the older folks in the family)

Today, It's the favorite of the '50s

It's the sensational SOFT, SILKY HAIR New

NELSON'S HAIR DRESSING

It's Light, It's Right, It's NELSON'S

Tarleton-Raiford Wedding Vows Exchanged In Sumter

COLUMBIA, S.C. — The wedding of Miss L. Raiford and Julian A. Tarleton, took place in First Calvary Baptist church, here, recently.

Rev. Mazie Gordon, pastor officiated at the double - ring ceremony.

Mrs. Ethel Wilson of Columbia, organist, and Miss Thomasina Martin, vocalist, of Bennett college, Greensboro, furnished the wedding music.

The ushers were D. W. Walker, Jackie Williams, William B. Greene, Windell P. Russell, a brother of the bride, and Harold Rivers, of Sumter.

Miss Champion Attends

Miss Vera Ann Champion was maid of honor and Mrs. Bernice Greene, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. They wore strapless gowns of nylon net over taffeta in pastel shades of aqua and yellow with matching stoles and tiaras of ruffled maline. They carried nosegays of fern backed with maline, centered with purple orchids and matching ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Helen Mitchell and Miss Brina Fields, of this city and Mrs. Flossie Rivers, sister of the bridegroom, of Sumter, and Miss Jeanne Slade, cousin of the bride, of Charlotte, N.C. They wore ensembles identical to those of the honor attendants, in colors of pink, blue, green and orchid.

Patricia Bogan, daughter of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Bogan and Janice Darden, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alvin Darden, were flower girls. The ring bearer was Clarence E. Morgan Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Morgan, Sr.

Bride Is Satin

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, Milton T. Raiford, was lovely in her wedding gown of oyster white satinee satin featuring an off-shoulder effect enhanced by Chantilly lace.

Her full length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a Chantilly lace bonnet with orange blossoms and seeded pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of feathered carnations and lilies of the valley, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. JULIAN TARLETON

Mr. Palmer Best Man

James Palmer of Meharry Medical college and Sumter was best man. Mrs. Milton W. Raiford, mother of the bride, wore a dress of sauce French lace, featuring a scalloped bolero, long beige nylon gloves and lavender orchid corsage.

Mrs. St. Clair Robinson, mother of the bridegroom, wore an ice-blue dress of lace, matching gloves and orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception. Mesdames Wilhelmina Maddo and Minnie John son greeted the guest.

Aides Serve

Misses Phylis Patterson, Kathryn Neal, Margaret Bowling, Mesdames Ella Chappell, Mamie Thompson, Annie Paul, Ruth Thompson, Arabella Goodwin;

Misses Patricia Ann Greene, sisters of the bride, and Edith Hammond, Mesdames Frances Proter, Margaret Smith, Harriett Rogers and Margaret Walker.

The couple will make their home at 312 W. Bartlette st., Sumter.

Mrs. Tarleton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Watson Raiford of Columbia. She is a graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro, and at present a teacher at Booker Washington high school, here.

Mr. Tarleton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair Robinson of Sumter. He is a graduate of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga. His fraternity is the Omega Psi Phi.

Out-of-Town Guests

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were:

Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Williams, Fanny Rice, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Mitchell, Mrs. Mildred Singleton, Mrs. Pearl B. Brown, and son, Mrs. E. D. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Wright, Mr. and Mrs. George Singleton, all of Sumter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson, Miss Lois Coleman, Miss Ruth Peterson, all of Aiken, S.C., Mrs. Clarence Funderburk, John Funderburk, William Funderburk, all of Lanchester, S. C.

Miss Jeanne Martin, Mrs. W. W. Slade, James Davidson all of Charlotte, N.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Hillard Robinson, Mrs. Septima Clark, Miss Larene R. Painsette, all of Charleston.

Noble Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. James Hinton Jr., all of Washington, D.C.; Wilbert E. Canty, Aberdeen, Md., Maj. C. S. Stripling, Savanah, Ga.; Miss Vinons Nicholas, Orange, N.J.; Mrs. Odell S. Smart, Paterson, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown Jr., Midville, Ga.; Miss Ezma Burgess, Mrs. C. R. Burgess, Darlington, S.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henery, Florence, S.C.; Miss Cora B. Canley, Ashville, N.C.;

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clarkson, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Clarkson, Hopkins, S. C., George Allen, Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Ball and Mrs. C. D. Raiford, New York City.

Mrs. Thelma Bando Heads Chi Wives

PHILADELPHIA — At the recent conclave of Chi Delta Mu fraternity, here, Mrs. Thelma P. Bando of Baltimore, was elected national president of the Chi Wives for the fourth consecutive year.

Other national officers included:

Mrs. Charles R. Cephas of New Brighton, Pa., vice president; Mrs. Garland Smyer, Washington, treasurer, and Mrs. Alexander Bell, Washington, national secretary.

The Chi Delta Mu Fraternity meet in Washington next year. Dr. Charles R. Cephas of New Brighton, is the grand president.

Give Your Skin the CHANCE to be LOVED

...the Doctors Said Sure Way to Get LIGHTENS SKIN

You owe it to yourself or your lighter, brighter more lovable skin. Dr. FRED Palmer's new, DOUBLE STRENGTH SKIN WHITENER works under to heal those blemishes, leave skin clear, fresher looking. Dr. Fred Palmer's Skin Whitener is the only spot treatment that has gone through the tests of the doctors. Ask for and get the original Dr. FRED Palmer's SKIN WHITENER. Guaranteed to satisfy.

Dr. FRED Palmer's DOUBLE STRENGTH SKIN WHITENER

Guaranteed to make your skin lighter or your money back

Miss Rosa B. Armistead Is Married To Luther Holland

HAMPTON, Va.—Blessed Martin Catholic Center was the setting, recently for the marriage of Miss Rosa B. Armistead to Luther C. Holland Jr.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Joseph C. Otterbein before an altar beautifully decorated with lilies and narcissus.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Norma A. Scott. She is a graduate of Va. State college and a teacher of Ruffner Junior high in Norfolk. Mr. Holland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther C. Holland Sr., of Burkittsville, Maryland. Mr. Holland is a graduate of Hampton Institute and an employee there.

Mrs. Hattie Alston played a program of wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Gladys Campbell, soloist.

Wears Satin And Lace

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Richard L. Armstead, wore a full length dress of duchess satin with a Chantilly lace bodice.

Her fingertip veil was arranged with a seed pearl crown. She carried the mother of bride's pearl prayer book centered with a white orchid and showered with lilies of the valley. She wore a single strand of cultured pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Juanita S. Thomas, the sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore aqua net over satin.

The bridesmaids, Miss Aurelia Parker of Hampton and Miss Blanche Smith of Richmond, wore identical gowns of pink net over satin.

Miss Phyllis Fisher, of Lynchburg, and Mrs. Una Smothers, of Baltimore, wore dresses of lavender net over satin. The bridesmaids and matron of honor carried nosegays which matched their dresses.

Nieces Are Flower Girls

The flower girls, both nieces of the bride, little Shirley Thomas and Marcia Parks wore yellow organza dresses and carried baskets of rose petals which they sprinkled before the bride.

Alan Shelton, nephew of the bride, dressed in a white suit, carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Allie Carr served as best man. The ushers were Leon and Henry Armistead, brothers of the bride; Joseph Smothers of Baltimore, and Leonard Sloan of Hampton.

Mrs. Scott In Gray

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Scott wore a gray lace dinner dress, pink hat and gloves, and a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Holland wore a blue net dress with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland left from Parick, N.J. after the reception. The bride traveled in a navy blue suit with blue and white accessories. Her corsage was white orchid.

Increase Asked In D. C. Budget

WASHINGTON (NNPA) — President Eisenhower last Wednesday sent to the Congress a supplemental estimate of app